The People

Richard Harrigan } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cwing. July 14, 1888 jointly indicted with John J. Morrissey for burglary in the second degree and larceny.

John P. Fox sworn. I live at 190 East Seventy sixth st.; it was broken into on the 30th of May. There was stolen a clock valued at $30, a scarf pin worth $15 to $18 and a hat worth two or three dollars; it was my property. I went to bed that morning at six o'clock and some noise awoke me up and I saw Harrigan and Morrissey in the room. I asked them what they wanted and they ran out. I followed them out; they threw a chair across the door and that upset me and they slid down the stairway. I could not go out, I had no clothes on and I did not follow them into the street.
 I found a dress belonging to my wife on the banisters of the stairs. I went into the house and found the other things had been stolen. I looked at the lock and saw it was strained a little; they must have got in by a false key. This was about one o'clock and the room was dark. I don't know anything about the character of the defendant.
 I could not say whether I saw him before that day or not. That time they did not take anything with them; they went out too quick; they were in twice; it was proven in Court before. I did not see them in the first time. I am in the liquor business.

Louisa Tarbell sworn. I reside 190 East Seventy Sixth St.; that is the house where these men broke in. I saw Hannigan on the 30th of May coming out of the front door with Morrissey both running down towards Third Ave., between twelve and one o'clock; they did not have anything in their hands. Cross Examined. I saw Morrissey that day coming out of Mr. Fox's place with a clock in his hand. Hannigan was not with him then, but near one o'clock I saw them both going out of the front door; they had nothing with them then.

Kate Tarbell sworn. I live at 190 East Seventy Sixth St. I saw Hannigan and Morrissey go in Mr. Fox's house between twelve and one o'clock and about ten minutes after they ran out of the front door; they had nothing with them. This is an apartment house. I did not see them go to Mr. Fox's room; Mr. Fox's apartments are on the second floor.

Lydia A. Bliss sworn. On the morning of the 30th of May I saw Hannigan and Morrissey talking on the opposite side of the street and Morrissey gave Hannigan two potatoes and came over to our house. I went away from the window and came down stairs to go to the store and on the first flight of stairs I passed Hannigan coming up stairs. I came back and saw the two men running in the street. This was between twelve and one o'clock. Hugh Martin sworn. I am connected with the 98th precinct; Mr. Fox reported the burglary at the station house and myself and detective Campbell investigated the case, and from the description we got we arrested Hannigan and Morrissey in a vacant house; we brought them to the station house and we put them in with five or six men and the lady witnesses selected them from among them. Hannigan said he did not do it. I found nothing on Hannigan but found a key on Morrissey belonging to Mr. Fox's clock.

John J. Fox recalled. I could not tell the time the clock or the pin was stolen.

Lydia Bliss recalled. I saw the men in front of Fox's house first between eleven and twelve, about 20 minutes of twelve and fifteen minutes after that I saw Morrissey and Hannigan together. I do not think more than half an hour elapsed between the first and second times I saw them.

Charles Westerfeld sworn. I live at 292 Seventy Seventh St. and am a furniture mover; the defendant has been in my employ eight months; he was arrested on Decoration day on the day before that he moved a load of furniture between 8 and 10 o'clock in the morning.
 As far as I know his character has been good.

Richard Haunigan sworn. I worked for Mr. Westerfeld ~~on~~ Decoration day. I moved a load of furniture from 79th to 82nd St. The driver of the wagon and another man was with me.
 I began at about 1/4 to 8 o'clock and it was ten minutes to eleven when I got through. I did not see Morrissey between twelve and one o'clock. I only know him to bid him the time of day. I did not at any time break into Cox's room. I always work for a living. I have never been arrested before. Cross Examined. I was a witness in the case of Morrissey. I probably did testify that it was nearly eleven o'clock when I went to Central Park. I was not with Morrissey that day.
 I had no conversation with him at all only to bid him the time of day.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

Testimony in the case of Richard Manning
filed June 1983.

The People Court of General Sessions, Part I. vs.
 John J. Morrissey, jointly indicted with Richard Hannigan. Before Judge Gilders leavee.

June 22, 1885.

Indictment for burglary in the second degree .

John P. Fox sworn. I reside at 192 East 76th Street in this city, it is in the 19th Ward, a tenement house and I occupy the second floor. I had furniture there and a clock worth thirty dollars, it was missing in the afternoon, I was in my room from six in the morning until one o'clock in the afternoon, I was asleep and heard a noise and woke up and saw two men at the clothes closet, I identify Hannigan as one of them; this was one o'clock in the afternoon. I locked the door at six o'clock in the morning and when I awakened the lock was strained and part of the sash was broken. I asked them what they wanted and they ran right out; they pulled the chair across the room and that upset me and I could not follow them out quick enough because I stumbled against the chair; I did not catch them. I found a dress belonging to my wife on the stairs which they dropped, I lost a hat worth three dollars, I did not see the men take anything, I am sure that the man on trial is one of the men.

