Dear Sir

Permit me to address you in reference on behalf of P.T. Timayanni who as I understand pleads guilty to Petty larceny Oct 16th before you - for stealing a pearl scarf pin from Mrs Mira Beale whom as I have been told you have remanded for punishment.

This man comes from one of the best families of Armenia Asia Minor is married to a very fine lady, daughter of a prominent man in Savannah Ga. he has 3 children one of which was born within two weeks.

This man is not a criminal I have known him for a great many years having gone to school with him. While I do not believe in influencing justice, I desire to inform you that this man's mind is affected, he loses his head on certain subjects & that on account of opium smoking as I am informed (whether true or not I cannot tell) still I know this, that lunacy is in his family.

His brother only a few years ago committed suicide for a mere trifling, one of his uncles his mother's brother died in an insane asylum a raving maniac, & another uncle attempted to stop a train with a ball & was instantly killed, & eventually this man will also become an inmate of a lunatic asylum, I think the disgrace brought upon himself & his confinement in the Tomb has been sufficient punishment & that the ends of justice have been fully satisfied. If you look over the entire case & the evidence you will see that the amount involved is but a trifle. I am certain he did not realize what he was doing, it being his first offense I am inclined to believe that he will never do anything unlawful again his brother J. J. Timonyanis of the Minnesota Publishing Company is ready to look after him & find him a suitable place on view of the facts. I suggest that mercy be shown him & another opportunity given him to redeem himself.

0861

If you cannot consistently with your duty suspend sentence I trust you will impose as light a sentence as possible.

I am this writing this letter out of pity for this man I have seen him but 3 times in eight years.

Yours truly

Dear Sir

Permit a despairing prisoner who, to-morrow, will be brought before you for sentencing, to beg for your indulgence and for your pardon, for the sake only of a pure beloved young wife, now lying dangerously ill, some thousand miles away from me and who is ignorant of my present disgraceful position and whom I fear, shall love, as the shock of my disgrace will strike her.

My record in my own country & my nine years residence in the United States, has been entirely unblemished. Spare me, therefore, the fearful remorse which will, for life, haunt me, for being the cause of a beloved wife's death and of the disgrace which will be brought to my three innocent babies, the oldest not yet 4 years old & the youngest only 2 weeks, since it came in this world.

Pardon me! This appeal comes from the bottom of a broken heart; I knelt, last night, and prayed God fervently to save me from the disgrace of a prison's garb and He inspired me to address this earnest appeal to your indulgence - Let me leave these depraved surroundings, among which, I have been living for the last 26 days & let me return to the purifying atmosphere of my fireside - It was in a moment of folly that I did what I did - It is the first time that I forgot myself - Pardon me, and let me return to the right path on which I have always trodden and believe in my sincere repentance for the folly committed & for which I shall, by my future conduct, fully atone -

Listen to this earnest appeal of mine, which comes from the recesses of my heart and my gratitude will be life long, for having saved me from a disgrace which, I consider, worse than death itself.

Yours Respectfully

Judge of the Court of General Sessions.

Your Honor:-

I earnestly appeal to you, if possible, to suspend punishment in the case of my brother, P. T. Timayenis. I keenly feel Your Honor this stigma attached to our name on account of the act which he has committed. This is his first offense and I sincerely believe that if another chance is given to him he will become a good man and a good citizen. I am the Manager of the Minerva Publishing Co. and if punishment is suspended, I will deem it my duty to take care of him, to aid him, to give him every opportunity in life to redeem himself. But if punishment is passed upon him it will not be possible for me to procure for him employment for the fact of his having been condemned will thwart my best efforts. Let Your Honor be merciful in this case and I as well as my family will never forget the kindness shown.

A pair of trousers closet where complainant still was then I heard money rattling and a noise from complainant, who had been Oh. And complainant and defendant came out together, and complainant had his arms around defendant neck, and complainant passed down on his knees, and defendant let him down the feet on the floor and as complainant wanted to get up I saw that the left hand pocket of complainant's pants was turned inside out. And I told the prisoner to stay there until I got an officer, and he said I wanted to buy a cigar and would not let him stay there until he could get what he wanted in here and officer came. And I said to the defendant you have called that man Charles and I told all the money I have got is $2.50 dollars and that is mine, and the other people in the place said you lie you must have his money. And I told the head of defendant he said I have some more money and he pulled out a roll of $20 bills and about 40 or 50 dollars in silver and I said to him how is it you said you only had $2.50 dollars and he said I was afraid to show my money in here, and I said no will not take your money we will hold it until an officer comes, when the officer came we gave him the money and he counted it and it was $11 dollars and some odd cents. And the complainant said he had a $20.00 bill also which was afterwards found in said water closet. making in all together the sum of $31.50 dollars. wherefore deponent charges said defendant with the larceny aforesaid
