of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said Thomas J. Gould,

late of the Eighteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty-fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Thomas J. Gould

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas J. Gould

(Sec. 385, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Thomas J. Gould,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the Twenty-fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- ~~one~~ , and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in ~~this~~ said house for ~~this~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas E. Gould

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~fourth~~ fifth day of ~~December~~ , in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- ~~one~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for ~~this~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in ~~this~~ said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are habitually disturbed, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

unknown men and asking him to work there for the reasons that deponent is informed by Clements Hople (now here) that previous to said time he was in the shop attending to his business when said Gray entered and purchased from him a pair of shoestrings paying two cents therefor and left; shortly thereafter an unknown man entered and presented the paper hereto annexed ^{and} paper purporting to have been sent by the sender to have said Hople to leave the shop to do some work. Hople did not go as requested and then shortly thereafter said Gray returned and stated that he wished to purchase a better pair of shoe strings and give the pair first purchased in return. That while Gray was in the shop the said unknown man returned and asked Hople if he had gone to said the person who had sent the paper; Hople replied no and then Gray left and the unknown man ^{importuned} Hople to go which after some deliberation he did. robbery here charged was committed as aforesaid.

Deponent is further informed by Margaret Kofle (now here) deponent's niece that she was on the floor above at said time and hearing deponent scream she ran down stairs and saw the two unknown men in the shop and a man out side that they all fled. That one of the men who ran away is the defendant Gray (now here) Deponent is informed by George Sweeney (now here) that he is a police officer that he arrested the said Gray on the Elevated Railroad Station at 59th Street and Ninth Avenue when said Gray was pointed out by pedestrians as one of the men that were running away. That said Sweeney searched the person of said Gray and found the piece of paper hereto annexed marked Exhibit B which appears to have been torn from another piece of paper and the indentures on each of the exhibits A and B fit exactly to each other and establish that they at one time formed one piece of paper.

Wherefore deponent charges the defendant with acting in concert with the unknown men in the commission of said robbery.

John Greenwald & Maggie Greenwald did unlawfully inveigle, entice and detain deponent against her will and consent into a House of Prostitution for the purpose of Prostitution or Sexual intercourse in Violation 282 Sub division 2 of the Penal Code in the manner to wit: Deponent being of previous Chaste Character. On said date deponent saw an advertisement in the German Herold a news paper published in this City calling for a young Lady in a Coffee saloon apply at number 214 Chrystie Street. That deponent did call at such place and saw said defendants in said place. That deponent was informed by said defendants that her duties were to act as waiters in said Saloon. That deponent did believe such statement to be true accepted the position. That after deponent had been in said place one day she was induced to drink some wine given her by defendant Maggie that deponent believes such wine was drugged from the fact that she became unconscious. That when she awoke she found that she had been outraged that her undergarments were marked by blood stains. That deponent attempted to leave said place that defendants refused to permit deponent to leave said place that said Maggie told deponent if she attempted to leave that said Maggie would have her arrested and sent to the Police.

Deponent further says that she is informed by Nellie Quinsburg the person with whom deponent had previously lodged that defendant John called on her and told witness he wanted deponents trunks and baggage that deponent had secured a place as domestic at number 5 Forsyth Street in this City and that witness John said John deponents property believing his statement to be true. THE PEOPLE

and

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

BEFORE RECORDER SMYTH.

Thursday, March 10, 1892.

Indictment for abduction.

FANNY BUSS, sworn and examined by Mr. Davis:

I live at 117 Henry Street in this city with Mr. Myer; I help Mrs. Myer in the house work, I have been in this country six months, I have never been married. On the 23rd of December, 1891, I lived with Mrs. Nellie Gunsberg 126 Henry St.

I am twenty-two years old, I have lived with Mrs. Gunsberg one month and had my clothing there; I had a kind of a hand traveling basket with my linen in it. I read the advertisement now shown me in the New Yorker Herald on the 24th of December, 1891. In consequence of having read that advertisement I went on the 24th of December to No. 214 Christie Street. I saw the defendants Mr. and Mrs. Grunwald there, I asked them if they wanted a young girl in a coffee saloon and they said yes; she invited me to sit down and take a cup of coffee, she was very friendly to me, she said she will be as good as my own mother to me if I intended to stay with her; she will give me two dollars a week and washing free.

I asked her if it is an orderly house because I heard a good many things about America and she said it is an orderly house and I could stay with her; she said, "you remain with me and I will give you two dollars a week, you will have to be in the store because I have to work in the kitchen all the time." The coffee saloon was on the ground floor and two rooms connected with it. I asked her if she advertised for a young lady in the German Herald and she said yes. She said that this man, Mr. Grunwald, will go for my clothing, I told her I lived at 128 Henry Street with Mrs. Gunsberg.

