deposes and says, that the premises No 545 West 26th Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a second floor tenement house, the east half of the 1st floor of and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling and in which there was at the time no human being, by name were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking down the door leading from the hallway on the 1st floor to the kitchen in the rear of the east half of said floor on the 27 day of March 1886 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

One square nickel-plated alarm clock of the value of five dollars

Gold and silver watch of the United States to the amount of the value of fifty-five dollars

All of the value of fifty-five dollars the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by John James Granher, and Charles J. Rafferty who has not been arrested for the reasons following, to wit: That deponent is informed by his wife, Elizabeth Deppman, that about the hour of 7.20 P.M. on the above date she locked and securely fastened the above described apartment and went away that about the hour of 8.20 P.M. on the same date she returned and that between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock on the above date as he was passing through was 26th Street near 11th Street, he was met by the defendants John Sands and Christopher Rafferty who were together and in conversation with each other; that the defendants did lead him into the said Christopher Rafferty said to him to come with them and have some fun; that he did accompany them to the fourth floor of the above described premises and there saw the said Rafferty take hold of the door of the above described kitchen door, and with his foot burst the same in, after which the said Rafferty and Sands entered the above described apartment and passing through the kitchen and intermediate rooms, entered the front room of said apartment and the said Rafferty getting down on his knees opened a drawer of the wardrobe in which the above described money was and taking something out of said drawer put it into his pocket; that the said John Barrett, who was partially intoxicated at the time, suspecting something wrong, asked the said Rafferty and Sands "what they were doing?" and attempted to leave the place, when the said Rafferty putting his hand to his hip-pocket ordered him "to stay where he was and keep still"; that immediately thereafter the defendants accompanied by the said John Barrett went to the roof of the above described house and over the roofs of the two adjoining houses to the third house through which they passed to the street and after giving him a drink at a liquor store ordered him to take a walk wherefore defendant charges the said John Sands and Christopher Rafferty with acting in concert and unlawfully entering the above described premises and stealing the above described property.

The People
vs.
William N. Savage. { court of general sessions, part I. before judge gildersleeve.

December 17, 1886.

Indictment for forgery in the second degree.

Albert Gamon sworn and examined. I live at 1475 Pacific Street, Brooklyn, I was in the city of New York on the 23rd of October, I met the defendant at the bar on that day, he told me that he was hard up for clothing, he told me that he had a pawn ticket representing a stud worth over a hundred dollars and it was pawned for fifty and he showed me the pawn ticket, he said that his underclothes were thin, the weather was kind of cold and he wanted five dollars to get some underclothes and he asked me to give him five dollars, I took that ticket for security for a week, I took the ticket believing that it was a good ticket; the ticket now shown me is the very ticket; when I received the ticket from him I gave him five dollars, I kept it for a week and at the expiration of a week I went to the pawn broker and showed him the ticket, it represented a diamond stud, I went to the pawn shop of Harris & Son, 245 Court Street, Brooklyn, I saw Mr Harris himself. I first had the conversation with the defendant at Union Square in this city, we walked to Third Avenue and it was at the corner of Fourteenth Street I let him have the five dollars in this city. I had known the defendant for two weeks.

Joseph Harris sworn and examined. I am a pawn broker at 215 Court Street, Brooklyn; Albert Gamon called upon me about the first of November and showed me a ticket,

Would you recognize the ticket if you would see it again?
I think I would. Did you ever see that ticket? (Showing witness the ticket.) yes, I did. who presented it? The gentleman who just left the witness stand. Where did he present it? At my office. To whom did he present it? I took it. Was that ticket ever issued by your pawn shop?
No sir. Was any entry made in your book in regard to that? No sir. Is that a bona fide ticket issued by you or is it a fraudulent one? It is a fraudulent one. In what respect? It is not the entry in the book, it is not my number, it is my blank ticket but not filled up by me.
My number at that time was 19053 and that is 17415. That is not our writing at all except the printing, that is all Harris & Son. Did you ever authorize or permit anybody to put that writing on it? Certainly not. Who does the writing in your shop? Myself or my son; the writing on that ticket is neither mine nor my son's.

Cross Examined. How long have you been in the pawn broker's business? fifteen years. Myself and my son have carried on the business and sometimes we have a clerk in the month of September I did have a clerk and sometimes he made out the pawn tickets. I will swear that this ticket was not made out in our office; the prisoner might have made it out in my office but not behind the counter; it was not made out in my office by my clerks, anyway not while with me.

