ASSAULT, Ist Degree.

Vito Gabrielo

-----X
Hon. DeLancey Nicoll,
District Attorney.

13
I have examined the witnesses for the prosecution in the above case, through an interpreter, and what can be proven against the defendant is very wide of an assault in any degree. All the witnesses for the prosecution are relatives of the defendant, and Maria Spatola, the complainant, in whose rooms the alleged assault occurred, now swears that Gabrielo not only did not make a lunge at her with a knife, but that the tearing of her apron was purely accidental.

On the day named in the indictment, Gabrielo went to her rooms and asked her to loan him five cents with which to purchase beer. He was under the influence of liquor and boisterous; ~~and~~ ^{Her} child being ill she was anxious to get him away, and proceeded to eject him with the assistance of Filomela Spatola and Rocco Brummeti. A scuffle ensued during which Gabrielo, who was hit by the complainant with a piece of wood, fell to the floor, and in falling grabbed complainant's apron to save himself, and so tore it. The knife which was found upon the floor subsequent to the scuffle, cannot be brought home to the defendant, and Filomela Spatola declares it didn't belong to him, but was picked up in the room where the scuffle occurred. Three affidavits are filed herewith as to the defendant's character for peace and quietness; and I am of the opinion that a trial of the case would result in the immediate acquittal of the defendant, who has refused to plead even to assault in the third degree.

I therefore recommend that the indictment be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted.

I hereby testify that Anton Geträb, under arrest for larceny, is the son of poor, but very respect-table and Christianlike parents. I have known the prisoner for years past. As a pupil in the parochial school, he was always well behaved, never gave the slightest cause for com-

most attentive & one of the best behaved Sunday-school pupils.
In a word, I can testify to the

and deponent further says, that she has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Adolph Goldberg (alias Haskin) and Louis Sturm (both now here).

for the reasons following, to wit:

that at the hour of 7.15 o'clock A.M. said date. deponent locked and securely fastened the doors of her apartment on the 3^d floor of said premises. and went to the butcher leaving her apartment alone and all of said property therein. and when deponent returned after an absence of thirty minutes deponent found said door had been opened as aforesaid. and discovered that said