Cross Examined. I know Morrissey by sight and had seen him before that time, the room was dark, I did not say I saw him in the room, it was at the end of the stairway; when I first saw them they were standing at the closet in my room, I could identify him as one of the men, he had a light coat and a black hat, I bought my hat at Callahan's in the Bowery. The clock was a French striking clock which I bought at Snyder's in the Bpvery I have five rooms, my wife was in the kitchen when I locked the door. I saw my hat in the Station House, the officer took it off Morrissey's head; there was also a scarf pin taken worth eighteen dollars.

Katie Tarbell sworn. I live 190 East 76th Street and was in the house on the 30th of May in the neighborhood of twelve o'clock. I saw those two men (Morrissey and Hannigan); they went down in the cellar, I heard a noise a little while after that, I was looking out of the window and I saw them both run out of the front door, one ran up Third Avenue and the other one ran down Third Avenue. Morrissey had nothing with him.

Cross Examined. I know both of the men by sight, I saw them going in from the basement and I should think it was about ten minutes afterwards I saw them running out; neither one of them had anything when I saw them.

Louisa Tarbell sworn. I live with my sister at 190 East 76th Street and was in the room about twelve o'clock on the 30th of May. I saw Morrissey have a clock on his arm and a white straw hat in his hand and a black derby hat on his head, the clock was Mr Fox's; when he went out he was running, I never saw Morrissey before that day, I am positive that he is the man I saw with the hat and the clock belonging to Mr Fox.

Cross Examined. This was between eleven and twelve o'clock, he was alone, I was in the window looking out, the clock is a white marble clock with an ornament on top, there is no other clock like it in the house; he wore kind of a light coat.

Hugh Martin sworn. I am a police officer connected with the 28th precinct and arrested Morrissey and Hannigan on the 31st of May, the day after the burglary was committed; they were in a vacant house directly opposite where the burglary was committed. Morrissey was on the second floor lying down and another officer got Hannigan on the first floor, I took Morrissey down to the Station House and on searching him found a hat on his head and the key of a clock which Mr Fox identified as his. Morrissey said that he bought the hat from a peddler for twenty-five cents, he did not say anything about the key.

Cross Examined. There were no special marks on the hat and no marks on the key that I am aware of, I know Hannigan to see him and never heard anything against him, I don't know where the clock is.

John P. Fox recalled. The lining of my hat was torn off when I had it, I wore it a couple of months, I swear positively that it is my hat, I identify the key as belonging to my clock, I have not seen the clock since it was stolen.

The Case for the Defence.

Annie Morgan sworn and examined. I live in 1813 103rd Street and Third Avenue, I know the defendant Morrissey but do not remember the day when he was arrested, I heard of it about a week after his arrest, I saw Morrissey on Decoration Day in my rooms. Was there anyone else there? My baby and myself was there, I am a married lady. I know Mrs. Decker, she was not in my rooms but she is a neighbor of mine and she lives under me. What time on the 30th of May was the first time you saw Morrissey? I do not know what hour of the day it was but I know he was in my room about twelve o'clock, I brought him down to this lady Mrs. Decker at twelve o'clock, he was in my rooms before he went to her room. I am quite sure it was before twelve when he was in my room, it was twelve exactly when he was in her room; he was up and down to our rooms, he staid till it was half past three or near four before he left, he was in that house during all those hours. Was there anyone else there besides Mrs. Decker? I do not live in a private house, I live with other families in the house, I do not know whether the neighbors noticed them or not. He is a relative of mine though I speak nothing in his favor for I am only saying what is true.

Cross Examined. What relative? He is my brother. I was not out to see the procession on Decoration Day, I saw the passing the windows, I live on the Avenue. Did you lose sight of your brother at any time from twelve till four? No. You do not undertake to fix the hour positively when he came? No. On the 30th of May he entered my room somewhere in the neighborhood of twelve o'clock, I could not exactly say how long he remained in it before leaving, it might have been half an hour or an hour, he was up and down, he was not out of the house, I know that. I left the room with him sometimes and we were laughing and talking, I can say he never left the place from the time he went into it until he went out, he was up and down stairs to this lady's house, I could not tell how long I was ironing on Decoration Day. This lady is a neighbor of mine and we were always very friendly, she would be up in my house and I would be down there. I came here to swear that that man was in my house a little before twelve or about twelve until half past three the last time I saw him.

Charlotte Gecker sworn. I live 1873 Third Avenue and 103rd Street, I am married and my husband is in the feed business. I believe Mr Morgan is a painter, I remember Decoration Day, I saw Mrs. Morgan repeatedly on that day and saw Morrissey also, I have know him for about eight months, he was employed on the Elevated Railroad about the 20th of May, it was twelve o'clock when he was in my house, he came into my apartments with his sister Mrs. Morgan. He wanted me to go up with him to his boss to have him excused from working until Monday because he was not feeling well, it was about half past three when I went out to 111th Street and Second Avenue to see a gentleman by the name of Mr John; Morrissey did not come back with me, he took the Elevated cars at 111th Street and went down home to 76th Street, I do not know Hannigan, I do not know how long Morrissey has been in the employ of the Elevated Railroad.

