 Annie Racher } Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 6. 1893.
 Indictment for grand larceny first degree August 14. Damm, sworn and examined.
 I live at No. 713 Catland Avenue in this city. I am a baker and know the defendant at the bar. When did she first come to you? The first of August of this year; she asked my wife for employment; my wife employed her and she went to work as a servant. How long did she continue in your employ? Three days. It was on my complaint that she was arrested. Did you lose any money?
 Yes, fifty dollars. What was it in? In the bureau drawer. My wife missed the money; she put it in the bureau drawer in the morning; my wife is here in Court. Did you see this girl after the money was missed until she was arrested? She was hired for a month at the rate of ten dollars a month; she left her clothing at our house; she was not discharged.
 Cross Examined. There were no words between me and her before she left. I am sure of that. Did you on several occasions complain to Mr. Hayes that you had servants who were in your employ who stole from you? No. Did you ever complain of any person else stealing from you? No. Did you tell any person that any money was taken by any servant at all before this time? No. What time of day did this girl leave? About half past six in the evening. Were you home then? Yes. You saw her going away? No I did not. I was down stairs. I did not know she was going away.

Annie E. Gamm, sworn and examined I am the wife of the last witness and live with him at No 713 Cortland Avenue in this city. I know this defendant since the first of August. In what way did you become acquainted with her? She came in the store on the first of August and asked for employment; she came into my employment on the first of August and left on the 3^d; she stayed with me all those three days. When I last saw her on the 3^d it was about half past six or a quarter to seven o'clock in the evening; she was in the room where the money was; it was in a box in the dresser on the ground floor the same as the store back of the store. Did she have a hat on at the time? Yes. How soon after that did she go out? She went out of the door to wait for a friend of hers and as she got to the door she saw this friend coming along and they went after. Did she tell you she was going out to wait for a friend at that time? Yes. Who was that friend? I think her name was Elena Rifley, but I am not positive. They went right off. When did you see her after that? Not until I saw her in the Police Court on the 4th of Sept. She had not been at your house in the mean time before the 3rd of August at 6 1/2 o'clock and the 4th of Sept., when you saw her in the Police Court, was she? No.

How much money was in that box which was in the dresser? Fifty five dollars, $40 in bills and a five dollar gold piece; there were two ten dollar bills and I am not positive about the rest. I know there was one five but whether there were more than one I do not know and two single bills

How long before half past six o'clock the hour when you last saw this defendant on the third of August had you seen the money in that dresser? About half past five, about one hour before. Were you between the back room and the bakery all that hour, when you last saw the money and last saw this defendant? Yes, I was either in the store, the kitchen or the back room. During that hour was there anybody else in the back room except yourself and this defendant? No. When the defendant came into your employ did she leave any property in your place? Her clothes. What did they consist of? One wrapper that she wore in the house, a black sateen waist, two gingham aprons, three white aprons and a wig. I could not tell you what she used the wig for, she did not use it at our house. When did you notice your money was missing? About fifteen minutes after she had gone. I reported the loss to my husband at once. When was it first reported to the police? It was several days afterwards. I do not know when exactly they reported it.

Have you had any conversation with this defendant since? No sir.

Cross Examined Forty dollars were taken; one five dollar gold piece was left. I could not say exactly how many days after I lost the money that I reported it to the police. Is there any door on the side of the back room whereby a person could get out of the hallway into that room? There is, but there is a wardrobe against it that locks it and it is never opened. When I went into the back room to change a five dollar bill for a customer the money was there I left the customer in the store and went into the back room. After that I did not see the money again. At the time I saw the money I counted it and I knew I had forty dollars. Did anybody else have access to your back room? No. There was your husband at the time Annie went out? Down stairs in the bakery. We have one man in our employ and he sleeps down stairs and he eats in our place; he takes his meals in the kitchen.

By District Attorney. You have been asked whether there was any door which led from the back room into the hall? Yes. Is there such a door? There is a door, but there is a wardrobe against that door that nobody can come in the door when the door has not been opened.

