The People
vs.
William Hoffman. { Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Martine.

Friday, February 7, 1890.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Thomas Harrigan sworn and examined, testified:

I live at 127 West Street and am a 'longshoreman, I work on Pier 9, North River, I know the defendant Hoffman about nine months and visited him at his house No. 22 Albany St. in this city on the 14th of January, I guess it must be about seven o'clock when I went there, I went there on a Monday and do not know whether it was the 13th or the 14th of January, I went there with a man named Murphy; when I got in there the woman who is now in court and Hoffman were there, I sent for two or three pints of beer and I laid off asleep on the chair, I may have laid there an hour and a half or two hours and the next thing I knew I happened to drop into the bed-room and fall asleep. After some time I felt somebody going down in my pocket and I gave a kind of a turn over and said no more, I thought I might be home in my own house; when I woke up in the morning about five o'clock I missed my pocket-book; the change I had in the other pocket was all right, I asked for my money and said I was robbed; this woman said she had been robbed too that their trunk had been burst and twenty-six dollars and some change taken out of his pocket. She asked me to send for a pint of beer, they had no money and I gave her ten cents. I had no conversation at all with Hoffman; I remained there until about half past nine or ten o'clock and met John Murphy at the corner of Albany Street and told him what happened to me. Murphy told me a coat had been taken from him, we went back to the premises of Hoffman and he was lying on the bed, we sent out for another pint of beer when Hoffman's wife asked me to, Murphy told me to keep my eye on Hoffman while he went off for an officer; the officer came up and I told him that Hoffman was after putting something like a white cloth underneath the bed and before the officer had time to take Hoffman he (the officer) took the money away from him. There was sixty-five dollars in the pocketbook, three ten dollar bills and one of them was a new one and six fives, three ones and one two dollar bill. I saw the money that was taken from Hoffman in the Police Station and they said it was seventy-five dollars.

Cross Examined.

I get paid once a week, I have been working on Pier 9 off and on for the last five or six years, I get paid off on Monday, I did not work the whole of the week, I worked nights sometimes and sometimes days. I get two dollars and a half a day, I was paid off that day about half past five. I did not see Murphy get any pay that day, I saw him first about two o'clock in West Street, I can't tell whether he had any money or not, I asked him to come and have a drink, I may have had about six or seven glasses of beer, we had about three or four pints of beer before we went into Hoffman's house, I may have had eight or nine glasses of beer before I went in there, I was not under the influence of liquor. I had money and paid for the drinks. I had sixty-six dollars that day and changed one dollar which left me sixty-five. I got paid twelve dollars on Pier 9. I do not remember what time it was that I fell asleep on the chair and I could not tell what time it was when I went into the bed-room, I awoke about four or half past in the morning, Hoffman and the woman was on the bed all the time, he was awake lying in bed with his clothes on him. I said I was robbed, where is my money? He says, "I haven't got your money." I said, "my money is in the house, it could not go no place." He looked around; inside it was bolted fast and I said, there is nobody could come in here." She says, "some thieves or robbers must have come in somewheres." Hoffman told me that the trunk was bursted and his keys taken out of his pocket and the key of the door gone and some things belonging to the house, a clock and a coat, I could not see whether the trunk was bursted or not, I saw the trunk open, I saw the keys on the chair when I got up; the woman said the clock was found. I went down stairs and met Murphy he told me what happened him, that he came out without a coat last night, Murphy went for the officer. When the police officer came in there and went over to Hoffman at the bed, did not Hoffman have that money in that wrapper in his hand when the policeman took it? He dived under the bed-tick and pulled it out because I told the Constable that he was after putting something under the bed, that I saw him put something underneath the bed-tick like a rag; the Constable asked him where the money was and he said he had no money. I saw the rag in the Constable's hand, I did not hear him say to the policeman that he had been robbed himself and that he saved the money which was in the bottom of the trunk where the thieves could not see it. I earned that sixty dollars working alongshore.

0298

John Murphy sworn.