James Brady sworn. I am a canvassing clerk in Singer's Sewing Machine establishment. The defendant sold me a ticket for five dollars, representing a gold watch.

John valiant sworn. What precinct do you belong to? The 9th. Did you arrest the defendant? yes sir. Do you remember when and where? On the 26th of November. Where was he? In a liquor saloon corner of 12th and Hudson Streets. Do you know anything about this case other than arresting him? Nothing further than him being accused by Mr Eamon of having sold him a ticket for five dollars. In pursuance of that accusation you arrested him? yes sir.

Thomas Burleigh sworn. What precinct do you belong to? The 9th. Were you with the other police officer when this man was arrested? yes sir. Do you know anything more than arresting him for this accusation? No sir.

Joseph Harris recalled by counsel for the defendant. Look at this pawn ticket which has been offered in evidence, it appears to be filled out upon a printed blank? Yes; it is the printed blank that we commonly use. I have a genuine blank ticket with me. Where do you keep your blank tickets generally? In a writing desk. Have you ever let any of your blank tickets go out of your office into the hands of anybody beside yourself? No sir. Do you know how this particular blank got out of your office? I do not. I never authorized my son or any of my clerks or any person to let them go out. I have no knowledge of ever having seen the defendant before he was arrested, he never was in my employ.

James Brady recalled by Mr Bedford. Did you ever see this defendant before to-day? yes sir, I did. Do you remember about when? In the month of last October, something about the end of October, he sold me a ticket for five dollars stating that he bought a watch in Chicago for fifty dollars and that he was in straitened circumstances or hard up and that he had pawned his clothes in order to pay his boarding mistress, he had not shoes on his feet and he had to buy a pair of shoes. so I bought the ticket, he said the watch was in Mr Harris's, Brooklyn he also had an overcoat he said, to the best of my recollection, in Grand Street, I gave him five dollars and I took the ticket. I put it in my pocket and kept it, that was Saturday evening and the next Monday morning I had my own suspicions that I was taken in, I was not able to release it at the time, I had not money to release it. did you see Mr Harris, what did you do? yes sir, I saw Mr Harris in the Jefferson Market Court, I showed him that ticket, he said it was a bogus ticket.

Joseph Harris recalled by Mr Bedford. did you or your firm ever issue that ticket? (the ticket referred to by the last witness, Peoples exhibit No. 2.) No sir..

By Counsel. Q. This last ticket that you have seen, Mr Harris, is written upon one of your genuine printed blanks and it is dated September 15? yes sir. During the month of September you had a clerk in your office beside yourself and your son? yes sir. who were authorized to issue tickets? Yes sir. Can you say that the clerk did not issue that ticket? No sir, it is not my clerk's writing. Can you say that he did not authorize anybody else to write that ticket in his presence? Not in my office. Were you in your office watching everything that that clerk did through the whole month of September? I am in from morning till night, till we close. Do you take any meal in the middle of the day? Upstairs, I live in the same shop. Do you take your meals in the pawn shop? No sir, my son remains in the business. Can you swear that your son did not authorize anybody in your absence to fill out that ticket? Yes sir, I will swear for my son is my partner. Do you mean to tell this jury upon your oath that you will say of your own knowledge that your son at no time during the month of September when you were not present authorized any person to fill up this ticket and issue it? I will swear that he did not authorize nobody, he does it himself, I will swear that he did not authorize nobody to write for him. You leave him in charge of your place when you go out, do you not? Yes sir, he is alone; there is nobody behind the counter but him, he will not let anybody in except an officer when he wants to know something. Will you swear that no person wrote those tickets? They might write it out in the street, I don't know anything about it. You do not know that your clerk did not issue these tickets, do you? Not in my store, I don't know anything about what he did outside. I have got half a dozen more tickets like that, I don't know who issued them; they are all bogus, it is the same writing pretty near on every one of them. I know that some of my genuine blank tickets were abstracted from my place but I could not tell who had access to them, I cannot tell you who took the tickets. All the clerks I had and my son had access to the tickets, they are kept behind the counter; no person except those in my employ is ever allowed to go behind the counter; the defendant was never in my employ and I do not know that he had any access to these tickets. I have been in business fifteen years, I had some clerks who were authorized to issue tickets but either myself or son were always there and saw them write them. This is the first time I ever saw floating around a whole lot of my tickets that we never authorized their issuing. The other two tickets that I have came into my possession by parties coming over there to redeem them, I sent around to the station house and told the captain about it; neither of those parties was the defendant, the complainant or Mr Brady who has been a witness. I do not know that the defendant is in any way connected with those two tickets. I never authorized the defendant directly or indirectly to fill up any ticket.

