William Foley

of No. No house Street, Aged 34 Years

Occupation Sailor being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 21st day of March 1890, at the 1st Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, <sup>attempted to be</sup> was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, from the person of deponent by force and violence, without his consent and against his will, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States of the value of about Twenty cents

~~of the value of~~ DOLLARS,

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was

feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, by force and violence as aforesaid by Andrew Burke (now here) for the reasons that deponent was walking along Greenwich Street at about 2 o'clock in the daytime and was intoxicated. Deponent had said money in the pocket of the pantaloons then worn on his person and part of his bodily clothing. Deponent is informed by Officer Thomas Blattery (now here) that he, Blattery, was walking standing on the corner of Greenwich Street and Trinity Place and saw deponent standing there and deponent had money in his hand, he saw deponent start to walking up Greenwich <sup>St</sup>. Said Blattery saw the defendant whom he knows by reputation, loitering about and follow deponent and when deponent had walked about one hundred feet the defendant tripped deponent knocking him down and defendant fell upon deponent. The said Blattery immediately ran up and arrested the defendant and said money was not then in deponents hand. Said Blattery searched the defendant but said money could not be found. Deponent has no personal knowledge or recollection of the circumstances here narrated and deponent after sleeping off the effects of said intoxication, deponent found said twenty cents which deponent charges the defendant with attempting to take from deponent by means of force and violence and while deponent was in a condition unable to resist.