By the Court

So that anybody who entered from the hall would have to knock that wardrobe down? Yes. and I would be very likely to hear it. That wardrobe was there on the third day of August.

Edward Wood, sworn and examined, testified I am a police officer and I arrested the defendant on this charge on the 3^d of September in the Twenty Ninth precinct station house, 126th street near Third Avenue, Harlem on the complaint of Mr. Garmun. I gave orders to some officer to arrest her and he brought her to the station house and notified me. I accused her of taking this money and she denied taking it. I told her that Mrs. Garmun had made the complaint against her in the station house for stealing forty dollars out of her back room. She said she did not take it. Then I asked her why she left there so mysteriously, and she said Mr. Garmun had insulted her. That was the whole of the conversation. Did she tell you where she had been in the mean time? No sir. Annie Bacher, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. Did you steal this money? No. Did you know anything about it? No. You never took it either directly or indirectly? I don't know anything about it.

Cross Examined. I will be eighteen years old next week. I live with my father and mother at 154th street between Melrose and Third avenue. Is either one of them in Court today? No. Had you been living with them up to the time you went to Mrs. Darnum's employ? No. I was living out before that. I lived with Mr. West four months. I was living with Mrs. Darnum from the first to the third of August. Why did you leave on the third? Because the man - Mr. Darnum - drugged me in the cellar. I don't know what the drug was; it was between eleven and twelve o'clock in the morning. I did not tell Mrs. Darnum or anybody else about it. I only told my friend who came to see me at a quarter after seven o'clock in the evening. I lost consciousness when he drugged me. I don't know how long I was unconscious. I woke up before twelve o'clock. The lady sent me down stairs into the cellar to get caraway seed. The man was down stairs, and he put a bottle to my nose and asked me to smell it. and said, "Is this the stuff you want?" We were alone in the cellar. I went out of this house at seven o'clock in the evening and went to a lady's house in Third Avenue between 155th and 156th Sts; her name is Mrs. Becker. I told her about this man. I did not go to my own home that night because I did not know where my father lived at that time. I was boarding with Mrs. Becker between the third of August and the 3rd of Sept. I was arrested in August by a policeman who charged me with "soliciting" and the Magistrate sent me to the Workhouse for ten days. I don't know why I did not complain to a policeman about what Mr. Damm did to me. I did not tell the Magistrate either. August M. Damm recalled testified that he heard the testimony of the defendant; he did not drug her in the cellar; he was not home between eleven and twelve o'clock on the third of August. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

I desire to withdraw the complaint and ask that the defendants be discharged. I was very much under the influence of liquor and the statement of the defendant Beere may be true that he was taking care of me and my property. I have ascertained from a number of persons that Oscar Beere has a good reputation in the community for honesty.

Indictment filed September 12th, 1893.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

New York, September 18th, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S .

For the People,
Assistant District Attorney Stephen J. O'Hare.
For the Defendant, Mr. J. R. Keane.

F R A N K K. H O R N B Y, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

On the 25th of July I occupied a store at 363 Third Avenue. I was in the milk, butter and egg business. The defendant was employed by me. I left the store between ten and eleven o'clock, and left the defendant in charge of my business. Before going out I left $60 in bills and $3 in silver money in the drawer. I went down town and when I came back I found that the defendant had gone and left a little girl belonging in the neighborhood in the store. I looked for the defendant, but could not find him. I have never received any of the money which was missing from my drawer. Three weeks ago

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

0826

Friday I found the defendant. When I saw him I said "Hullo, how do you do, Walter?" He looked at me and said he didn't know me. I called an officer. The officer asked me if I knew him, and I told him yes, that he was the man who robbed me. On the way to the station house he asked me not to press the charge against him. I told him he had taken $63, and he denied that he had taken that much. I did not ask him what he had done with the money. He was taken to the stationhouse and locked up. When I saw him afterwards he admitted taking the money, and said he was then working for some company in Brooklyn. When he asked me not to press the charge against him I told him that he was in the custody of the officers and I had nothing whatever to do with the case; that the matter was now in the hands of the courts. The defendant said that all the money he took was $17; I told him it was $63, that I had counted the money before I left the store and knew exactly what the amount was.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

This money was stolen from me on or about the 15th of July, 1891; that is two years ago. I never saw the defendant from that time until the day this year, 1893, when I had him arrested. At the time the defendant left my store I owed him about $3 balance of his wages. I am positive that the amount I left in the drawer was $63, and not $17.