I got there in the afternoon at three o'clock, she told me I might remain there, I did not need to go away any more.

I stayed there all night. I told her I wanted to go to Mrs. Gunsberg to get my things; then he (Grunwald) said, "I will bring you your things, you need not go there." Nothing happened that afternoon, she gave me some hand sewing and knitting to do and at nine o'clock she closed up the store and then we went to bed, I slept in the bed-room with her and the man slept in the last room on the sofa. Nothing happened that night after I went to bed; the next morning she said that Grunwald will go for my things; then I said, "I will go along with him"; she said, "no, it is not necessary, he will bring them"; then I gave him three keys, there was one to a patent lock and one to the stationary, ordinary lock and then another key for the lock which is lower down on the door. Grunwald left and brought my things, he brought that traveling basket with my things, and the same day toward evening a man came and she introduced him to me saying, that is her friend; she said I should drink with him and he invited me to take a glass of wine, she told me to go with him in the rear room; I said no, I would not go in the rear room, and then she said, "I have no license and I cannot serve her with wine, you must go in the rear room", and she came along with us; she brought wine and she filled up the glasses and she told me to drink and I took just one mouthful and I felt very ill about it and by and by I got worse and she said. "drink a little more. if you do not stop it is better if you will drink all along"; then I finished half a glass and I felt so tired.

The Court adjourned.

Friday, March 11, 1892.

FANNY BUSS recalled.

I was sitting on a chair in the back room when I drank this glass, Mrs.Grunwald and a man was there. I do not know what it was that I drank, she said it was wine and I should drink it; after I drank some of it I felt bad, I did not want to drink any more, she told me to drink it all and I would feel better. Mrs.Grunwald went out and told me to stay there, the man wont hurt me, she went out and closed the door and left me alone with the man; I felt kind of dizzy and I did not know any more about it, I felt then that the man laid on top of me, I felt the pain and I wanted to holler but I did not know anything more about it. I felt pain in the private parts. I was lying on a lounge with all my clothes loose, I felt the blood, I felt very bad and Mrs. Grunwald told me to go to bed; my underclothes was filled with blood. I told Mrs.Grunwald and she said "it is no harm", I undressed myself and went to bed. This was about nine o'clock in the evening and I got up at eight o'clock in the morning. I cried and I felt very bad all day and told her I would rather go back and work; she says, "you had better stay, you will go yet in diamonds, you will have very nice times here, now you are in trouble anyhow and you had better stay here. Where was the man defendant when she said this? When that happened he was in the store. When I told her I would rather go to work than to stay here she said, "well, if you go away I will get you arrested and send you across the water." I was crying, I did not know what to say, I had a loose wrapper on and some slippers and my underclothing, my other clothing was with Mr. Gunsberg at 126 Henry Street; the clothes I had on when I came there they were hanging up in the back room in the wardrobe. I had been there about two weeks when the talk about the diamonds took place --- no, I was only there one day when I had the talk about the diamonds.

The next morning after this happened to me I was sitting in the store doing some crocheting and reading the newspapers.

Why did you stay there after this had been done to you?

She kept my things and would not let me go out; wherever I went she followed me and I could not get away; she kept my underclothing, my wrapper and my hat, I asked her for those things, she said she would not give them to me, I should stay with her, I was there for about eight days, I was all upset in my head and did not know what I was doing. During those eight days that you stayed there what did the defendant or either of them do? They were persuading me to go with other men and they forced me to go with two. What did they say to you, take up the first time? Mr. Grunwald wanted to stab me with a knife and told me he would have me arrested if I would not go with that man and then with another one; it was three days after I went to the place he wanted me to go with that man; he says now there is a friend of his and there was another friend coming there which comes from a great distance, a very rich man, I should go with him and if I did not he would have me arrested; I told him I would not go and finally they pushed me in the back room and closed the door; Mrs. Grunwald pushed me in; that man was in with me, he forced me to go with him, he first talked kindly to me, he said, "it is no use, this woman keeps such a house and you might as well go with me"; that man had connection with me.

I still kept crying and I told her I wanted to go away.

She said "you will have your day to go out every two weeks and you can do as you please." At this time my clothing was locked up in the wardrobe and Mrs. Grunwald had the key.