I work along shore on Pier 9, North River and am acquainted with Thomas ^{Harrigan} ~~Hogan~~ for the last three years, I met him on the 14th of January about two o'clock in the afternoon and went with him to 22 Albany Street that evening about seven o'clock, I saw the defendant and his woman there, I left there about nine o'clock, I was put out without a coat, I was sitting on a chair and after having few drinks of beer I happened to fall asleep and was woke up by the defendant rummaging through my clothes, I caught his hand in my pants pocket and asked him what he meant; he says, "what brought you here?" I says. I did not come here for that purpose for you to do that with me, he pulled me off the chair and put me outside the door, I says, give me my coat, I had my coat off and he refused to give me the coat and he barked my jaw against the door, I went home that night without my coat and the next morning I brought Officer Cogan with me and I got my coat. In the morning I met Harrigan going down the stairs as I was going up and I spoke to him and we two went back to the house again, we sat down in the room for a little while, his wife got up and she demanded the price of a pint of beer and Harrigan gave it to her, this was about nine o'clock. Hoffman said that there was a pocketbook taken from his pocket and the keys of his box that contained some money when Harrigan complained of his own money being gone. We asked him who could take it and he said some one got in; the door was bolted and Harrigan showed me the way the door was bolted. I asked for my coat and I didn't get it, I went out of the house to bring in an officer leaving

0300

Harrigan in charge there, I told him to keep an eye on Hoffman and I came back to the house with an officer, Harrigan told the officer that his money was gone; while I was there Hoffman pulled something out of his pocket and put it under the bed-tick. The officer said, what is that you put under the bed-tick and Hoffman took the stocking out and put it in his pocket, afterward when I went to the Station House I saw that the pocketbook was taken out of the stocking, the officer had hold of him until he went to the Station House.

Cross Examined. I saw Hoffman take something from under the mattress and put it in his pocket, the policeman was in the room at the time and caught hold of him. I first met Harrigan at two o'clock in the afternoon opposite Pier 9, I had only a few pennies, Harrigan and I had five or six drinks on West Street, I was with him all the time until we went to Hoffman's house at seven o'clock that night, I did not see any money with Harrigan that day but saw money with him several times before this, I saw him get paid at Pier 9 that evening, I did not get paid because I did not work that week; Harrigan and I were drunk when we went into Hoffman's, Hoffman was not drunk, I don't know what time I went to sleep there, I left Harrigan sitting opposite me in a chair when I went to sleep and when I was awakened by Hoffman Harrigan was sitting in the same position, I caught Hoffman's hand in my pocket and when I said I did not come to the house for that purpose he put me out I went home a few minutes after nine and went back there about nine o'clock in the morning.

Richard J. Cogan sworn.

I am an officer attached to the second precinct police, I met John Murphy on the street on the morning of the 14th of January corner of Albany and Washington Streets and went with him to No. 22 Albany Street second floor back; I saw the defendant there, I was patrolling my post. I asked the defendant where is this man's money, meaning Harrigan. Hoffman was lying on the bed and the minute he saw Harrigan coming in behind me I saw him reach under the tick and he took out a stocking and put it in his pocket, there was a pocketbook inside of it. I asked him about Harrigan's money and he said he knew nothing about it; then his wife said that there was somebody in the room and broke open his trunk. I brought Hoffman, his wife and Murphy to the station house, I searched the defendant and found this stocking in his pocket; while I was going to the Station House Harrigan told me in the presence of the Defendant that he lost sixty-five dollars; when I opened the pocketbook I found there was seventy-five dollars in it. Harrigan described the money, he said there was three ten dollar bills and that one of them was brand new and when I looked I found that there was two ten dollar bills and one brand new. I had this stocking and money in Court two weeks ago but I did not bring it down to-day, it is in charge of the Property Clerk at Headquarters.

Cross Examined.

I saw the defendant take the stocking from under the mattress and put it in his pocket, Harrigan did not tell me that the Defendant put something between the mattresses. Harrigan and Murphy were together in the street when I met them; it is not a fact that the Defendant when charged with having stolen any money there that morning took the bundle from between the mattress and said that was his own money. that he had nobody's money, I did not search him until I got him to the Station House. The Sergeant asked the Complainant if he recognized the pocketbook and he said no, it was not his pocketbook; I found two pocket knives on the defendant.