A N N I E E . S C H U M A C H E R , a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I know the defendant Walter Blohm. I live at 363
(2)

Third Avenue; that is right next door to the store of the complainant. On one day two years ago I was outside by the door. The defendant Walter Blohm came to me at about 11 o'clock, and asked me if I would mind the store for him until he came back. I went into the store and waited for some time. Finally Mr. Hornby came and I told him that the defendant had left me in the store.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I went into that store at about 11 o'clock, and stayed there until very nearly two. I have never been a witness before. The testimony which I have given is true, and it is all I know about this case.

J A M E S T I M O N Y, a witness for the People, sworn,
testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 18th Precinct in this city. On the 5th of August last I arrested the defendant on the complaint of Mr. Hornby. I heard from the complainant that he was stopping at Smith & McNell's Hotel; I went there, but was unable to find him. I saw his name signed on the register. I found the defendant afterwards, arrested him and took him to the police station. I had no conversation with him about the case.

W A L T E R H. B L O H M, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have been living at Smith & McNell's Hotel for about three months. Previous to that I lived in South Fifth Street in Brooklyn. I was employed by the complainant two years ago. I have heard his testimony given on the stand. I had an agreement with Mr. Hornby that I was to receive $12 a week, and 50 cents for each extra customer that I would get him for milk. I remember the 15th of July. I was left in charge of the store on that day by Mr. Hornby. I did not see any $63 in the drawer. There was a couple of silver dollars and some money in change,-- I don't know the exact amount. All I took was $17. I went off and did not come back. I have never been arrested charged with any other crime. Mr. Hornby is mistaken when he says he did not see me from the time of my leaving the store until three weeks ago; I met him several times on the street, and had conversations with him. He never attempted to arrest me until this time.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Assistant District Attorney Stephen J. O'Hare.
For the defendant, Mr. C. J. O'Callaghan.

WILLIAM S. DEVERY, a witness for the People, sworn testified: I am Captain of the Eleventh Precinct in this City. The station house of that precinct is in Eldridge Street. On the 17th of August last I was informed of a disturbance at Walhalla Hall, No. 52 Orchard Street.
I went to the place. Upon arriving there the street was crowded. I made my way into the hall and I found every one in there fighting and slamming doors. They shut me out. I proceeded to the street again and sent one of my officers to the station house to call the reserves of the other precincts. There were from fifteen hundred to two thousand people in the street. Those in the hall started to come out before the reserves arrived. There were some ten or fifteen arrests made, among them this man Bloom. When I went into the hall I found the gas-fixtures all torn down, the chairs all broken, a piano and a looking glass broken, and the place virtually smashed entirely, nothing left. With the assistance of the reserves that arrived I cleared the street. It took between one hundred and one hundred and fifty policemen to clear the street. The people were shouting and defying the police.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N.

Walhalla Hall has a saloon in front on the ground floor. It was upstairs that the disturbance was going on.

ROBERT B. BECK, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police of this City attached to the Eleventh Precinct. On the afternoon of the 17th of last August I arrested the defendant Bloom in the street in front of Walhalla Hall.. I was ordered with the reserves to Walhalla Hall on that afternoon, and when I arrived there Captain Devery sent me in, together with other men, to help clean the hall out. I entered in through the side door, the door on the south at the rear of the hall. Three of us went in: When we got in some one inside slammed the door and shouted police. I saw the crowd start to smash things in general. Finally I made my way in again and tried to pacify the people. This man Bloom was probably fifteen feet from where I stood. I saw him raise up his hand and pull down a gas jet or a chandelier. I also saw him smash several panes of glass. I pushed my way into the hall and followed him up as close as I could. When he came outside I placed him under arrest and made a complaint against him. I recognize him positively as the man whom I saw pulling down the gas-jet. Everything in the place was being smashed when I went in there.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N.

