case of
Ann Hall

filed July

41
 The People vs. Ann Hull [Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Before Judge Cowing. July 18. 1882 Indictment for felonious assault and battery. James Madoll sworn and examined. On the 29th of June I came to my place where I was boarding No 44 Monroe St. went to the hydrant, washed myself, came in and sat down to my supper and was "interrupted" by the prisoner. Previous to this she had taken my shoes and pants and vest and pawned them. After eating my supper I laid down on the lounge and read the paper till I fell asleep after a hard day's work. I was woke up by a ringing in my ear and head, and I saw Ann Hull, as she calls herself now (I have known her by the name of Ann E. O'Farrell) in an attitude behind me attempting to give me a second blow; she had given me one. I snatched off and struck her under the left jaw and sent her up against the wall; she cut me in the head with a hatchet. I went to the station house and reported it, I was taken to the Hospital on Thursday night and on the following Tuesday week I was discharged. [The witness showed his head to the jury where he was cut.]

Cross Examined. If she had been a little closer to me she might have got a little heavier blow; she has been living with me since she came off the Island. I could not say exactly how long ago; she came to live with me after I came from sea; it was the day the President was buried; she lived with me up to the middle of January, she went away of her own accord and came back and lived with me till May. I separated from her, but she seemed inclined to not separate from me. In the latter part of April she and I had a quarrel and I could not get clear of her; she was in the habit of stealing my Longshesman's badge; she lived in the same room with me up to five weeks of the assault. I struck her Decoration day but I do not remember breaking her jaw. On the day in question when she struck me with the axe, I did not strike her until I received a blow.

Michael Savage sworn. The complainant came to the station house after being assaulted and the sergeant sent him back with me home. I went up stairs; she was in a room outside where they belong in another room standing there; she did not appear to be in any hurry to go away; she stayed there; she did not deny hitting him; she said he assaulted her before she struck him. I found the hatchet in the room; he said she struck him first; he said that in her presence and she did not deny it. Ann Hall sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I have known the complainant about a year. I have been living with him three years; he is a widower. This evening when he came home he accused me of stealing money from him on the Monday night previous because I had bought a pair of shoes. He said that I stole eight dollars from him, but I did not. He used the vilest language that could be used to a woman. I told him time and again that I did not take the money. He said if I dared to say again that I did not take it that he would unshape my other cheek for me. He made a run for me and struck me with his shut fist; as he did I sat down and commenced to cry in the rocking chair; he made a second blow at me when Mr. McLaughlin, the boarding master, went between me and him. Mr. M. Laughlin went into a neighboring woman's, I walked out after the woman, and that is all I know. I do not remember striking him at all. I never "seen" the axe until I saw it in the station house next morning. The complainant had inflicted violence upon me before this. I had marks of violence when I was taken to the station house; he broke my cheek bone last Decoration day a year ago. I deny striking him with the axe. How do you account for his being cut? I cannot answer; the man was drunk, the man may have fallen for all I know. I don't know anything about it. Cross Examined. I did not admit to the police officer that I hit him. I have seen the axe with the landlady cutting wood, I could not swear whether it was the same particular axe or not. I don't know if the axe was in the room. I don't know where the boarding house man is.

Jarvis Madoel recalled: I visited the prisoner four times since she has been locked up in the Junks. I do not wish her to get the full penalty of the

I have not been drunk since the 18th of February to my knowledge.
The jury can look at the depth and the length of the cut that was made by the axe if they want to.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an assault with a sharp dangerous weapon with intent to do bodily harm and recommended her to mercy.

of the CRIME of Assault and Battery upon another with such means and force as was likely to produce death with intent to kill,
committed as follows:

The said

Peter Halpin

late of the City and County of New York, on the twenty-ninth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms in and upon one Martin Gorman then and there feloniously made an assault, and him the said Martin Gorman with a certain bar of iron which he the said Peter Halpin in his right hand then and there had and held in and upon the head of him the said Martin Gorman then and there feloniously did beat, strike, cut and wound, the same being such means and force, as was likely to produce the death of him the said Martin Gorman, with intent him, the said Martin Gorman, then and there feloniously to kill against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Peter Halpin of the crime of Assault and Battery upon another with such means and force as was likely to produce death with intent to kill, committed as follows:

The said Peter Halpin, late of the City and County of New York, on the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms in and upon one Martin Gorman, then and there being, feloniously made an assault, and with the said Martin Gorman, with a certain club, which he the said Peter Halpin in his right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the head of him the said Martin Gorman, then and there feloniously did beat, strike, cut and wound, the same being such means and force as was likely to produce the death of him the said Martin Gorman, with intent him, the said Martin Gorman, then and there feloniously to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Albert J. Hayes

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. That the complainant believes that this is the first offence committed by the defendant: that the defendant is very young being only about sixteen years of age, and has always enjoyed a good character, and belongs to a very respectable family - That his parent and sister are in great distress because of this offence and that the complainant thinks that the punishment that the defendant has already suffered, will admonish him of the wickedness of his act and that he never be guilty of any offence hereafter at the City of New York, in the County of New York, while defendant was lying asleep in bed, her step father George ^{Woodman} (now her) did forcibly and against the will of defendant attempt to have carnal knowledge of defendant, under the following circumstances. Said Holman came to defendant's bed while she was lying therein with her brother aged eight years, and said Holman got into said bed and placed his private parts against the private parts of defendant and thus and then forcibly attempted to have carnal knowledge of defendant against the
