 out. I commenced to halloo and the girl did also when she saw it; we were running after them halloing, "Police" and other people also came along and he was caught.
 (the prisoner) in Rutter St. This happened in front of 141 East Broadway. I think it is two or three blocks from there that the prisoner was arrested. Gussie Levi is in Court; she is the girl who was there.
 Cross Examined. I am a pedler and have been in this country one year.
 People that were in the house went ahead of me. I am sure I saw somebody take the watch from me; the prisoner struck me first. Gussie Levi sworn. I live 141 East Broadway and was living there on the 16th of March. I was present at the time Edler was assaulted. I was opening the door for him and other people. I saw the prisoner knock him down, and as soon as I commenced to halloo the people came and the prisoner ran away. I saw the prisoner when the policeman had him. Cross Examined. Edler did not shove up against him. I let him and others out of our house that night and bid them good night. The prisoner and the other fellow was walking when I first saw them when they knocked him down. Nicholas Ryan sworn. I am an officer of the Seventh Precinct. and arrested the prisoner in Rutgers St; he was running. There was a crowd. I got ahead of them and captured him; the crowd were calling, "Stop Thief." I asked the complainant if the prisoner was one of the men who knocked him down and robbed him and he said he was. I rapped for assistance and four policemen came; the prisoner said, if I wanted him I would have to carry him; he resisted and it took four of us to take him to the station house. When the complainant said the prisoner was one of them, he replied, "You lie, you sheeny son of a b." The prisoner was searched in the station house, but the watch was not found on him. William Fitzgerald, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. He lives 244 Cherry St. and have lived there about eight years. I have never been arrested for a criminal offence. I have worked for H. J. Roosevelt, 263 South St.; he is in the lumber business. I drove a cart for him. I worked for him in Nov. last; then I worked for Sanger & Co in Cherry St. in the leather business. I left there the 28th of February. I was arrested on the 16th of March. Wm. McGuire was with me. I did not rob Edler or assist in robbing him. I did not know that the man who was with me was going to rob him. This night we were out drinking and we were going home. I was going to leave him at the corner of Rutgers and Cherry Sts. McGuire was going to the Grand St. ferry; he lives in Williamsburgh. I knew him when I worked in a tin shop there; I met him at the corner of Market St. and East Broadway. There was three or four young men came down off the stoop of the house and one of them pushed up against the young man who was with me and knocked him in the gutter. This young woman was explaining to me not to mind him. I got pushed in the gutter and assaulted this man (the complainant) back again. he got up and shouted "watch and police", and the two of us went away. I did not want to get arrested for fighting. Cross Examined. The young woman came down the steps and told me not to mind the man. It was not Edler who assaulted me. I could not say which man. I could not say if Edler hit me. I had not seen McGuire for two years before that night; we were drinking together. Patrick J. Haggerty sworn. I am foreman in a printing office No 11 Barclay St. and live at 5 Attorney St. I have known the defendant since he was a child; he has a good reputation. I never heard of his being in a difficulty before this time. Hugh Shannon and Mrs. Griffin also testified to the good reputation of the defendant. Yussie Levi was recalled and testified that she did not go off the stoop to speak to the defendant. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

03 14

 being duly sworn says, - I am acquainted with the boy Edward Fletcher. He was in my employ until a few days before his arrest. His father died quite recently, he had been in my employ for several years before his death and was a very faithful upright man. The boys mother was left by her husband dead in a destitute condition and I took the boy in order to help her, and it was while with me that he had access to an old store room, from which he took the things. I found the boy to be honest in all other matters. I sent him to collect large sums of money, sent him with money to the bank, and elsewhere and always found him honest. I do not think the boy is inherently bad.
 I think he was tempted, and fell, but he can be reformed without stamping him as a convict.
 And I believe that a suspension of the judgment of the Court on this boy would better serve reformation than imprisonment.

New York, March 7th 1884

Dear Sir - I respectfully submit the two affidavits enclosed. They are all that I have had time to prepare. I can add nothing to which I have already said on behalf of the unfortunate boy Ed Fleeter. The boy is not a hard character by any means, but quite the contrary.
There is no doubt in my mind that he - less he has now learned will last him through life; and that if judgment is suspended in his case there will be no need hereafter to call in play a correctional tribunal. I know all the parties affected by this boy's acts - and there is a tendency to greatly exaggerate the value of the property taken, which, I think the officers will bear me out in stating, "was worth of more than $150 in value: all of which excepting a few articles - concealed by human brokers - have been returned Mr. J. F.

Trusting that I have secured your patience and kindest regards

Sometime in April last Hubert J. Frawley pleaded ^{not} guilty to an indictment for grand larceny procured on the complaint of Peter F. Collier, publisher of Vandewater St. He was let out on $500 bail although Judge Huffy fixed it at $1000, having reduced it from $5000. I have on several occasions called on Mr. Donnelly to inquire when the trial would come off. As he could say no more each time than "call next month" I stopped going.

It is now nine months since the release on bail and the complaint ant is surprised at the delay. I have not been able to account to him for it and write you now for something definite. Please answer with favorable news.