I could not be mistaken about this being the man. There was a large crowd of people in there, but I was able to single out this man because he was very tall, and he reached up and pulled down the chandelier. I made several other arrests on that day.

JOHN FOLEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a special officer attached to the Eleventh Precinct, in this city. On the afternoon of August 17th last, in company with other police officers, I went to Walhalla Hall. There were two or three thousand people in the street in front of Walhalla Hall. They were making a loud noise and throwing stones and sticks at the place. I did not see this man Bloom there while I was there.

I am a special officer attached to the Eleventh Precinct. About three o'clock on the afternoon of the 17th of August I went to Walhalla Hall. When I reached there I found the street in front of the hall crowded with people, who were shouting and throwing stones. The reserves were telegraphed for to the different precincts and arrived in a short time. With the aid of one hundred and fifty policemen, order was restored. I did not see the defendant there.

I live at 29 De Lancey Street. On the 17th of August last I was employed at No. 52 Orchard Street, in Walhalla Hall. On that afternoon I saw this defendant, Bloom, in the ladies' dressing room lift up a chair and begin to holler out. I then saw him throw the chair through a looking-glass and smash it to pieces. I caught him, but he got away from me and began smashing things generally. I saw him afterwards under arrest, and I positively identify him as the man who smashed the looking glass, as I have stated. I noticed that a gas-fixture was pulled down, but I did not see who pulled it down.

There were about from one thousand to twelve hundred people in that hall on that day. I am employed by the proprietor of the hall, Mr. Finklestein, as a bartender. I had never seen this man before in my life, but I am positive I saw him on that afternoon doing the things I have stated.

MOSES FINKELSTEIN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 48 Orchard Street in this city. On the 17th of August last I was the proprietor of Walhalla Hall. I did not hire out that hall to any persons on that day. During the day a crowd of people burst in the doors and took possession of the hall for the purpose of holding a meeting. There were about two hundred chairs in that hall when these people came in. Several of the chairs, several windows, a piano and a looking glass were smashed. The damage done to the place I estimate at about four hundred dollars. All the keys of the piano were broken and it was useless afterwards.

JULIUS MITCHELL, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 8 Broome Street. I keep a saloon at No. 42 East Broadway. I was at Walhalla Hall on the afternoon of the 17th of August last at about one o'clock. When I reached there I saw a large crowd of people. I went inside and saw that the hall was full of excited people. I heard it said that they had broken into the place. I saw one of the witnesses behind the bar, but he was unable to prevent the people from smashing the chairs and things in the place. I went on a gallery and watched them demolish all the things in the place. I saw a gas jet pulled down in the centre of the hall. I saw this defendant pull it down. I then saw a policeman near him, but he ran away when he saw the officer. I had never seen the defendant before that day in my life.

MICHAEL LEVY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 102 Mercer Street. I was at Walhalla Hall on the afternoon of the 17th of August. I went into the hall. There was a large crowd of people in there. I was present at the outside of the hall when the crowd broke in. This defendant now at the bar was at the front of the crowd and seemed to be a leader. I saw him break in a window with his shoulder. It was a window in the front door. I also heard this man say to those behind him, after he had broken in the window, "Come on; let us break in the door." They all rushed in after the door was broken; all the others seemed to be following this defendant. When they got into the place they began to smash everything. I heard this defendant shout out in the Hebrew language that they would have the hall anyhow and wanting to punish the proprietor, Mr. Finkelstein, for not letting them have it. I heard the proprietor shout "Look at what they are doing to me." I saw the wife of the proprietor, Mrs. Finkelstein, running out of the hall. I am positive that the defendant is the man who did the acts I have stated.

No Cross Examination.

D E F E N S E.

