of No. 290 West Vanvor Street, aged 81 years, occupation liquor-dealer being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No 388 Hudson Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a five story brick building, the store on the first or ground floor of which was occupied by deponent as a liquor saloon and in which there was at the time no human being, by none were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly tearing one of the store doors, which leads from Vanvor Street into said saloon from its hinges and fastenings, and also prying off the casing into which said door was set, and thus gaining an entrance to the inner door on the 4th day of January 1887 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: Gold and lawful money of the United States to the amount, and of the value one hundred & fifty dollars.

the property of Samuel Kelly in deponent's care & custody as Superintendent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property attempted to be taken, stolen, and carried away by Robert Burns, James Clark, and James M. Connolly (all unknown)
for the reasons following, to wit: that about the year of 12.50 A.M. on the above date deponent locked and secured fastened the above described store; that about the year of 7 A.M. of the same date, he was informed that one of the doors of the above described saloon had been broken open, and on making an examination of the premises discovered, that the outer door and casing, had been burst open in the manner above described. that deponent has been informed, by Officer Richard Nelson of the 9th Precinct & Co. that about the hour of 1.45 A.M. on the above date, he saw the said Robert V. Burns James Black, and James M. Connolly defendants together and in company with each other, from the doors opening from said Saloon into Hudson Street, that on his approach they went away together, that about a half hour thereafter, he saw the defendants at the above described door on Hudson Street, and on examining said door found, that it had been broken open in the manner above described, whereupon he pursued the said defendants, and during said pursuit he saw one of the defendants, throw something into a milk-wagon standing in Hudson Street, and on examining said wagon immediately thereafter found a broken glass jar, and immediately thereafter placed the defendants under arrest.

Wherefore defendant charges the said Robert V. Burns James Black and James M. Connolly with ^{acting in concert and} burglariously entering the above described premises and with attempting to take, steal and carry away the above described property.
