Her Uncle's wife &
some children slept in a bed in the same room.

she made any resistance

she must undoubtedly have waked up her

he then inserted his
penis in her rectum.
Of this there is no

 Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 8. 1882
 Indictment for grand larceny.

Maria Kerchner, sworn and examined.
 I live 125 1/2 Forsythe St. on the first floor, I had a watch and chain hanging on the wall in the rear room; the watch and chain was worth about seventy dollars. I saw the prisoners on the 10th of October between two and three o'clock. Hoffman came in to sell varnish and ~~the~~ ^{he} called the other one who was outside and he came in. Hoffman said his father had a patent for the varnish. I was at the window, it is a long room; the watch and chain were hanging near the window and the boy took me near the door to look at the varnish. I said I did not want any varnish and they both left the room very quickly. I missed the watch at 9 o'clock when my husband went to wind it; the prisoners left between two and three o'clock. I saw the watch and chain afterwards in a pawnbroker's shop in Avenue C I think. I do not remember the number, but the detective knows it; the detective came to my house with one of the boys about eight days afterwards. Hoffman said he did not do it. Cross examined. I saw the watch hanging upon the wall just before the boys came in. My husband was home; he cannot go out because he has the rheumatism. I went out that morning about ten o'clock and left my husband in the house. I saw the watch hung up when I came back. I saw it at dinner time twelve o'clock. I did not look to see it between twelve and two o'clock; nobody came in but those boys. I am sure about that. I was there all the time. I am 63 years old; the boys stood near to me. I can see very well without glasses. My husband was in the room when I was looking at the varnish. I did not buy any. James Barry, sworn and examined. I was a member of the police force on the 10th of October. I arrested the prisoners, but not both of them at the same time. I arrested Hoffman on the 26th of October in Second St. I believe it was in the afternoon as near as I remember. I arrested the other on the 24th of October, that was Will. I arrested Hoffman on another charge; he went with me to 1198

1197

Avenue B where he had pawned a watch and chain; it was at Frank's No 9 Avenue B. I found the watch and chain there and afterwards went there with Mrs. Kerchner, and she identified the watch and chain as being the property of her husband. I was present when Hoffman was examined before the Police Justice. I heard the answer "I pawned the watch and chain." After I came from the pawnbrokers I went with him to Mrs. Kerchner's; he could not give me the number of the house; we had some difficulty in finding it; he showed me the way ^{they} run after the watch was taken through the butcher's shop. I asked Hoffman when I arrested him what he did with the watch he got at Jersey St. He said he pawned it. I was in citizens clothes; the complainant fully identified him when I brought him to the house. He said a boy by the name of Bearman stole it and he was with him and that he admitted pawning it. Cross Examined I arrested Hoffman the same day that I took him to the house of the complainant. I saw him the day before that. I had no conversation with him about this identical watch and chain. I had a conversation with him about a previous case but not this - that is the watches that the other boys stole and were sentenced for two days previous. I did not say to him to tell me where those things were and I would arrest the other boy and not him. I knew nothing about the stealing of the watch in this case till I arrested him. I said to him if he knew anything about those boys who stole the watch in Sixth St. to tell me, that is, the two boys I arrested - the prisoner Will was implicated in that case. I told him "as long as you are not into it, you need not be afraid. He told me, Will, Kellar and Desler did it. That was the watch taken out of Sixth St. At the time I had this conversation I was in Avenue C. Then I asked him what he did with the watch he had taken out of Brythe St. He said, "I pawned it in Avenue B." I made no threats or promises to him.

Peter Will sworn. I had nothing to do with taking the watch from the apartments of the lady who was on the stand. I did not take it and know nothing about it. I was not in the house that day. I am 16 going on 17 years old. I live at 231 Brythe my mother is in Court. I have

