Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Michael Langan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Michael Langan of the crime of Bribing a witness, committed as follows:

Hereofore, to wit: on the fifth day of August, 1885, there was depending in the Court of General Sessions of the Peace in and for the City and County of New York, a certain Indictment for Burglary against John Green, Joseph Holden, and Joseph Cunningham, which said indictment was then about to be tried in the said Court, and upon which trial of the said indictment one Simon J. Kashner was about to be called as a witness. And the said Michael Langan, late of the City & County aforesaid, on the day and year aforesaid, at the City & County aforesaid, well knowing the premises, did feloniously and corruptly offer and promise to give to the said Simon J. Kashner, the sum of twenty dollars in money as a bribe, upon an understanding and agreement that the testimony of the said Simon J. Kashner, upon the said trial, should be thereby influenced, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said People.

Simon J. Cashner, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:- I reside at 419 East Seventy-sixth street, in this city. I am one of the principal witnesses for the People in the case of The People against John Green, Joe Holden, and Joe Cunningham, now pending in the court of General Sessions of the Peace. The defendants in the above case are charged with burglary, in having burglariously entered premises number 419 East Seventy-sixth street on the morning of the 23d. day of July, 1885. On the said 23d. day of July, 1885, the said defendant Michael Lanigan, came to me and asked me to abstain from making a complaint against the defendants Green, Holden and Cunningham, and as an inducement thereto, offered promises of reward and subsequently threats. Notwithstanding such promises and threats I made the complaint, and the said defendants were subsequently indicted on my complaint. Subsequent to the finding of said indictment, I have been approached several times by the said defendant Lanigan, with threats, in order to intimidate me and prevent my appearance as a witness on the trial of said indictment. On one occasion, to wit, on or about the first day of August, 1885, the said defendant, Lanigan, came to me in front of my house and offered me a bribe and promises of reward, if I would refuse to stand by my affidavit.

made in the Police Court, and not to swear against the said Green, who appears to be the friend of said Lanigan. The promise of reward, so made to me, was made in about the following language, to wit; "I have twenty dollars in my pocket to pay the lawyer and I would sooner give it to you than give it to the lawyer if you will let up on the boy."

On two different occasions subsequent the said first day of August, the said Lanigan came to my house and abused me and threatened me for going against Green. PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

Michael Langan

Bribery

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I ask permission to withdraw my complaint for the reason that when the defendant made me the proposal "to let up on the case and I would get $20" he (the Dept) was under the influence of liquor. The threats I complain of were made by defendant also, when he was intoxicated - I am satisfied now in my own mind after thinking and reflecting over the matter that the man (defendant) did not know what he was doing, he was so much under the influence of liquor -

He has a respectable father and mother, who are old and helpless, and the defendant is their only support. He never was in any trouble before and I don't believe now, that he (Dept) had any criminal intent but that his conduct was the influence of liquor and the desire to keep his friend, whom he had made a complaint against - vs.

MICHAEL LAYTON

N. Y. September 24th 1885.

THOMAS O'DONNELL-- I saw the prisoner Michael Layton on Sept 2d. He came to Pier 39, N.R., where I was employed, and told me that he wanted two bales of burlaps which Hugh Burns had sent him for-- I know Hugh Burns-- he is a carman. I didn't see him leave the dock, we had other work to attend to, but we put the bales on the truck-- I didn't have charge of those bales. I was loading on the dock at the time he came up to me-- that is my business-- afterwards I saw the two bales were gone-- I supposed Hugh Burns had sent him after them.

MICHAEL KEARNEY-- I work on the docks loading for boss carmen and others as employ me. I knew Hugh Burns; he is a carman; On Sept 2d I was on the National Line Dock, Pier 39, and I saw the defendant Layton there - he came up and said he wanted two bales of burlaps for Hugh Burns, and I told him I loaded for Burns, and he said " I know you do." We went up in the loft and he pointed out the bales and we put them on his truck, and then after doing that we had other work to do, and we couldn't tell any more about it.

JOHN BEGLEY-- I was loading on Pier 39 on September 2nd. I saw the man Layton there that day, and I helped the other two witnesses to load the bales. I went in the loft to get them. I had no conversation with the prisoner.

JOHN HALL-- I am the owner of truck No. 4455. I did not on Sept 2d take two bales of burlaps from Pier 39 N.R., nor authorize any body to take them for me. The signature on that book (Nat'l S.S. Co's Delivery Clerk's book) is not written by me or authorized by me. The receipt shown me (one produced by the Police Officer) is a blank receipt for a house I work for.

PETER McPARLAND-- On Sept 8th I loaned the prisoner a truck which he had when he was arrested that day.

JAMES SHAUGHNESSY-- On Sept 8th, I was standing on Duane Street near West Broadway, when Michael Layton came along driving a truck. I called to him, and asked where he was going, and he said he was going for a load, so I got on and took the reins and drove to the dock with him.

