Assault, 2nd degree

Edward H. Doyle

-----X

The defendant was indicted upon the 18th of March, 1886, for assault in the second degree upon one John McCullough, alleged to have been committed in the saloon of John Martin, No. 33 Third Avenue. Application is now made for the dismissal of the indictment, and the case has been referred to me for examination and report.

Defendant's companion, at the time of the alleged assault, was George F. Lewis, who was, upon the day above mentioned, indicted for assault in the first degree upon the same person. The circumstances attending the two alleged assaults were one and the same transaction. Upon the application to dismiss the indictment against Lewis, I reported upon this date in favor of the application, and annexed to my report therein, the affidavits of Doyle, Lewis, and the witness Martin, together with a communication from complainant McCullough and the witness White, who reside in Boston, to the effect that they did not wish any longer to prosecute the charge against this defendant, or Lewis.

Inasmuch as the circumstances in this case are the same as in the case of Lewis, and the said affidavits and communication are equally relevant here, I make the same report, namely, for the dismissal of the indictment, as in that case, and refer to the papers there filed, as the bases of my opinion herein.

When the Lady I had met to change the Bill, I saw the Defendant. I identify the Defendant as the person who was there, I saw her hand held out, as the Bill was passed and I was given the change.

I live next door, and have been frequently disturbed by the noise; The noise of drunken revelry and conduct such as does not occur in a respectable house. I have heard noise as if people were jumping over chairs and such noise as cannot be described. They would begin at one o'clock, and I tapped on the wall.

Ques What floor did it occur on?

Ans On the first floor in the back parlor.

Ques Was there shouting?

Ans Yes Sir.

Ques Unusual and unusually noise?

Ans Yes Sir. I have raised my window and shouted

0865

Ques into their window, they were there all drunk.

Ans You hear my cursing and swearing? Have you seen any disturbance or disorderly conduct in front of the house? I have seen men and women go there evidently who did not live there and ring the bell and let up, I have seen people go there and leave after a short time, men and women together, I have seen them go out again frequently during the evening. I know that this has occurred. One night I was annoyed and went in to see the Madame of the house, and she came out of the back parlor, I believe the defendant is the lady. I am not positive because we went into the front parlor which was dark, the back parlor seemed to be lighted, and there was laughing and talking there.
I told the lady the noise was intolerable, she said:

0866

Her Boarders had a right to laugh and talk and en-joy themselves, & said they had, in a respectable way, she said the only kept a furnished room house, & replied that she might call it that, but I said that it was a common house of prostitution, she answered, well so this is not the only one on the block, I said I was aware of that, but as the others were some distance away, they did not annoy me and I did not care about it. There was no more noise that night.

Ques (Cross Examination)
You are not positive that this Defendant is the party you spoke to that night?

Ans I am
Ques morally certain.

Will you swear absolutely this is the lady you spoke to?

Ans No Sir
Ques You say that couples went into this house?

Ans Yes Sir

9

Ques Will you swear they went in for immoral purposes?

Ans You know no man can swear to that.

Ques Will you swear that those people are women of evil name and fame and went in for purposes of prostitution?

Ans I do not not see these people before.

Ques Will you swear that any of these people went in for unlawful sexual intercourse?

Ans That is my belief.

Ques On what do you base your belief?

Ans On the character and reputation of the house, and they went in in couples and rang the bell and the fact of them remaining there a short time.

Ques Do that the reason you think they are prostitutes?

Ans I did not say they were.

Ques You know nothing of your own knowledge of these houses?

Ans Nothing but what I have related and the 0060

Ques General reparation of the house.
Ans After you went into this house the noise ceased?
Ans After I came out the noise ceased. The piano was all over the house, in back and front rooms, that is all I know.

says, all I know in reference to the matter is the general reputation of the house. Noise occurred often within twelve months; there was laughing, cheating and card playing.

Cross Examination

I can tell more frequently from between 12 and one o'clock in the morning, and people asked for the names of the women, I told them it was not 221.
This has not occurred more than five or six times or seven times. I saw the Defendant on one or two occasions, she has lived there about a year. I cannot tell who lived there before her. I was not disturbed a year ago. Of my personal knowledge I know nothing against this lady. I cannot swear of my own knowledge that she allows unlawful sexual intercourse. The noise was sufficient to keep my family from sleeping, last summer.

 I have made it my bus-followed one of the inmates to Coster and Pails and there she picked up a gray haired up three men. I followed another and got in with it cost and she said she would settle that when she got to the home. I have