I was very sick all that following week. When I was there four or five days Mrs. Grunwald introduced the third man to me, she told me that I had got to go as I was staying in her house and if I did not go Mr. Grunwald threatened to stab me with the knife; he had a knife in his hand, I could say nothing, it was late in the evening and I was crying, I was in the last room and this man had connection with me.

A German man came in there and he asked me why I was crying, I left there after two weeks, I left all my clothing there.

I went to Mrs. Myer, 117 Henry Street, and told her all about it. I went to the 57th Street Court and saw Officer Phillips and got a warrant for the arrest of the defendants, I went afterwards with Officer Phillips to their saloon and saw them and pointed out these two defendants to the officer, I got my clothes then. Before the first man had connection with you after you drank the wine, had you ever had connection with anybody? No, never. Down to that time were you perfectly chaste and unmarried? Yes sir.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I was born in Germany and am seven months in this country, I lived with my parents in Germany and went to school there till I was fifteen years old. I lived in Berlin and my father is a physician. I have one brother and one sister, my brother is two years older than myself and my sister is four years younger; they are living at home in Germany; my father and mother are dead. I went to Mr. Myer when I first came to this country, he knew my father in France, he used to live in Paris several years, I had Mr. Myer's address when I came to this country. Before I went to the defendant's place I was head nurse in a hospital for four months on East Broadway, Bes Israel, a Jewish hospital; there was another woman nurse and two men nurses. Did you ever act in the capacity of nurse in Berlin? My father kept a clinic in Berlin and I was assisting him there. When I went to the defendant's place at 214 Christie Street I had the same clothing on that I have now, I had no satchel with me. I was at Mrs. Gunsberg's, the morning that I went to the defendant's house first, I left about eleven o'clock in the morning and got to the defendant's house about three o'clock in the afternoon. I had been one month with Mrs. Gunsberg, I only slept there, I took my meals with Mrs. Gross where I was working, No. 75 Division Street; Mrs. Gross is a cloak maker and I worked for her, I only worked for my board. When I arrived in this country at Castle Garden I was met by my mother's sister who lived in this city but she has returned to Germany, her name is Amelia Hirsch, her husband's name was Herman Hirsch, they lived in 145th Street, I do not recollect the number, he has a corset factory. My aunt took me from Castle Garden to her house, I stayed there fourteen days. I had written to her that I would arrive by a certain steamer and asked her to meet me at Castle Garden; I went then as a nurse in the hospital and stayed there four months and then I went to live with the Myers. During the time that I was in the hospital my aunt went back to Germany. Did you state in answer to Mr. Davis's question that you had no other friends or relatives in this city and that was the reason you went to Myers' house immediately upon landing? Then I did not understand the question; I did not go to Myers when I arrived here.

A Dr. Blastone recommended me to Mrs. Gunsberg, I slept with her because her husband was not home, she wanted to have a companion whilst her husband was away. I think there were four tables in the coffee house of the defendants, it was the front room next to the street. I engaged to work for her for two dollars a week and my board to wait on the table;

I waited on customers in the restaurant the day after I went there. I bought the wrapper I wore at Lichenstein's in Grand Street before I went to the hospital. One of the men threw me on the sofa and had connection with me, I commenced to holler and the female defendant said, "don't holler, but be quiet, he will not do you anything bad." I halloed but nobody came, the door was closed. He asked me if I needed money and I said I did not take any money that way, he had money in his hand. The female defendant gave me some beer she said that will do me good for my stomach, I never drank beer in Germany. How long were you there before you told anybody that you had been assaulted? Nearly fourteen days.

How many times had you been out of that store from the time when you first went there until the time you left, how many times had you been on the street? Not at all. Did not you go out in your wrapper to the cigar store right near by to see what time it was on two or three occasions? Yes sir. Then you were out on the street? Yes, from one store to the other and she was watching me. Is it not a fact that you started out in company with a young student one evening for the purpose of going to the theater after you had been in the defendant's house about one week ---- a young man you became acquainted with in this hospital? No, she would not let me go; she said I may go after fourteen days. A young medical student came there about ten days after I was in this house; I told the female defendant that he had asked me to go to the theater with him; it was Saturday and she said, "a good many guests will come to-day and you can't go". I never went to the theater with this young doctor while I was living at the defendant's house, he came there once, I was ashamed to tell him that I had been assaulted, I did not tell him. It is not a fact that I went with this doctor to a dime museum on the Bowery; I never was in a museum in my life. The third man that came into the room knew Mrs. Grunwald very well. He said to me, "why don't you leave here, this is no place for you."