CORNELIUS MURPHY-- I am Delivery Clerk for the National S.S. Line at Pier 39 N.R. Our practice is this : When a carman comes for a load he either produces a freight release or an order from the consignee. On the occasion of the taking of these two bales of burlaps, I was away, and another man, who was new to the business, had my place. The book that I produce (producing book) is the book that is kept to be signed by the cartmen with the number of his truck. I know Hugh Burns-- he carts for John Duncan-- these burlaps belong to James F. White and Co.

JAMES McADAM-- I am a police officer-- 3rd Precinct. I arrested the prisoner, and found on him this form (identified by Hall)

STATEMENT of CASE.

The custom is for carmen to present either an order or a freight release before he can take goods off of the pier and sign his name and number in a book kept for that purpose.

On Sept 2d 1885, the defendant came to Pier 39 N.R., and informed the witnesses O'Donnel, Kearney and Begley, that Hugh Burns had sent him for two bales of burlaps. Hugh Burns was a regular cartman that drove for the firm of John Duncan & Co.. He said he wanted two bales of burlaps marked G. in diamond-- the witness took him to the loft and he pointed out the bales which they loaded on his truck. He went into the office and signed the book and gave the number 4455. Subsequently the two bales were missed and inquiry being made it was learned that Burns had not received them; that the owner of No. 4455 had not received them or authorized any body to receive them for hij; and on Sept 8th, the prisoner again appearing at the dock, attempting to repeat the felony, he was arrested.

The People's Court of General Sessions. Part
Edward King Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 21.
Jointly indicted with Luke Lannon for '83.
burglary in the third degree.

John Howard sworn. I live at 63
Mumme St. and have a liquor store at 41
Mott St. in this city; it is in the Sixth Ward. I remember the night of the 3^d of Sept; there was in the store about twelve dollars in money
and cigars and liquors; there was a pistol in the drawer. I closed up the door about 12 o'clock and left the bar keeper in charge.

Stephen R. Buddock sworn. I am the bar tender for John Howard at 41 Mott St.
I was in charge on the night of the 3^d of Sept.
I locked the store; there is a back door,
two front doors and a side entrance. I locked and fastened all the doors about 1/2 to one and left for home. I did not get back till 8 o'clock next morning; the place was opened when I got there. I found the side door had been broken open,
the lock was pried open and a piece of wood was off. I made no further examination. I did not go into the yard. I missed the money which was in the drawer
when I shut up - eleven dollars and sixty cents. I know nothing of the burglary.

John O'Mahoney sworn. I am a box tender in the employ of Mr. Howard at 41 Mott St. I remember the morning of the 4th of Sept. I came to the store 20 minutes past four and opened it. I found the knob was off the door. I found all the doors open and everything strewed about. I went out and found a plank leaning to the fence; there was three doors in the hallway and two of them were broken and the lock was burst off the side door that leads into the alleyway. I looked in the money drawer and there was not a cent in it. There was a pistol in the back money drawer which was taken; the officer showed me the pistol when he brought King in.

James Churchill sworn. I am a police officer attached to the Sixth precinct, the premises in which 41 Mott St. are situated. I arrested King on the morning of the 4th of Sept. on suspicion of being connected with the burglary. I also arrested Luke ~~Lenson~~ corner of Mott and Chatham Sts. in a liquor store drinking about 1/4 to seven in the morning. I searched Lenson and found seven cigars in his pocket. I took Lenson to the station house and walked back to where I came from and King was sitting on a beer keg outside and the point of a revolver was sticking out of his coat pocket and I searched him. I asked him where he got the revolver. He turned kind of white, and he says, "I will never tell you." I arrested him then. I showed the revolver to Paul Howard and he identified it as his, and I also showed it to O'Mahoney. I had no further conversation with King. I went to the store and saw the place broken.

Paul Howard sworn. I am the Manager at 41 Mott St., the revolver was in the money drawer and I afterwards saw it in the station house; that was my pistol. I did not loan that pistol to any one or authorize anybody to take it; the pistol was loaded in the start.

Edward King sworn and examined in his own behalf. Testified. I am a painter on the Elevated Railroad; the last place I stopped at was 190 Chatham St. I worked for the company two months. I knew nothing about the burglary. On the morning of the 4th I was standing at the door of the entrance to the Glenmere hotel. Levin and another man came along. I asked him in to have a drink. I went in and had a drink. I stayed in the Glenmere hotel liquor store about ten minutes afterwards Mr. Churchill came down and he asked the barkeeper some questions. After Churchill went out.

the bar tender said, "King, I think some of your friends is in trouble, I would advise you to go and take them home." I then went up the Bowery to the corner of Bell St. and I saw Lenon, I says, "Luke, you had better go home or come home with me." He says, "No, I want go home." I says, "you had better go or you will get into trouble." I fetched him down to the house. We had a couple of drinks more and he refused to go up stairs. He says, "I am going over to the corner." I said, "If you will, you will get into trouble. On the corner of Marriton and Catherine Sts. he pulled out this revolver out of his hip pocket, and he showed it to me. I said, "What are you doing with that? He made some answer, I didn't know what it was. I took the revolver from him and went to the corner of Mott and Chatham Sts. Churchill came down and arrested Lenon. He took him to the station house and in 15 minutes came back again. I was sitting at the outside door on a beer keg and took the revolver out of my pocket. He asked me where I got it and I refused to tell him. Then he took me to the station house he told me I was charged with burglary. I knew nothing about the burglary. I was arrested once for stealing carpet and was in the penitentiary for one month. That is the only time I was ever arrested.