ABRAM BLOOM, the defendant, being sworn, testified:

I live at No. 341 Houston Street, and am in the paper-box business at 69 and 71 Wooster Street. I was not in this crowd in Waihalla Hall on the day in question. I deny the whole story. I don't ^{know} anything about the whole thing or about these people. I passed this hall at about two o'clock. I saw a great many people there, and I remained standing in the street. I then went to the corner, and a boy ran up with a detective and arrested me. I was not in that hall; I did not tear down a chandelier or break any chairs or windows. I have never before been arrested for any crime.

JACOB BLOOM, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

The defendant is my son. He has been in this country two years and has worked steadily. His character for peace and quietness is good.

JACOB WEINSTEIN, a witness for the defendant, sworn,
testified:

I live at No. 292 Bowery. I am in the paper-box business. The defendant has been in my employ for about two years. I have always found him a straightforward, honest young man.

EUGENE GERBEREUX, a witness for the defendant,
sworn, testified:

I am the proprietor of the paper-box factory, 69 and 71 Wooster Street. I was the proprietor of that concern on the 17th of August last. The defendant has worked for me. He was not at work on the 17th of August last. His character for peace and quietness is good.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of the crime of Riot.

v. ^{n.}

Court of General Session. Part II
Before Judge Martine. Oct. 3. 1893 Indictment for assault in the third degree Nathan Bass, sworn and examined testified Where do you live? No. 241 East 75th Street What is your business? Painter. What floor did you live on? I live in the basement and the third floor front. On the 15th of Sept. did you leave your rooms on the third floor in the morning? In the morning at seven o'clock I locked the door and went down stairs. Then you locked the door did you leave anyone in the apartment?
Nobody. What time did you go up stairs again? My wife told me something and I went up stairs; that was between five and six o'clock. What condition did you find the door in? The lock of the door was broke? Was any property missing?
Only one clock. Was the clock there when you locked your door in the morning? Certainly. I was looking at the clock in the morning. I paid about eighteen dollars for it. I next saw the clock in the police station. That was the same clock that was taken out of my premises. I had not sent any one to my rooms to get the clock.

Cross Examined. I live at 241 East Seventy Fifth street; my family is down stairs in the basement. I have sleeping rooms up stairs. I locked up my place at seven oclock in the morning and I came back between five and six oclock in the evening. I did not see the defendant about the premises. I did not know that man when I seen him in Court; the lock was broken.

Henry J. Ryan sworn and examined. I am an officer of the municipal police attached to the 25th precinct; On the afternoon of the 15th of September where was your post? I had a post from Seventy First to Seventy Ninth streets and Third Avenue and cross streets to Second Avenue. The premises 241 East Seventy Fifth street are between Second and Third Avenues. I was on post that day. I saw the defendant Bolden on the 15th of Sept. at three oclock going through Seventy Fifth street towards Third Avenue from Second coming from the direction of 241. Did he have anything in his hand? He carried a heavy iron clock; it was covered with an old shirt. I followed him about one block to a pawnbroker's on Third Avenue; he went into the pawnbroker's and I followed him.

fin. He was trying to get some money on this clock. I arrested him. I asked him what he was doing with the clock.
 He said his mother sent him out to pawn it as his father was out of work.
 He said he lived in 237 East Seventy fifth.
 I brought him back to 2241. I found out he did not live there; he told me he lived in 237 but he brought me in 241 as his address. I brought him to the station house and came back and investigated. I went through the house trying the doors and found the door on the third floor pushed in. Broken in, the premises occupied by the complainant has the clock and the skirt that you found with Bolden the ones that were identified by Mr. Bass as his. They were Then I took him to the station house he said he lived at 241 East Seventy Fifth Street and where I took him to Court he said he lived at 167 West Twenty Seventh Street. In the morning going to Court he gave an explanation about the clock. He said he was hungry and he found the door open and took the clock to get some money on it.