0302

Mary Hoffman sworn and examined for the Defence, testified:

I live 22 Albany Street and know Harrigan; I saw Murphy in the house 22 Albany Street on the night of the 13th and the morning of the 14th of January, Harrigan and he came in at about eight o'clock that night, I had a couple of glasses of mixed ale, Harrigan sent me out for it, neither Harrigan nor Murphy were in the room when I went to bed, my bed is in the front room and there is another bed-room off the front room, I went to bed before they went away, I could not tell you what time I got up in the morning because the clock was gone from the mantel-piece, it was daylight, I spoke to my husband, when I got up I missed the clock and the trunk was opened, I told him that it was burst open, he examined the trunk and the money was gone; Harrigan and Murphy came into the house afterward, Harrigan said he lost some money and Hoffman said that he lost his money too, that the trunk was bursted and that the clock on the mantel-piece and his watch and a little fancy basket were gone, Harrigan made no reply to that but afterward he gave me ten cents to go out for some beer,

Hoffman said he had no money, that his pocketbook was gone, we had only a pint of mixed ale on the morning of the 4th, I remember Harrigan and Murphy coming in together that morning, Harrigan went out and came in with a policeman, I saw that Hoffman had his own money in his hand which was in the trunk that was not taken, Harrigan works alongshore, I know him in the old country five years ago, he used to visit our house at 22 Albany Street.

Cross Examined. I do not remember the month I was married to the Defendant. it was in cold weather after Christmas. I suppose I have to tell the truth, I am living with him twelve months and not married, I have not been living for the whole twelve months at 22 Albany Street but have lived in 65 and 71 Albany Street, Hoffman has worked alongshore, he has worked in a fish factory and has kept a lodging house, when I went to live with him he kept a boarding house at 71 Washington Street. He had that place about twelve months and then he said he would not keep a boarding house any more but would go to work, we lived at 22 Albany Street five months and since he gave up the boarding house he has not done any work, he has not worked for five months, I know he had money since he was in the fish market, he had a hundred dollars, we kept a man and wife as lodgers in 22 Albany Street, the wife is in Court; Hoffman never told me how much money he had.

William Hoffman sworn and examined.

I know Harrigan but I first saw Murphy on the 13th of January, they both came in between seven and eight o'clock on this night and Tom Harrigan sent out for beer, they stayed two hours in the house and we all drank the beer, Harrigan stayed in my house that night but Murphy did not, Murphy put himself down on the floor and I told him he could not sleep there, I picked him up off the floor and told him to go out and pushed him out of the door, I remember the time that Harrigan went into the bed-room, I told him there was a bed here and he could stay for the night, I went to sleep in my own room, I awoke in the morning and felt sick from the drinks I took, I asked my wife for a little drink and she got out of bed and put her clothes on and went to put her hand in my pocket to get money for the beer, I had a pocketbook in my pocket when I went to bed in which there was three dollars in silver and some small change; the pocketbook and the keys which were in my pocket were gone, my wife went to Tom Harrigan to ask him for money to get the beer and he gave it to her. I lost out of my trunk twenty-six dollars and a pocketbook, also a silver watch, a razor and a basket, the trunk was opened with a key, I had seventy-five dollars in the bottom of the trunk in a little pocketbook; I afterwards put the money I had in a pair of stockings; Harrigan, my wife and I drank the beer and I was lying in bed when Murphy came in afterward, Murphy went out and came back with a police officer, I was sitting on the bed when the officer came in, I had the money in my hand and the officer said right away, "what is that?" I said, "that is the money which I found in the trunk"; the policeman took it out of my hand, I showed Tom Harrigan the money. Before this Tom Harrigan said to me that he was robbed, I showed him the money which I took out of the trunk which was left and said to him, "here is some money left, they did not find all the money." I think that Murphy left his coat in the house the night before. I left my lodging house in Washington Street on the 22nd of August and sold everything for forty dollars and I had forty-six dollars beside, I worked in a fish factory for Mr. Bishop last summer. I did not go into the bed-room where Harrigan slept after he entered and don't know anything about the loss of his money.

0304

I know the denominations of the money which I had, I had two ten dollar bills, nine five dollar bills and five two dollar bills.

Cross Examined. I got forty dollars for the bedding that I sold of the lodging house, I did not have steady work from August until the time I was arrested, I worked perhaps about a month altogether, I helped to move furniture and to discharge vessels whenever I could get a job, sometimes I got a dollar and a half and two dollars a day, the rent of our rooms at 22 Albany St. was seven dollars a month. I first became acquainted with Harrigan about seven months ago, my wife met him in the street and brought him up to my house and introduced him to me as her countryman, he has often been at our house since then. I have only been doing odd jobs since I lived at 22 Albany Street, not steady work, I had other money beside the forty dollars which I received for the sale of goods in the lodging house.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree and the prisoner was remanded for sentence.