William Edward Sawyer, of the City of New York, being duly sworn deposes and says that between the first day of January and the 30th day of March, A.D. 1880, he was induced to visit the gambling house of Alex. Horne, No. 32 West 29th St., in the City of New York, and that between the above dates he lost the net sum of ($6,000) six thousand dollars; that believing the games there pursued were swindling games, he ceased the practice of visiting the said Horne's place; that when he would have no cash in pocket deponent would play upon credit and at the end of the play would give the said Horne a check for the amount lost; that deponent stopped payment of the last check so given to said Horne by notifying the Chemical Natl Bank ^{of New York}, upon which the check had been drawn not to pay it as it was the result of a swindle; at the same time deponent notified said Horne that if said check, which was for the sum of five hundred dollars should be presented payment would be refused; that either payment was refused when presented or the check was never presented for payment (deponent cannot say which), as the amount of the same was never charged against deponent by the Chemical Bank aforesaid, where deponent had an account; that all the checks given to said Horre were drawn to the order of W. E. Sawyer, endorsed "W. E. Sawyer", sub-endorsed by Horre "H.", and deposited for collection (excepting the check above mentioned, about which deponent cannot say further than above said) in the Bank of the Metropolis, where they were stamped "B of M." and subsequently paid by the Chemical Bank upon which they were drawn, there canceled and returned to deponent as vouchers. That the dates and amounts of these checks, all of which, excepting the first which is hereto annexed, are in possession of the wife of deponent, are as follows: January 29th, 1880, $200.; January 31st, 1880, $400.; Feb. 4th, 1880, $500.; Feb. 7th, 1880, $500.; Feb. 9th, 1880, $500.; Feb. 10th, 1880, $500.; Feb. 24th, 1880, $100.; Feb. 27th, 1880, $500.; March 3rd, 1880, $500.; March 5th, 1880, $500.; making a total of ($4,200.) four thousand two hundred dollars; that the money lost at the place of said Horre was almost entirely lost at roulette; that upon every occasion that deponent visited said place, said Horre was present and that said Horre almost invariably superintended or operated the roulette wheel at which deponent lost his money, in person; that one of said Horre's assistants has three times since the first day of June, 1882, seen the wife of deponent, once or twice calling at her residence, 102 Waverly Place, in reference to said checks; and that deponent is informed and believes that said Horre has continued to run the said place as a gambling place until within the past two months.

1237

Mr. Allen — Dear Sir:

I send herewith affidavit in the Horne case. ^{E. J. F.} Mrs. Sawyer, who is about to bring civil suit against Horne, is unwilling to part with more than one of the checks, which please find herewith. The others will be used in the civil suit, and can be used as evidence, of course, in any prosecution, and will be at your call in any trial. As guardian of the children, for whom she seeks to recover from Horne, she feels that the greater portion of the checks should be given to the counsel bringing the civil suit, particularly as one check will be as good as more, with the privilege of using all in evidence, in any criminal suit or prosecution, whichever you call it.

^{or evidence}
As witnesses, there are:

1. Mrs. Sawyer, regarding efforts of Horne, through his assistant, to obtain possession of the checks, &c.
2. My affidavit.
3. The evidence of Robert Street who served notices originally in June and July last upon Horne.
4. Evidence of the books of the Bank of the Metropolis & also ^{known} the Chemical Bank.
5. Evidence from the Chemical Bank regarding my notice not to pay the last check given to Horne on the ground that it was obtained by fraud.
6. Evidence of the checks themselves.
7. Of cabmen who drove me to Horne's place and waited outside while I played.

1239

I am not well and some days am unable to do much more than sit up in my room, so please do not make any hurried arrangement for me to go before the Grand Jury but give me a day or two of leaving. Then if I can go the first day I will do so; if not, the matter can be postponed. I will understand.
 I have much to do, and nervous prostration and intense suffering from rheumatic joint prostration make it impossible for me to go out, unless in an ambulance, some times, and it wouldn't look very nice for me to go before the Grand Jury on a "stretcher." I will find me willing at any moment to rest in the car, but I cannot foresee that sudden attacks of vertigo that I have suffered from since May 1880. Generally, however, when I am over one day, I am all right the next, and there cannot be more than a day or two's delay.
 Truly yours,
 Wm. E. Sawyer.

Hon. John McKee - District Attorney -
Sir:

Mrs. Sawyer informs me with reference to the Horne gambling case that you desire to know more about the case, and that you yourself ordered suspension of service of the warrant of arrest after indictment had been found. I can only say that Mrs. Sawyer has abandoned all idea of recovering any of the money lost; that I would not take ~~over~~ one dollar from Horne; that the check in your possession is ample, with the other evidence, to convict Horne of keeping a gambling-house; that there are nine (9) other similar checks, similarly given, in possession of Mrs. Sawyer, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,200; that each check is of a different date from the others; that the checks were all drawn upon the Chemical Bank and paid by that bank and returned to me as vouchers; that they were all signed by me and duly honored, and stand irrefutable as evidence to convict Horne.

Respy.,