I told him everything and I cried and he said, "all right, but don't you say anything to Mrs. Grunwald because she is a friend of mine and I am a steady customer here." I did not have connection with this man; he told me to leave and the next day I left. The third man that had connection with me put his hand over my mouth and he hit me in the eye. I never made a present of a napkin ring or of a bottle of perfumery to the female defendant. I know Dr. Blastone who lives in Pike Street, I did not go to see him on the 3rd of last January. Why did not you run away, run out the next morning if you did not like that kind of life? She got up first and made a fire in the stove and made coffee and he remained in the store until I got up, I could not run out. Was there any other way of getting out of that house than through the store? Yes, the other door was locked; there was a fence in the yard but I could not go over that fence into the street; there is a hallway also from the rear to the street, I went twice for beer through that hallway to a lager beer saloon, Mrs. Jeke did not go with me. Why didn't you go out into the street? How could I go out with that loose wrapper; she sent me for the newspaper every morning to a stand at the cigar store. During those fourteen days did you send to Dr. Blastone and tell him you wanted him to come and take you from there? Yes, I sent a letter but he did not receive it, I sent also to Mrs. Gunsberg and the female defendant did not send it away; the letter should have been sent by mail, I gave her money to buy a stamp, I wrote to Mrs. Myer also and to my sister in Germany, I tried to send the letters off myself but the defendant said, "I will take the letters", and she took them.. The defendant told me I should take the name of Maggie Siske, that I should call myself Margaret Siske; it is not a fact that that was the name I gave to the defendant, I said my name is Fanny. She said, "Fanny is not an English name, you call yourself Margaret, it is better for business." I did not tell anybody in the liquor saloon that I was detained there and that I could not get away, I could not tell them anything, they were her friends, I did not tell anybody in the cigar store that I was restrained of my liberty. I never saw any policeman on that beat and I never looked for one to tell him. When you left there did the defendant pay you anything? No, she said I have to pay her else she will retain my things and will not give me anything.

By the Court: She stated that she told the German man what happened to her in this place and that he told her to get out of it, does she know the name of that German? I do not know his name, he would not tell me his name; he told me his name is Rosenberg and he lives uptown and he said, "the next day I will be myself in Court", I did not see him again. The man said, "I want to take her out to take a walk and Mrs. Grunwald said, "where do you want to take her?" And he said, "I want to take her out for about half an hour" She said, "but not longer than half an hour because there is plenty to do today." Then I told him everything and I went to Mrs. Myer and told Mrs. Myer everything and the next day the defendant was arrested. I know Dr. Levine, I saw him night before last in a drug store corner of Pike Street and East Broadway, he made an examination of me. Rosenberg took me to Mrs. Myer's house. The Mrs. Gunsberg now pointed out to me is the one I wrote a letter to and also to Mrs. Myer who is here in Court.

ISAAC LEVINE, sworn and examined.

I am a physician at 117 East Broadway and have been practicing for two years. I made an examination of the last witness. In what condition did you find the woman as to whether she was pregnant or not? I cannot answer exactly now. If what the girl told me is the truth then it is natural that she must be pregnant, that she has been for about two months pregnant.

SARAH MYERS, sworn and examined.

I live at 117 Henry Street with my husband, I have known the complainant Fanny Buss about four or five months and know other people who know her, she is very respectable, she came to live with me right after she left the hospital and stayed four weeks and then she went to Mrs. Gunsberg, she helped me in the housework; she came to my house in the early part of last January with a man, I did not know his name, it was the first time I ever saw him, he said his name was Rosenberg; it was six or seven days after New Years as far as I recollect. Fanny looked very down hearted, she introduced me to the gentleman and after he went away she made a complaint to me of ill treatment. I never received any letters from her at 117 Henry Street.

NELLIE GUNSBERG, sworn and examined.

I live at 126 Henry Street and am living there about seven months, Fanny Buss lived with me not quite a month, she told me she went out to work, she slept in my house, she went out in the morning about eight o'clock and came back about seven or eight o'clock in the evening; I don't know where she got her meals except what she told me.

I cannot tell the date exactly when she stopped living with he but I think it was on the 24th of December. I believe I have seen this man Grunwald before; a man came for her clothes on a Saturday morning and I think he is the same man but I am not very positive. He asked for my name first and I told him and he asked for Fanny Buss's clothes, and I told him she should come herself and I will give them to her and he told me she cannot come. I says, "if she cannot come I don't know you and I cannot give you her clothes." He said, "she sent me and here are the keys." He gave me three keys and I gave him her clothes, they were in a wicker basket and a satchel. I said, "where is Fanny?" And he says, "she is in No 5 Forsythe Street," and after he left my house with the clothes I went and inquired about Fanny Buss in 5 Forsythe Street and the people told me there was no such girl by that name there. I never received any letters from Fanny..

