vs James Smith } Court of General Sessions, Part 7
Before Judge Gildersleeve. April 3, 1883

James Smith was jointly indicted with Frank Williams for grand larceny in the first degree.

Asst. Dist. Atty. O'Byrne for the People.

Mr. W. F. Kintzing for the Defendant.

A jury was empanelled and sworn.

Jonas Bauer, sworn and examined through the interpreter testified.

By Mr. O'Byrne Q Is your name Jonas Bauer.

A Yes sir.

Q Where does he live? A In Fortieth St.

Q Ask him if he was looking at Barnum's show upon the night of the 24th of March? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A I believe it was in Fifth Avenue, I do not know.

Q At what street about, up town.

A I cannot say, I do not know, sir.

Q Well, can he tell us about where, was it from Fortieth to Fiftieth street.

A I went home from Jones street; it may have been from Fortieth to Fiftieth street.

Q Well now, will you look at that watch (watch shown) A. That is my watch.

Q Did you lose that watch upon that night?
A Yes sir.

Q And if so, about when was it at night time. A. At night.

Q About what time in the night?
A After seven o'clock, about eight o'clock.

Q Where is the chain, was the chain left.

A I have the chain home.

Q It was wrenched off his chain? A. Yes sir.

Q That is the value of the watch, what is it worth about. A. When I bought it it was 32 marks - That is about eight dollars.

Q Is it worth as much as that.

A It is not worth so much now.

Q Is it worth a dollar or two.

A O yes, a dollar.

Q Now will you just tell the jury the circumstances under which you lost your watch. A. When we went home from work we were standing and looked at Barnum's show and procession, and I wanted to look at my watch and see what time it was and the watch was gone.

0718

and the chain was hanging down.

Q Were there many people about.

A Yes sir.

Q Let him describe what happened, what the people were doing at the time that he lost the watch.

A Then I was looking around, I thought I had lost my watch, and while I was looking around for my watch the detective came up to me and gave me his card.

Q Then when did you next see this watch. A. Sunday morning in the station house.

Q And this was Saturday night you lost it. A. Yes sir.

James K. Price, sworn and examined, testified.

By Mr. O'Byrne Q Officer Price, are you an officer of the Twenty ninth precinct?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know this defendant here.

A Yes sir -

Q You need not say anything - I am simply asking the question if you know him. A. Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him.

0719

" A Three years and over.

Q Did you see the complainant upon the night of the 24th of March? A. I did.

Q Did you become acquainted with the fact that he lost his watch.

A I called his attention to his watch chain and asked him if he lost his watch.

By Counsel Q Officer, does he talk English.

A No sir.

Counsel: Anything you said to him I object to unless he understood you.

By Mr. O'Byrne Q In consequence of what he did say — A. There was a lady standing by who interpreted for me.

Counsel: I object to anything said to him by the lady.

By Mr. O'Byrne Q In consequence of what was said to you what did you do.

A I took hold of the complainant's watch chain, I says, "your watch?" and he looked and commence to look around the gutter. I says, "Stop here," and I started off.

Q That was where. A. Corner of 4th St. first St and Madison Avenue.

Q Well now where did you go to.

A I went up some distance, twenty five or thirty feet, perhaps a hundred feet from them across the sidewalk, and I put a colored man under arrest. I turned the colored man over to an officer in uniform and told him to take him to the station house after I searched him. I came to where Bauer was standing and gave him my card with my name.

0720

Q Tell them what next. A. I then followed the procession down Fifth Avenue and Twenty ninth St. to Twenty ninth St. and Broadway.

Q Did you tell us where Bauer was standing, corner of Forty first St.

A Yes sir, on the southwest corner of Forty first St. and Madison Avenue.

Q Then you followed it down to Twenty ninth St. A. Yes sir, I followed the procession down Twenty ninth St. to Fifth Avenue, and at the corner of Twenty ninth St. and Broadway I made another arrest and went to the station house. When the procession came uptown I met it at Thirty fourth St. and Seventh Avenue and followed down Seventh Avenue. At Twenty Eighth st. and Seventh Avenue my attention was called to the prisoner and another man named Frank Williams.

Q Who pleaded guilty two or three days ago. A. Yes sir. I followed them and watched them to the corner of Twenty Third St. and Sixth Ave. and with the assistance of Officer Barlow I put them both under arrest.

Q How did you come to get this watch. A Officer Barlow had Williams in charge, I was walking behind.

By Counsel Q Who was Williams? A. I had this prisoner in charge. I was walking behind and I saw him pull his hand out of his pocket.

By the Court Q Saw who? A. Williams. I says to Barlow to look out, and just at that minute Williams threw four watches out of his pocket. That is three of them (pointing to three watches on the table) - the other one was lost.

By Mr. O'Byrne Q One of the watches was the watch identified by the complainant. A By the complainant.

0722

- Q Go on and tell us, A. I followed both of these men and saw them working together.
- Counsel That is objected to.
- Mr. O'Byrne: I offer this watch in evidence.
- Counsel That is the people's case.
- I have no objection. I have not a word to say. I ask your Honor to advise this jury to acquit.
- The Court. I was interrupted a moment. The complainant did not state that he saw the defendant take the watch.
- Counsel. No - nobody.
- By the Court. Q And Price did not state that he saw the defendant until he saw him at Twenty eighth St. and Seventh Avenue.
- A That is the first time I saw him.
- Q And the complainant lost his watch at Forty first St. and Madison Avenue. A. Yes sir.
- Q You say your attention was called to Smith and Williams.
- A My attention was attracted to them.
- Q Now did you see them converse together? A. Yes sir.
- Q You did. A. Yes sir.
- Q How long a time did you observe their movements? A. From twenty minutes to half an hour.
- 7

0723

Q. And during all that time were they at intervals conversing together?

A. Yes, I saw them stopping at the corner of Twenty Fifth Street and Seventh Avenue. Smith stepped up and Williams behind him they stood and went to Twenty Fifth St. and Seventh Avenue and did the same thing, and went to the Elevated Station at Twenty Third St. and Sixth Avenue and did the same thing.

Counsel. There is not a particle of evidence that this man or Williams was in the vicinity at the time. Two hours afterwards the officer sees them in Twenty Eighth St. and Seventh Ave talking together.

By the Court. Q. How long a time after you saw the complainant at Fifty first St. and Madison Ave. was it that you saw Smith and Williams at Twenty eighth St. and Seventh Ave. while the procession was making its way. A. The procession had gone down town and come back again.

0724

Q - Was it two hours or an hour.
A. - Went an hour and a half -