0381

The jury rendered a verdict
of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

vs.
Jacob Levine.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

May 18, 1886.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Henry C. Albert sworn and examined. Where do you live in this city? 388 Broadway, my business is manufacturer of trunks and bags. Do you remember the 30th of March, 1885? Yes sir, that is a year ago. Did the prisoner call on you, tell the conversation that you and he had on that occasion, the 30th of March, 1885? I found him in the store in the morning when I came there talking with one of my salesmen and looking at sole leather trunks I went to my desk and opened my mail, I told the salesman to send Mr. Levine to me. He came to me and I asked him what he wanted. He said, I have got a customer that I think I can sell a sole leather trunk to. I said to him, you know I wont sell you any trunks, but he says, I have got a customer and if you will let me take that trunk I will bring the trunk right back or the money. I said to him, you understand I wont sell you this trunk, I wont let you have it, but if you say you have got a customer and you will bring that trunk back if he don't want it, on those conditions I will let you have the trunk but you must bring me back the trunk or the money. He said, certainly, I will bring it back to you within a reasonable time, that day or the next morning, not longer than that. Under those conditions I let him have the trunk. I have not seen the trunk or the money since. He came in and saw me shortly afterwards to dicker about that trunk, if he could not get it less? I told him no he must bring me the trunk or the money.

the trunk or the money either that day or the next morning. I did not see him after until after he was arrested. He was arrested in Williamsburgh and then I sent word to the Detectives office. The trunk belonged to me and was worth twenty-nine dollars wholesale price. I have known Levine previous to the 30th of March, 1885 and had done business with him. I sold him goods, I managed the firm of William O. Headley & Sons, 388 Broadway.

Charles Heidleberg sworn. I am an officer connected with Police Headquarters, Central Office, I arrested the prisoner in April 1885 in Williamsburgh. Tell the Jury where you arrested him and under what circumstances and all that took place at the time? When the warrant was handed to me by the police judge I hunted high and low all over to try and get Levine; some told me he was in Europe, some he was South and some he was West, I finally ascertained where he was and arrested him. The night I arrested him I asked him if he was Levine? He said he was. I told him I had a warrant and he told me I am not going with you to New York. I went into the store and asked him if his name was Levine? He first denied it and afterwards said, you cannot take me out of here, you will have to take me out dead, he gave me fight, I had to get my partner and a policeman assisted me to bring him to New York, he smashed at me and I smashed at him, I brought him to New York. I asked him why he made fight, he said, you had no right to arrest me and only there was two of us he would have got away. I arrested him on a warrant charging him with stealing a trunk. He denied ever having the trunk of the trunk which I had of the trunk which a trunk, he said he bought it in good faith and he would pay for it when he got ready. He said I had no right to arrest him in Williamsburgh without a requisition.

Jacob Levine sworn and examined in his own behalf. I was born in Germany and have been five years and a half in this country, I am a married man and my wife is sick. I did not steal the complainant's trunk, I did not tell him I had a customer for it and would bring the money right back, I dealt with that man for a long time and always paid him his bills punctually. He sent me a bill of thirty ~~dollars~~ ^{days credit} for a trunk which I looked for but am not able to find. I sold that trunk to a customer for thirty-one dollars, I did not return the complainant ~~twenty-nine dollars because I had other debts to pay, I~~ owed him about $150 or $175. I was closed up in business shortly after this and a man came and took everything away I had and I had nothing to pay.

Lester Marks sworn. I keep a hat store in the Bowery, I know the prisoner five or six years and his reputation for honesty is good. I never heard of his visiting a Second Avenue auction house.

Nathan Abraham sworn. I am in the clothing business at 118 Bowery, I have known the prisoner several years and I always thought he was a very honest man.

Morris Burnett sworn. I am in the boot and shoe business at 1431 Third Avenue, I have known the prisoner about two years and believe him to be an honest man.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

of New York, 1881 Dora Marks
of No. 48 North
occupation Married woman Street, aged 25 years, deposes and says, that the premises No 48 Forsyth being duly sworn in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a brick dwelling Street, and which was occupied by deponent as a tent or a dwelling and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Edna were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening the Window of a bed room of defendants premises on the first floor up one pair of stairs from the street.

on the 25 day of September 1888 in the Mp time, and the ~~following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:~~ with the felonious intention to take steal and carry away therefrom the following property to wit:

The red flannel dress of the value
of twelve dollar, and one black customer

then of the value of twenty five dollars

The whole being of the value truly serves

Dollar paid and large money of the N. A. M. to ($ 2.00)

United States (8 27)
the property of Dependent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

for the reasons following, to wit :

for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent seemingly closed and fastened the said premises, shortly before 9 A.M. and left her two children sleeping in said room. On deponent's return she found the door still locked but the defendant was secreted under the bed, having got in by opening the window. The deponent therefore charges the defendant with burglariously entering the said premises.