I cannot swear that the defendant is the man that I conversed with about Fanny Buss's clothes but I believe it is the same man.; he came within a day or two after she left for the clothes, the keys that he gave me belonged to me, I had given them to the girl while she was staying with me.

SADIE GROSS, sworn and examined.

I live at 75 Division Street and my husband is in the cloak making business, Fanny Buss worked for us for four weeks, she lived with Mrs. Gunsberg, she was learning the trade of cloak making, we paid her no wages but only gave her her board.

ABRAHAM PHILLIPS, sworn and examined.

I am an officer attached to the 4th District Police Court, I arrested the defendant on the 14th of January about three o'clock in the afternoon; the complainant came to the 57th Street Police Court and applied for a warrant and the warrant was handed to me for execution. I went to 214 Christie Street accompanied by the complainant, Officer Armstrong and Mr. Rosenthal, Judge Hogan's clerk, it was a coffee saloon

I saw the two defendants there, I saw Mrs. Grunwald sitting behind the counter in the forepart of the store. Officer Armstrong went in with me, the girl was out on the sidewalk, I told her to come in about a minute or two after I had been in the place. I said, "are you Mrs. Grunwald?" She said, "yes." "Is your husband John Grunwald in?" ".Yes, he is in the back room." I went in the back room and saw him and asked him, "is your name John Grunwald?" He said, "yes." I says, "I am an officer," and showed him my shield; "I have got a warrant for your arrest", taking the warrant out of my pocket; I told him it was on the complaint made by Fanny Buss for abduction." He says, "I don't know anything about it." I then went out to the store, taking him with me, and went to Mrs. Grunwald. I says, "I am an officer and I have a warrant for your arrest and als o for your husband." She said, "you need not arrest John, he is not my husband, my name is not Grunwald, it is Jeke." I said, "it does not make any difference about the name as long as you have been identified as the persons that is called for in the warrant. By that time the complainant came in; I asked her, "is this Mrs. Grunwald and is this John Grunwald", and she said yes. I said, "you had better get yourselves ready and lock up your place, you will have to come with me to the 57th Street Police Court." Mrs. Jeke then says "what is it for?" Says I, "this girl charges you with keeping her locked into this place and refusing to let her go." That girl says yes, you gave me some wine to drink and I laid unconscious on that lounge in the back room and John always kept the door locked and you watched the front." She says, "no such thing, you went out with a man and I objected" and he said he was going to buy a pair of shoes and in place of that you told me he took you to some house. I always told you I would not allow you to have any company come here or go out with any company"

That is all she did say. The girl spoke about her clothes and Rosenthal got an expressman outside and took the willow trunk and the satchel out, it was in the rear part of the store. Then I took them to the Police Court and they were held.

Mr. Davis: That is the case for the People.

The Case for the Defence.

LOUISA JEKE, sworn and examined.

I live 214 Christie Street and keep a restaurant and a coffee saloon, I have lived in New York forty years. I had this coffee saloon at 214 Christie Street one week before I engaged Miss Buss as a waitress, I have been locked up in the Tombs about two months, I did the cooking in that restaurant and waited on the table until I engaged this girl, I had a kitchen and a bed-room back of the restaurant. This girl came there on a Wednesday a couple of days before Christmas; she came in and said, "are you keeping a restaurant here", and I said Yes; she said, "I have been walking all day looking for employment, I was down in Allen Street in a coffee place and asked for work; she said, "the boss told me I had to work all night and I did not like to work at night, I have no money and I feel very hungry." I said, "I am the mother of five children, if you are hungry you can have something to eat, whatever you wish to have." She said, "I will take a cup of coffee and some cake"; I gave her coffee and a cake, she drank it and she said she felt better. She asked me if I did not need anybody to wait on the table. I was all alone and had to do the cooking. I said "yes, I could not pay her high wages, all I could pay her was two dollars a week and her board and a little washing. She agreed to stay for that and I engaged her. She said she did not have her clothes there, she only had a dress and was going to go to work. I said, "you had better go back to where your trunk or basket is and tell the lady where you are going." She said, "no, I don't want her to know where I am working, I owe her a little money." She stayed there until about eight o'clock that evening and came back the next day about nine o'clock in the morning and had a white apron and a black skirt and dress and commenced to work; She told me she had her trunk at Gunsberg's, I cannot pronounce the name, and asked me if I didn't know of any expressman to send there, she had no money to pay for it. I says no. I did not know any expressman but a boarder of mine that had no work just now because he was sick, that she should ask him if he would go for the trunk. He was in the back room sitting reading a paper; she went in and said, "Mr.Grunwald, will you go for my basket and valise, I have no money to pay the expressman but I will pay you when my week is around." He said, "I will go." She handed him over two or three keys and told him to unlock the door, that he would find her valise in the first room; Mr.Grunwald said, "if anybody in the house would see him he would be arrested for burglary, and so he would not go. She says, "well, if you go there and tell the woman, ask for her name and hand her over the keys and tell her to send my valise and basket but do not tell her where I am working. Grunwald said, "why should not I tell her?" She said, "I don't want her to know, I owe her a little money, I live at several places for a day or two." Granwald went and brought the things to the house; she slept with me in my bed in the bed-room. We shut up every night at eight o'clock.

