- 1 I am 19 years of age & reside at 401 East 20th St New York City, & have lived there about 4 years. About a year ago I first saw Thomas M. Pherson & saw him going around with a tough crowd, saw him steal things from store, saw him drunk
- 2 On the night of the 10th of August 1889, I took supper at home & left my house at about 8.30 P.M. I walked down 7th Ave & met a friend named Robert Deffen about 18th Street; he wanted me to go with him to help his mother move. I went with him to his house between 14th & 15th Street in Ave B. & helped his mother move to 18th Street between Ave. A & B. This took about two hours. When I got through then I walked down 1st Ave & met Thomas Murphy on the Avenue about 18th Street. We stopped down 1st Ave to 1st Street; turned around & started for home. At 6th St & 1st Ave. N.W. cor, we saw Thomas M. Pherson beating a small boy about 15 years of age with his fist, named John Drew

I went over & said to MacPherson you a little boy like that". He called me a son of a bitch and said "I give u 1000 100". I ~~said~~ I made no reply I told young Drew who came it was no fair for him to be out. MacPherson says "What have you got to do with it". He says "I'll give u 1000 100" & hit me on the side of the head. He tried to hit me again & I grabbed him to prevent him from hitting me, we had a tussle & we fell I on top of him. I hit him once or twice before he fell with my fist. I haven't carried <sup>him</sup> a knife or ~~any kind of a weapon~~ for two years & never carried any weapon of any kind. Murphy heard Mr. Pherran & told me to walk up the Avenue & I did so. Drew was going up First Avenue ahead of us.

Murphy & I overtook Drew & I was asking Drew what the trouble was & why Mr.
Pherran hit him. Before he replied Mr.
Pherran who had run up behind me hit me a crack behind the ear which knocked me out into the gutter & on the car track. I didn't fall down although it seemed staggered me. He came for me again & I saw him stagger as if under the influence of liquor. He struck at me & seized me & tried to throw me down on the car track, but Murphy separated us.

I John Drew being duly sworn deposes and says

I reside at 410 East 23 Street New York City & am sixteen years of age.

I know Thomas M. Pheron the relator in the above action & have known him about three or four years. He is an intimate friend of mine. I know Edward M. Anderson & have known him about a year. I never saw M. Pheron or M. Anderson together.

I work at the Steamship Fuel Roofing Company in 20 Street New York City.

I met M. Pheron on the night of August 10th 1889 at Avenue A & 17th St about nine P.M. We started to go down to a rabble for a silver watch. We were in Sixth Street near First Avenue & M. Pheron stopped a couple of times & took drinks at saloons, beer. About six fellows were with M. Pheron. At the rabble M. Pheron was drunk & when it was nearly over he hit me in the face a couple of times in the store and when we got out in the street as we were going up 1st Avenue on the west side about midway between the north & south side of Sixth Street he

(Mr. Pherson) turned around & said to me "what are you crying for I'll give you something to make you cry" & then hit me in the face. Then Mr. Anderson came up with Tom Murphy & asked Mr. Pherson "what do you want for" & when we were to go home it was too late for me to be out. Mr. Pherson says to Mr. Anderson "what business is that of yours, I'll hit you too". Then he struck at Mr. Anderson & they grappled & Murphy separated them. I stood near them watching them struggle. I saw Mr. Anderson all the time & he did not have any knife in his hands or any other weapon. After Murphy separated them ~~Mr. Anderson~~ Mr. Pherson & I walked up 1st Ave & Mr. Pherson ran up again & hit Mr. Anderson back of the ear. This knocked him into the street & Mr. Pherson followed to hit him again & then they clinched & Murphy separated them again. Mr. Anderson did not have any knife in his hands then or did any one else. We all started for home then and a policeman came along and separated the crowd that had gathered around Mr. Pherson & Mr. Anderson when they clinched. 18th Street -
I saw Mr. Pherson going down ~~1st Ave~~ <sup>1st Ave</sup> on Sunday evening following the altercation about 4 P. M. He was walking pretty fast. He did not seem at all hurt then.

I am perfectly positive that Mr. Anderson did not stab Mr. Pherson in that fight. Mr. Pherson is much more of a friend of mine than Mr. Anderson is. I don't know Mr. Anderson any better than to say how Question. Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?

Answer.

I am not guilty. I was walking along the street and fell into this cellar and instead of going out, the way I got in. I went through the trap door into the cell.

person of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

the property of deponent and that this deponent and carried away by James McGowan, Richard Williams and William Kelly (all now here) for the reasons that between two said day deponent was sitting on a stoop on Broadway and deponent had said pocket book containing said property and four cents in lawful money, in a pocket of the pantaloons deponent to pay therefor. Deponent took said pocket-book from his pocket and gave the said McGowan said four cents which was all the money deponent had. Said McGowan then snatched said pocket-book from deponent's hand and all three defendants ran away. Deponent pursued the defendants and while so doing the defendant Kelly made several attempts to prevent pursuit by seizing hold of deponent's coat.

Deponent is informed by Officer Walter S. Granville, of the 6th Precinct, that he Granville at about said time, heard shouting and saw three men running and saw two of said men run behind a wagon standing on Duane Street, to secrete themselves and the third man was running behind the said two men a distance of about one hundred and fifty feet. Deponent arrested said two men and turned them over to Officer Masterson of the 6th Precinct and he Granville saw said third man run behind another truck and when the officer came up to said truck he found the defendant Williams who pretended to be urinating. Said Granville search all of the defendants but failed to find said pocket-book but found the book here shown lying on the edge of the curb at the place where he arrested the defendants McGowan and Kelly and deponent identifies said pocket-book as the one stolen from his possession. That when McGowan snatched said pocket-book as aforesaid deponent saw him, McGowan pass it to said Williams.
