Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, ss.years a Master of No. 611 Hudson Street,

John Hadisch aged 35 being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 23 day of October 1883 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent in the day time the following property, viz:

one leather satchel of the value of one dollar one album of the value of one dollar one silk shirt of the value of three dollars one seal skin cap of the value of ten dollars a Simon Hancock shirt of the value of four dollars one pair of pants of the value of five dollars two white jackets of the value of three dollars three undershirts of the value of three dollars said property being in all of the value of thirty one dollar

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken stolen, and carried away by William Elliot (nowhere) from the fact that said property was in the care and charge of said defendant, who acknowledged to deponent in the presence of witnesses and in open court that said property was pawned with his knowledge and that he received a portion of the money obtained from the pawn broker on said property, and deponent so charges that said defendant did steal said property as aforesaid