We go to bed every night about nine o'clock. She says that you introduced her to a man and that you brought in wine to the back room and told her to drink it with the man, did you do that? I never had wine in my place. Did this man here take out a knife and threaten to kill her and stab her unless she submitted to a man? No sir. Did you ever shut the door and leave her with a man and tell her that he would not hurt her? No sir, there was no door between, there was a fancy store there before I rented the store and they took off the door and put it down in the cellar. Granwald slept in the kitchen on a lounge. She also charges that you on the following morning took away all her clothing and refused to allow her to have anything but a wrapper, is that true? No sir, I never seen a wrapper on the girl; when she came to my house she had a black skirt and a black Jersey; she had no more clothes but a blue dress and she kept the clothes in the bed-room in a basket, she had a German basket and a valise. I do not know what she had in the basket and I never asked her. She said that you introduced her to a second man and insisted upon her staying with him in the back room?

No sir, she never screamed in my house, she was always sitting in the front of the store and if anybody came in for lunch she came into the back kitchen and brought it out on a tray to the customers. She says further that a third man came there and you compelled her to stay with him? No sir.

She says that she was at this time in her own bed and the man came in and she was frightened and he struck her in the face ? No sir, it is no such thing, she slept in my own bed and I closed up at eight o'clock. She says furthermore you would not allow her to go out on the street and that she did not speak to any of those men. she was afraid? She was five days in my employment and a man came in and sat down at the table, he asked for a cup of coffee and cake, she came back in the kitchen and got it. She said the man wanted her to take a glass of soda and that she was going to have a cup of coffee; I gave it to her. She sat two hours talking with this young man. I said, "who is this young man you are talking to?" She said it was a young doctor which she got acquainted with when she was in the hospital, and he came there three or four days, one day after the other; he always stayed there two or three hours and talked to her and wrote notes across the table, notes from one to the other; the fourth day after he came there he asked her to go to the theater; she said she would; at half past six she dressed herself and said, "I am going with this young doctor student to the theater." I says. "Maggie, you must not go with everybody you don't know, it is not very nice"; she said, "I know this young doctor ever so long"; She went at at half past six that evening and came back at nine o'clock at night and she and this young doctor were quarreling when they came into the place. I says. "Maggie, what is the matter?" She said, "he did not take me to the theater, he took me in the Bowery to some ten cent dime museum and I did not like it and he told me to go with him in his furnished room, I found out he is a married man and has two children, he always told me it was his brother was married and not him." She was quarreling in the store with this young doctor and I told him to leave the store, that I did not want to have any quarrel there. I don't know the doctor's name nor where his place of business is. I asked the young doctor myself. "are you a married man?" And he said. "yes, and I have two children." I says to him, "you ought to be ashamed to take the girl out instead of you being home with your wife and children, you can leave the store, I do not wish your company." He did not come back again. The girl said to me, "I want to make cloaks"; she said this on the third day of January, I told her she could go if she wished to; she said she was going to see a doctor at 11 Pike Street and in the meantime if the young doctor should happen to come there again that I should send him there but that he should not tell the doctor in Pike Street that he knew he was going there for her -- only to tell the Doctor he passed by and came in accidentally. She came back at nine o'clock in the evening and said, "I have got a present." I says, "I don't want any present"; she handed me a little green napkin and a little bottle of cologne that she said she bought in Ridley's. While she stayed in my house she went out every morning for the paper and at dinner time went to the saloon to get a pint of beer every day and I and Mr. Grunwald and she drank a glass. I do not sell beer or wine in the restaurant. During the two weeks that she was living in the house I went to the butcher's every morning and to the grocer's to buy whatever I needed and I went to my sister's house four blocks away and would stay sometimes half an hour. There was nothing to prevent her leaving the house, she never told me she was going to leave. The next day the man came again at twelve o'clock, he said he had to go for his license, that he kept a saloon in Ninth Avenue and he would come back again to see her, he did come back at half past two and she put on her sacque and hat and walked out with the man and she did not come back again.