POOR QUALITY

Albert Eamon recalled.

By the Court. At the time you got this ticket from the defendant did he state to you he obtained the money on the diamond ring? No sir, he said it was a stud, he said it was his stud. He commenced first by saying that his underclothes were thin and then he got the ticket out and he told me that his stud was pawned for fifty dollars and it was worth over a hundred dollars. He did not say who pawned it? No sir.

Joseph Harris recalled by the court.
These pawn tickets which are in evidence in the case at any time in October or since or before was the property deposited or pawned with you? No sir. They represent nothing so far as you are concerned? No sir. Will you swear that the property designated upon those pawn tickets was never delivered to any of your clerks?— can you swear that of your own knowledge? Yes sir, I swear that. I will swear that they never came into our office.
Tickets have been renewed to the original owner. If you present a ticket and if the year is up and you bring the ticket I renew the ticket and make a new ticket of it.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

City.

Dear Sir:

On your arrival in New York I beg leave to come to you in my present unhappy state to plead for mercy and to induce you to abandon the prosecution.

As you know during my employ in your office I always have tried to do my very best, to be useful and hours of sickness did not influence me to be at your services, and as the circumstances are against my only resource, my very last hope is in your generosity and clemency.

I am sick in body and heart and not only myself but my poor dear wife suffers too immensely through my negligence.

Let me atone for it, I know by experience nobody has ever appealed to your goodness in vain, let me straighten out and make good my faults in the future.

I beg you on my knees earnestly for relief out of my present position, your goodness has given me back to health, for which favor I am so greatly thankful, I pray of you give me back to my poor wife by releasing me, God knows that all my work has always been a trial to increase business and knowingly, willingly or intentionally I have never done anything or said anything - my endeavours have always been to make a good showing.

For the sake of my poor suffering wife be merciful I plead earnestly & hopeful to you as I pray to God to save me and to spare me of further disgrace and as I speak for my wife too, I give you the faithful assurance, we both will & work hard to wipe out what was wrong in the past

Let my prayer for mercy not be in vain you have befriended me and let me obtain your pardon, let your noble heart find forgiveness in this new year and let me commence it that the future may atone for the past. I have already been suffering fearfully and I pray God that my appeal to you may be favorable to me and my wife.

Let me open this New Year with turning over a new leaf and my hopes in your pardon give me strength to make good for my negligence.

I pray to God to move your heart in my favor and I will try earnestly and faithfully to make good what was wrong.

With this hope in my heart and trusting my appeal will not be in vain I remain, dear Sir:

Yours very respectfully

Dear Sir:

We would suggest that the case of The People against Schrikker, in which our clients, The State Steamship Company, are interested be adjourned until say the third week of the term. We will be able by that time to have additional evidence of the commission of similar acts of embezzlement, and will have had better opportunity to confer with you in regard to the details of the case.

November 20 1886

For the defendant the People.

James Bowen, the complainant, being duly sworn deposes and says - I am 43 years old; I am an Officer of the Tenth Precinct. On Nov 15 last I went into the premises of the defendant at 17 Christie street accompanied by Officer Wallenstein. I found four girls there in one room.
I had some soda water first at the bar when I went in with Officer Wallenstein. We were invited by the defendant to sit down in the room behind the bar. We went in and sat down. One of the girls sat on the sofa with me and another sat with Officer Wallenstein on the sofa. The girl that sat on the sofa with me said to me "Will you go in the room with me?" I asked her "What for?" She said for to give her a piece.

Then I asked her how much would it cost me? She said to me it would cost me one dollar; that it aint with every one she would go for a dollar. So I said I did not care to go into the room just now; that I would call in again. The defendant was sitting <sup>opposite</sup> ~~beside~~ me at the time and she could hear the conversation. I did not go that time.
