Louis R. Bunting

City & County of New York, ss:--

Louis R. Bunting, being duly sworn, says:

I am the person charged in the indictment herein with having and keeping for sale and offering for sale impure or skimmed milk on the 30th day of November 1881. I have now been convicted for this by any other offense

The facts concerning the offense alleged to have been committed by me are as follows:--

1881 I have been engaged since about November first 1881 in receiving from Norfolk, Connecticut and America New York and selling milk at the depot of the Harlem Railroad in this City.

I have never received or sold or offered for sale any milk which was adulterated, reduced, watered or changed in any way, except by the removal of cream, and never received, held, sold, or offered for sale any skimmed milk until about the 21st day of November when the persons from whom I had previously received milk for sale sent me two cans of skimmed milk with the other pure milk sent to me.

I immediately made inquiry from those engaged in the milk business and was informed that I had the right to receive and sell skimmed milk provided it was labelled and sold as skimmed milk and ~~that~~ at a reduced price, and I believed the same to be true, and on several days between the 21st and the 30th of November did receive and sell small quantities of skimmed milk with the other milk received by me, but on no day to exceed two ^{or three} cans, and it was always labelled when received by me and sold as skimmed milk, and at a reduced price as compared with the other milk sold by me, and I was entirely unconscious at any time during this interval that in so doing I should commit any offense against the law and of this the circumstances connected with the milk in question are evidence.

On the 30th day of November, the day named in the indictment, three cans containing skimmed milk were sent to me labelled as skimmed milk and arrived at the depot in my absence. Immediately on my entering the depot the inspector came to me and asked me if those three cans of milk were mine, and I at once answered that I was responsible for them, that they were labelled skimmed milk as he saw, and that I was going to sell them at a reduced rate, but the inspector then informed me that I could not do so. He then examined the milk and said that it was all right except as to the removal of the cream; that it was not watered or reduced in any way but refused to allow me to sell it, and immediately turned the whole of it into the ~~street, that is upon the car track.~~ gutter I have never since that time sold or offered for sale any skimmed milk or milk reduced or changed in any way nor do I intend to do so, and in receiving and making the sale of skimmed milk referred to, I acted upon the information which I had received, and in the honest belief that I was doing what I had a right to do.