Richard Hannigan sworn. I am one of the defendants and was arrested on the 31st of May about half past three or four o'clock, I was down stairs talking to the watchman, I never was arrested in my life before, I am a wood moulder and had been working on a furniture wagon the day I am accused of doing this crime, I worked for Mr. Westerfelt No. 202 77th Street, I had been at work that morning and at eleven o'clock I was over at the Park, I was not at Mr. Fox's house that day about eleven o'clock or about one o'clock, I had been moving furniture that morning until half past nine or a quarter to ten with a hired man that drives a truck for my boss. I was not at Mr. Fox's place at one o'clock in the afternoon but was on the corner of 76th Street after coming out of a restaurant from my dinner. I did not see Morrissey at all that day, I am not acquainted with him, I do not go with him, only just to see the gentleman. My boss was in Court all day Friday, I live at 357 East 76th Street with my sister and father.

Cross Examined. I was taken to the 59th Street Station House with Morrissey, there was four men there, Miss Tarbell hesitated two or three minutes before she picked Morrissey and me out; she came over to me and said, there is one of them; she knew me before. I will swear that I was not in company with Morrissey when he took that clock, I only know Morrissey by sight three or four weeks before this time.

Hugh Martin recalled. I think there was six men in the Station House beside Morrissey and Hannigan. The Misses Tarbell picked them out promptly, they went right in and pointed out the two men, I took five or six men right in from the sidewalk.

Louisa Tarbell recalled. I was at the Station House and did not hesitate a moment but picked them right out among five or six men.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree.

Dear Sir

We wish to withdraw the charge against James Beirne who was connected with Walter Harris who was charged with stealing goods from us in the June 1885. Harris was an errand-boy in our employ and he was sent to the reformatory. Beirne was not in our employ but was in company with Harris. Through Beirne the officers were enabled to recover the property.

We do not believe that Beirne intended to steal but was induced by Harris to accompany him after he had sold the goods.

I am now going on seventeen years of age, at the time of the happening of the matter for which I am indicted I was under fifteen. I am at present employed in the Export Lumber Company at their works at Hunters Point. I am residing with my parents at No 432 Hudson Street New York

About three years ago I got acquainted with Walter Harris. He was an errand-boy for Traphagan & Co. Clothiers. In June 1885 I was out of employment Harris asked me to accompany him on his errands. I did so several times. One day he asked me to go with him to do so. He had several parcels to deliver.
He told me that he had collected ten dollars and proposed that we should go off in the country and have a good time. That morning my father had scolded me for some trivial fault and I felt angry and under that feeling I agreed to go with him. He then said that he had clothes in the house at his home and that he would go for them and agree to meet me afterwards. ~~He~~ met him and we remained on the street all night. Next morning we started for Jersey and went as far as Trenton.

 There Harris sold a coat he had taken with him to a saloon keeper and gave a suit of clothes. The remainder around Trenton while the money lasted and then started to walk back to New York. I was very hungry and sick and my clothes were all torn and we were taken by Harris' brother to the police. I told the officers everything and where to get the clothes that Harris took. The officers recovered the clothes. I never received nor handled any of the money. Harris paid it all out. I was and am very sorry for my foolishness and for disobedience of my father. I did wrong but at the time I did not know that I was doing anything dishonest.
 I was never arrested nor accused.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Frederick Houser Assault / Degree

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I have known the defendant for ten years - he came into my saloon with two other men all were under the influence of liquor - the defendant was ordered out and refused to go, when my partner and two or three people seized him and ejected him beating him and bruising and cutting his face - He returned my saloon and displaying a Pistol saying "he had a friend in that" if we touched him again - He did not point the Pistol at me, that was a mistake of mine to say so - I don't believe the defendant had any intention to hurt me - I was very much excited when I made the complaint, and did not mean to be understood as saying the defendant pointed a pistol at me -

Defendant's wife has been a very nice woman

York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

A gold watch of the value of forty dollars the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Heidson Now here from the fact that about four o'clock P.M. on said day deponent was in Central Park and in the house where the Monkeys are kept. That among the crowd of persons there the defendant stood closest to deponent, and by his side that deponent heard a snap and just then discovered that the watch had been detached from the chain and taken from deponent's breast pocket. That deponent immediately took hold of the defendant and saw a ring in his hand which deponent believes was the one connecting the chain with the watch. And the watch was afterwards found on the floor.

ing out in front of this door 451 Grand St. this city, and they were about to go down in the basement and they turned around and saw me on the other side of the street and ran.
I was about to run after them and I saw the door half open. I thought I had better go in there. I sent out an alarm rap, and I

Yes sir, I asked him who the other parties were there, and he would not tell me. He did not know he said. Cross Examined. He did not state to me that he went down there for the purpose of buying a jumper. I don't know that China men sell the jumpers that are uncalled for. I found no money on the prisoner.
