Police Court — District.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } of New York, } ss.

John K. Hoosmer
of No. 460 Vanderbilt Avenue Brooklyn Street, aged 64 years, occupation Cashier

being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 29 day of December 1897 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One Overcoat Two Silk Handkerchiefs, One pair Kid Gloves One pair Worsted gloves, One pair Silk Mitts, and an Alligator Skin Ticket Pouch, containing Bridge Tickets all of the value and amount of Thirty nine dollars and Fifty Cents

($$ 39 \frac{50}{100}$)

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles O. Donnell and Frank Emerson (both now here) while acting in concert with each other, from the following facts to wit: That on the aforesaid date deponent was in the Grand Central Hotel Restaurant situated at No 657 Broadway, and that about the hour of 12.30 P.M. he found the said Overcoat containing the said property, on a Coat hook attached to the walls in said Restaurant.

And that deponent is informed by Louis Herr of No 89- 11th Avenue who is a waiter attached to and working in said Restaurant, that on the aforesaid date, about the hour of 12.30 P.M. he saw the defendants sitting at a table in said Restaurant and in close proximity to where deponent's coat was hanging -

08 10

And that deponent is further informed by Detective Sergeant Thomas M. Mulry of the Central Office that he found the said Alligator Skin Pouch, containing said Bridge Tickets, which was in the outside pocket of the overcoat that deponent hung in said Restaurant on the aforesaid date, in the possession and on the person of the defendant Charles O. Donnell.

Deponent therefore charges the said defendants while acting in concert with each other, in having committed a Larceny and asks that the said defendants may be held and dealt with as the Law may direct.

My said son has resided with me since his birth, and was so residing at the time of his arrest.

This is the only occasion on which my son had ever been charged with any offense, or arof No. 338 Pearl St. New York, aged 24 years, occupation Seaman being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 23 day of July 1891 at the City of New

and person of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

A silver watch of the value of fifteen dollars, and good and lawful money of the United States of the value of one dollar, all of the aggregate value of Sixteen (16) dollars

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Ounkey (nowhere) who acted in concert with another not yet arrested, for the reasons following, to wit:

Deponent says—He was accompanied by Joseph Archer of 9 Bowery Street with deponent to a hat store on the Bowery being followed in said store by defendant and said other not arrested.

Deponent says—while negotiating for the purchase of a hat, said watch which deponent had in a pocket of his vest worn on his person at the time, was taken from deponent by defendant who passed the same to said other not arrested, as deponent is informed by said Joseph Archer.

who saw said occurrence.

Depoent further says - after said watch was taken, as aforesaid, defendant and said other not arrested, went from said hat store to the street, followed by depoent and said Archer, and when on the street, depoent sought after his finances, and taking three dollars from his pocket, dropped a dollar therefrom, whilst counting the same, on the sidewalk, which dollar was seized by defendant, who ran off, pursued by depoent and said Archer, and caused defendant's arrest on Division Street, by officers Stapleton and Haggerty, of the 7th Precinct, who arrested defendant, having seen him running.

Wherefore, Depoent charges defendant with acting in concert with said other not arrested, and taking, stealing and carrying away said property from his person and possession.

The witness man said he was about to sail to Europe and that he had some United States Bank Bills which he wished to have changed into Gold. The defendant Parise asked the witness if he had any Gold with him the witness answered yes. The defendant Parise told the witness to change the said money for said witness man. The witness man then exhibited a handkerchief containing a quantity of bank bills and handed the same to the defendant Parise. The defendant Parise then took the said sum of money in gold from the witness and gave the witness in return a handkerchief which handkerchief the witness supposed contained the bank-bills. The defendant Parise and said witness man walked away together. When the witness reached home he discovered that the handkerchief contained nothing but a paper of tobacco. The witness further says that when the defendant Parise received the said money from the witness he Parise placed the handkerchief in the witness's overcoat pocket.
