PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT,

versus

John J. Buckridge

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. My reasons for desiring to withdraw the complaint are as follows. I know the young man to be of previous good character and respectably connected. I gave him this ring because he asked me to, so he could sell it, and he went and pawned it, and with the money he went and paid board by him due. Buckridge is poor, and I think he was prompted to commit the act through poverty, and I desire therefore to have the complaint against him dismissed, if consistent with the ends of Justice.

24
 The People ^{vs.} Charles B. Buchanan { Court of General Sessions, Part I Before Judge Gildersleeve Feb. 27. 1882. Indictment for grand larceny and receiving stolen goods. Mary Reilly sworn and examined.
 I live at 58 Rittger st. at present, I know the prisoner. The 24th of last September I went to Elizabeth New Jersey, I hired as cook and laundress with Col. Suydam; on the evening of the 3^d of Sept., I called at 3 Columbia St., and as I was passing 80 Cherry St., the prisoner tapped me on the shoulder, I did not recognize him for about five minutes; he says, "Don't you know me?" Afterwards recognized him as Charlie Buchanan; I was in company with another lady at the time, he escorted me to the foot of Liberty St., where I was to take the train on the 24th of Sept., I promised to be at my place on the same day. I forgot my shawl; the prisoner said, I am going to Elizabeth this day week and I will fetch the shawl; he called at Mary Halpin's for the shawl.
 I lost my trunk and a black cloth shawl that was in it and two ^{shirts} ~~shirts~~. Officer English and me recovered them, I recognized them as my property; they were found at Mr.
 Hadden's, he keeps a sailor's boarding house at 63 Cherry St. I got the shawl Thomas Hadden sworn. I keep a seaman's boarding house. I know the prisoner; he sold me a ticket, he said he pawned his wife's shawl; he said he was hard up and asked for 50 cents. So I gave it to him. I sent a man to get it from the pawnbroker, he is not in Court; he was one of the sailors, he brought the shawl back to me. Cross Examined. It was somewhere about the middle of Sept. I got the ticket from the prisoner; he had been doing painting for me previous. Mary Reilly recalled. The shawl now shown me is mine and the skirt also.

 Mary Halpin sworn. The prisoner came to my house for a shawl belonging to Mary Reilly, I told him it was at Mrs. Walsh's; he said he would come the next day for the trunk; the next day he came to the sidewalk and a man came up from him and he took down Mary Reilly's trunk. I looked out of the window to see if he was an express man, and the two men went off with the trunk. This was in the middle of Sept. or October. I never saw Buchanan before.
 Ellen Walsh sworn. I live at 220 Monroe St.
 The prisoner came and asked for Mary Reilly's shawl; he said she was waiting down at the ferry and she was in a hurry. I made up the shawl in a parcel she forgot it in my house; it was a black one Mary Reilly recalled. I did not authorize the prisoner to go to Mary Halpin's for my trunk; he did not deliver the trunk or the shawl to me. Louisa Smith was sworn and examined for the defence. I know the prisoner, he did some work for me in a saloon about the 7th or 8th of Sept. and worked until the 3^d of October; he was attending bar; he slept there and worked day and night. I sent his meals into him. Julia Miller sworn. I know the prisoner, he was attending bar for Mrs. Smith in Sept. I saw him there every day, he did not go away from there. Charles B. Buchanan sworn and examined in his own behalf. I never went with any person to get Mrs. Reilly's trunk from Mrs. Halpin's place. I never got a trunk from Mrs. Halpin's place. I was employed by Mrs. Smith in Sept., I painted and papered her place No 60 James St. and remained with her there until she broke up; that was on the 3^d of October. In the middle of October I was on my way to Bart's Island, I was arrested I think it was on the 10th of October and I remained in until the 14th or 15th, I remained there until they found out I had not committed what they thought there was influence used there to get me out. I remained until the 29th of October; that was the last day of registering. I was confined from the 10th to the 29th of October.

 In Nov. I was working for Mrs. Smith. I was living at my house 9 Birmingham St. in Nov. I never sold any ticket to Mr.
 Hadden. Cross Examined. I never said to the old lady Mary Tharpine that I was sent by Mary Reilly for a black shawl. I do not know the lady, never seen her until she came in Court. Did you ever meet Mary Reilly and tell her you would look after her trunk and shawl and take them to Elizabeth where she was going to live as a cook? I did not. Did you ever go to Mary Tharpine's place and ask for and receive a shawl? No sir. You never seen any of these people? I never saw these women to my knowledge. I admit to seeing Mrs. Reilly before. I have known Mary Reilly since 1878, I saw her three times in my life. I have been in her rooms once with my brother-in-law, John Hart.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. He was remanded for sentence.