CROSS EXAMINED.

She came to my place

I think a couple of days before Christmas. I put an advertisement in the German Herald for a young lady to wait upon the table, I only paid for one day. the 24th of December.

I remember Officer Phillips coming to my house. I told the officer that Grunwald was my boarder, I did not tell him first he was my husband, I said my name was Mrs. Jeke and his name was John Grunwald. I have known John Grunwald three years, I am a widow; he has been living in the house with me a year and a half, I used to wash for him. Before I lived in Chrystie Street I lived at 705 East 12th Street I was the house-keeper there, he was a boarder there, I lived there about four months and had two rooms and before that I lived in 56th Street near Third Avenue. John Grunwald lived there a couple of months. While we lived in Chrystie Street he left the house every morning between six and seven and came back between six and seven at night. The complainant when I engaged her gave me the name of Maggie Siskind. John Grunwald has paid me four dollars a week for his board.

JOHNGRUNWALD, sworn and examined through the Interpreter:

I was born in Germany and am forty-five years old, I have been in this country thirteen years, I am a cooper by trade, I have always worked in wine houses as a cooper. I have been working in the city of New York thirteen years, I have never been arrested charged with any crime before this. I worked for Stern & Sons, wine merchants, 316 Vesey Street three years and four months, I was working at the time of my arrest for an Italian expressman Beome; I worked for that Italian seven months. This girl Fanny Buss says that after she had been in the house some little time she sent you up to Mrs. Gunsberg's after her basket and satchel and gave you three keys, tell us about that? I worked in the rear part of the house in the kitchen where I sleep, she came to me, I just had my supper, she said "at present I have no money to pay an expressman and would you be so kind as to get my things?" I said "yes, why not, if you pay me for it"; she wrote down on a piece of paper, Mrs. Gunsberg, Henry Street, I do not recollect the number, it was near Pike Street; she said, "you go there and fetch my trunk but if she asks you where I am engaged you should not tell her." She gave me three keys and a piece of paper and when I came to Mrs. Gunsberg she was scolding and was angry and said, "it is a shame she sends for her things before she pays her debt"; she gave me the trunk and asked me where I have to carry those things. Then the girl told me that I shall tell her that these things have to be carried uptown somewhere. I was a square basket and heavy and then there was a satchel beside. Then I thought that nobody will believe me that I could carry those things without a horse and wagon far uptown; then I said, "No. 5 Forsyth Street", I took that basket and satchel and carried it to No. 214 Chrystie Street. Mrs. Jeke's place. When I came back the girl said "did the woman ask you where I am employed and did you tell her uptown?" I said, "she asked me but if I would have told her uptown no one would believe that I would carry these uptown and I told her that she was employed in Forsythe Street. Then she said, "O, that woman will find me."

This girl charges that the first night that she slept there that you told her that you would stab her with a knife and kill her unless she would go into the room with that man the first night she claims she had intercourse with a man? That is a lie, I never in my life drew a knife against a woman or a man either. Did you of your own knowledge ever know during the two weeks that that girl was in that house that she had intercourse with any man on those premises? I never knew it. Was there any reason why that girl could not go out of that store if she wanted to at any time and go away if she felt so disposed? Every hour she could go away.

CROSS EXAMINED.

She gave you a paper did she, when you went up after her clothes? Yes, it was in German and I know how to read German; on the paper there was Mrs. Gunsberg, Henry Street; I do not recollect the number; she explained to me that it is near Pike Street in Henry Street. Did she put her own name on the paper? She signed her name, and the name seemed strange to me; then I said to her, "you say your name is Margaret Suskind and here you wrote down Fanny Buss." She said, "do you think that in America I tell every person my right name." I did not show to Mrs. Gunsberg the paper which Fanny Buss gave to me. I did not tell Mrs. Jeke that Fanny had given me the name Fanny Buss. The office of the expressman Beome is 215 Fifth Street. I was sick a few days before I was arrested and had stopped

LUCRETIA WILSON, sworn and examined.