Cross Examined. When you met this prisoner in the street it was three o'clock? About that. He had this metal clock with him covered by a skirt. Did the complainant Mr. Baso identify that as his clock? Yes. Has he received it yet? No. You are sure this is the boy, no doubt about that? I am positive. The premises No. 241 East Seventy Fifth street are in the 19th ward? Yes.

The Case for the Defence
Andrew Golden, sworn and examined in his own behalf. How old are you? Eighteen. Where were you born, in this city? Yes I was born in Elizabeth street in this city. What have you been working at? Driving Doodle's Express wagon. Were you driving a wagon on the 15th of September? Yes I was. Tell the jury what happened on that day were you up in Seventy Fifth street? I was in 235 Seventy Fifth street delivering a trunk. I was driving an express wagon. I drove it to Thirty fifth street to deliver a trunk in 235 on the second floor. As I came out the officer grabbed me and said that I stole a clock. I did not do it; I am innocent of this.

thing I don't know anything about it. This is the first time I was locked up in my life. Where the police officer arrested you where were you then, in the street? Yes, I was just getting ready to go on my wagon. Had you any other property on this wagon, trunks and boxes? I had the last trunk. I was going up in Dodd's again to get another load of trunks. Was the wagon at the door way, you were delivering the last trunk? Yes sir. The officer says he arrested you with the clock in your hand, how was that? He did not see me with nothing at all. Did he take you and the clock to the station house, he says he did? He did not take me with any clock, he took me alone without any clock. I did not have nothing. There was the horse and express wagon at this time? I sent the fellow home with it - the fellow who was on the wagon with me. That time in the day was it that you were at the house 235? It was three o'clock. Can you recollect things that happened or do you forget? I recollect them. You sent the express wagon round by another boy? I sent it home by the fellow that was on The wagon with me. There were you precisely at the very spot when the officer took you? I was coming right out of 235.

You were coming out of the house? Yes.
You did nothing in that house? No.
Had just delivered the trunk? Yes, delivered the trunk, that is all.

Cross Examined. You would not tell anything but the truth would you? That is all, I would not kiss any Bible to tell lies.
Do you know Jacob McCray, the colored boy that was tried here yesterday afternoon? I only knew him up in the cell, that is all. Did you not ever know him before that? That is all, I never seen him before. How long is it since you got out of the Juvenile Asylum? I never was in the Juvenile Asylum.
There were you? I never was anywhere in no institution at all? No, I never was locked up before in my life.
Don't you know that Jacob McCray said yesterday that you just came down from some place? No. Then you did not go into any pawn shop? No. You did not have any clock? No. You were not walking along the street with a clock? I was not walking along the street with any clock. I was coming out of 231 to get on my express wagon when the officer came and grabbed me. What the officer testified to about ~~saying~~ seeing you with a clock following you up the street and following you into a pawnshop is not true? He did not follow me into any pawnshop neither. You did not take any clock, did not have anything to do with a clock - you were not hungry that day? No. Can you write your name? Yes.

So that your writing (paper shown) Yes, Andrew Bolden. Do you remember when you were at the police court? Yes, I do.
They told you that it was your right to make a statement in relation to the charge against you, and that statement was to help you to answer the charge, and that you need not make any statement if you did not want to. You remember that in the Police Court? Yes.
I told them I did not take any clock.
They asked you your name, and you said, "Andrew Bolden." They asked you, how old you were, and you said, "eighteen years!" [Witness: Yes.] They asked you where you were born, and you said,
New York! [Witness: Yes.] They asked you

How long had you resided there, and you said, No. 129 West Forty seventh street, two months. They asked you what was your profession or business, and you said, "Helper on an express wagon? Witness: yes. They asked you, ~~to~~ give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?" You said, "I was hungry and wanted something to eat, and the door was open," and then you signed your name? No. I did not say anything about wanting anything to eat. That is your signature! Yes, that is my writing. I did not say about having nothing to eat.

By the Court: You were working that day? Yes, I was working. You were receiving pay, a salary, what did you get a week from Dodd's Express? I got nine dollars a week.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

The Court sentenced the defendant to the penitentiary for two years.
