POLICE COURT—FIRST DISTRICT.

of No. Susan Gross 128 Leonard Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 8th day of August 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, he was violently and feloniously assaulted and beaten by

Nette Davis

now present.

who did cut deponent four times twice on the face and twice on her breast with a knife which she said Davis held in her hand.

Deponent believes that said injury, as above set forth, was inflicted by said

with the felonious intent to take the life of deponent, or to do h bodily harm, and without any justification on the part of the said assailant :

Wherefore this deponent prays that the said assailant may be apprehended, and dealt with according to law.

Dr. B. B. Eaton Esq.

Dear Sir:

It has been said that a man ^{performed} ~~has~~ ^{ever} had action in his lifetime that causes him a lesson and I am very sorry to say that I have come under that category and had it not been for the thoughts of my mother's & father's sufferings I should have remained to suffer what penalty ~~may~~ ^{may} have been ascribed to me.

The amount of my error I am unable to state though all of it can be found in checking back

the postings from the Journal to Ledger is the ~~3rd~~ item and when you yesterday told me not to force the balance you little know what a task it was to me.

My recollection is that my fault commenced within a month of your restoration from Europe and has been going on by degrees ever since until it got to be such an amount that I was thunderstruck and immediately made my preparations to repay but heavy pressure on my expenses caused it to increase still further.

The very Devil himself seemed to have hold of me and the further I sunk

0696

It has been said, and truly, that a person knows not the value of a Mother's Father till he is in trouble and I now find this to be the fact and when I look back and see what a fool I have been I feel utterly crazy and I am nearly so now.

By the time you receive this I will be in a foreign country not safe because I know no that justice will always have its own but sincerely for the purpose of awaiting the examn of the books and ascertaining the amount which I am under fault.

I know now that I must suffer for every sin I do though I should have thought of that long ago but I must make the suffering of my parents as light as I possibly can.

I never see any descents and know that I must eventually succeed them also my blasted future prospects, dishonoring the name I bear half crazy for fear of ex-posure &c.

God knows that I would willingly end this existence to save my Father's name from a blamish and dis-treat and implore that ~~they shall bear their suffering~~ in private; that I have done wrong I know but they not only kept it uncontrived

0698

but sacred to honesty and I would not wish them to suffer for any wrong doings I will write again when I arrive at my destination and give such information regarding the books as I can from my recollection and such as may be needed.

Statement of Case agst William H. Demarest on Complaint of Chamberlain, Carter & Eaton for Embezzlement.

William H. Demarest was employed by Chamberlain, Carter & Eaton, a law firm of the City of New York at No 346 Broadway, composed of Daniel H. Chamberlain, Walter A. Carter, Sherburne B. Eaton, and William D. Houbblum.

Demarest began his clerkship in May or June 1877. He had charge of the books of account of the firm and all cash passed through his hands.

He absconded on 3^d May 1880. A letter was received from him on 6th May, confessing to having embezzled.

James Lynch, a bookkeeper made an examination of the books and ascertained that the amount embezzled was $1537.⁴⁰ and had been embezzled in various amounts and at various times from May 18, 1878 to May 3^d 1880.

years at said locality, and of which deponent was a member.

That William H. Demarest, ^{the defendant above named} was employed as a clerk by said last named firm, for about the period of two years, ending in the year 1876.

That during the whole of such employment he performed his duties to the satisfaction of his employers. That he was sober, honest and industrious to the best of de-

-ponent's knowledge, information and belief, and that his ^{general} reputation among his employers, and ^{the} employees of said establishment was good.

The said defendant left such employment, not because of any personal demerit, but because of a change in the plan of said business and a consequent reduction of the clerical force.

Deponent never heard of anything against the moral character of said defendant until informed of the offence for which he is under indictment herein.