I live 306 East 36th Street and have been married twenty-two years, I lived with my husband and have two children; my husband is a truckman. I have known Mrs. Jeke twenty-two years and as far as I know she is a respectable woman; she has been living out and has been a janitor of a house in 61st Street; it was too hard work and she gave it up and when she was not at work she lived with her married daughter who I believe is now dead. I have been at times to Mrs. Jeke's restaurant and I saw Fanny Buss there, I had a conversation with her three or four days after New Years, she made no complaint to me of having been assaulted in that place, I stayed there nearly all the afternoon sitting at the table talking; when a man would come in for something to eat she would get up and wait on the table. I asked her how she liked America and she said she did not like it because there was no money here; she said that she had lived with a rich man in Germany and he promised to marry her, she lived with him and he did not marry her and his wife came to make so much trouble she had to leave the country and come to America and she would like to get money enough to go back again; she said she found out he was a married man and she told him she would live with him but his wife made so much trouble she had to come to America and she would like to get money to go back again.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I am no relative of this woman but I have known her twenty-two years; I met her when she used to live in Eldridge Street, I got acquainted with her daughter first. I never had any business relations with her but I lived in the same house with her one week in Chrystie Street near Delancey about three blocks away from this restaurant. It was three days after New Years that I went into the place and had this conversation with the complainant; the female defendant was there and she heard our conversation. I asked the complainant how she liked America; she said she did not like America because there was no money here, she was only getting eight dollars a month and she wanted to get enough to go back to Germany, she said she lived with a rich man in Germany and he promised to marry her and he did not and his wife found it out and she came and made trouble and she came to America. Did she say that she lived with him after she discovered that he was married?

No. Did you get that impression from her? No sir.

I never heard anything against the character of Mrs. Jeke.

Did Mrs. Jeke when she heard that Fanny had been living with a man, tell her to go away and get out of that place, that she was not fit to live there? No, I did not hear that.

Did not she turn her right out after hearing that she had been living with a man this way? Not while I was there she did not put her out. Did not you advise her to put her out?

No sir. Did you keep away from there because she was there? No sir, I did not, I have had no occasion to go down there. Fanny Buss spoke broken German and broken English, I could understand some of what she said. Did she state whether she was learning the cloak business? No sir.

How long have you known the man Grunwald? Not long, I only seen him a couple of times.

LOUISA SIMON, sworn and examined.

I live at 110 Suffolk Street and have been in this city thirty-eight years, I am living with my husband and have five boys; I am the sister of Mrs. Jeke, I know that she has been employed and working out since she has been here, she has been cleaning and washing and was a janitor and house-keeper, she had a laundry, she has always been working since I have known her in this city, she has never been arrested or charged with the commission of crime before this.

I have known Mr. Grunwald about two years and a half, I have known that he has worked in this city but I could not tell you where; I know it from my boys, I know that he boarded with my sister. His reputation for peace and quietness is good, I never heard anything bad about him. My sister has been in the habit of visiting me and I have been at her restaurant 214 Chrystie Street while this girl Fanny Buss was there; I only visited it once while she was there; I was there in the evening after six o'clock and stayed about an hour. I saw customers come in there and she brought coffee from the kitchen out to the store. She said, "do you know what that man told me, I shall go with him to the theater and he told me he would give me three dollars, then I go with him to the theater." I saw the man sitting there, she was talking to him about half an hour; she told my sister that the man wanted her to go to the theater with him and I would not do it because my missus would not let me go." "I said, you give me three dollars for shoes and I will go with you, I will ask my missus if she will let me go."

ABRAHAM PHILLIPS recalled by Mr Davis.

I had a conversation with Mrs.Grunwald about the man defendant, that the reason she opened the coffee saloon was that John had not been doing any work for a year. I asked him then, "what do you work at?" He says, "I am a cooper."

I says, "there is plenty of work for coopers around breweries." He said, "I have not been able to do anything in thirteen months, I have been sick."

Mrs. Gross recalled by Mr.Davis.

I have already testified that Fanny Buss worked for me in making cloaks; she ceased coming to work for me on Thursday, the day before Christmas; at half past one o'clock she took dinner and then left, she worked the whole day for me on Wednesday, the 23rd of December.

FANNY BUSS, recalled by Mr.Davis.

Did you see that lady (pointing to Mrs.Wilson) in the saloon of Mrs.Grunwald? Yes, once; she did not talk with me, I did not tell her and Mrs.Grunwald that I lived with a man in Germany as his wife without being married to him. She went into the rear room with a man who was in the store and stayed there about half an hour. Did you live with any man in Germany before you came here? No, never. Did you ever tell that woman or Mrs.Jeke that this man was a rich man and that you lived with him till his wife found it out and made trouble about it and that you came over here? No, it is a lie.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty recommending John Grunwald to mercy.
