The People v. [S]gent of General Sessions. Before Recorder
John M. Carty & Smythe, February 4, 1880.

Indictment for petty larceny from the person.

Jeremiah Sullivan sworn and examined.
Testified. I work alongshore and live at 150 Cherry St; there was another party with this prisoner. Where did you see the prisoner on the night of the 30th of January? It was in the day I seen him, it was about 11 o'clock in the forenoon. I was in a liquor store sitting by a stove in Market Slip; he and his comrade asked me up to have a drink; his comrade said he knew me. He said, "Jerry, come up and have a drink," and the comrade paid for the drink; we had a few drinks there; the prisoner had no money, his comrade was paying for all; the prisoner said to me, "Come down to the other store; we will get a better drink there." So we went into the other store, and he met a friend there, and he called for another drink; so then we went inside; he said, "Come in here"; there was a kind of dark back room. I had a two dollar and a single dollar bill in my vest pocket.
So I sat down and he (the prisoner) was standing beside me; this was in Paddy Roach's there a few doors from the first store; the prisoner began to talk to me about Parnell what money he had made for Ireland; he put his hand like that (showing) I "caught" his hand in my pocket. I put my hand in my pocket and I felt the money was gone; I said, "That is no good; give me the money back." As soon as I said that, ^{he} and his com-rade both ran up the street. I was dressed as I am now; my coat was open like that; the money was in the left hand pocket of my vest. I went out after ^{he} and his comrade; they cleared up the street. I went round about ten minutes afterwards and met officer English. I told him the circumstance; he says, "Come around and we will look after him;" we went around and officer English and I went up to the same store and we saw them drinking. I had this man arrested; there was nothing happened in the first store only the drink; the prisoner was arrested in Ronchi's store. The officer asked me if I would make a charge against the other man? I said, No, I had no charge to make against him. Cross Examined. I met the prisoner first in a store kept by a man named Wagner. I was in the store before the prisoner and his friend came in sitting by the stove. I got up that morning about 8 o'clock. I was doing nothing that day; we got paid off the day before.

I counted my money early that morning; it was wet in my pocket, and those men saw me drying the money by the stove. I had three dollars in my pocket when I went out of the house in this vest pocket. I went down to the liquor store to dry myself and had a drink there for which I paid ten cents. I did not change one of those bills on that occasion. I was there about ten minutes before these men came in.
 We had two drinks in that store and one drink in another; we went down to Rack's store, which is in the same street. I counted the money before I left the first store. I did not count it in the second store but I felt it in my pocket. After my money was taken from me the two men ran away.
 I went down the street to South St. I told the officer what they done to me. He said, "Come on with me. We looked for them; they were both in the second store drinking at the bar; the prisoner and his friend saw me drying the money by the stove in the first store; it was after that they asked me to drink.
 I don't know what the prisoner said when officer Gresham arrested him. I reside at 450 Cherry St. I was working for the City of Portland Me. line of steamers for the last sixteen years at the port of Market St.

what money he had made for Ireland; he put his hand like that (showing) I "catched" his hand in my pocket. I put my hand in

I made a complaint that I lost money the night before, I lost it in Cherry St. down the corner of Oliver St. How much did you lose? I had eleven dollars altogether and I lost six out of the eleven. I had two dollars more. I left them in the horse after me. I cannot tell the exact time I lost the six dollars in Cherry St. the night before; it was I guess between 11 and 12 o'clock. I went to bed at 12 o'clock, I got up and I was drying the money at the stove. I am sure I had the three dollars this night Patrick English sworn. I arrested the prisoner in a bar room 97 Market St. on the complaint of Jeremiah Sullivan. I arrested him in a liquor store kept by Patrick Roach. I told the prisoner what he was arrested for, and he said to the complainant, "Jerry, you won't have me arrested, will you? He says, 'I will give you back the money and don't make any charge against me.' John McCarthy was sworn in his own defence. He said that he did not take any money out of the pocket of the complainant in Roach's store; he was in there with a friend and Sullivan was there; they had three or four weeks; a young fellow went into the back room with us and sang a song. Sullivan missed his money and accused me of stealing it. I did not say to the officer that I would give back the money if I was not arrested; Tullivan wanted me to give him a dollar to settle it. I told him I had no dollar I did not run away.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
He was sent to the State prison for two years and six months.
