I am an importer of and dealer in Leaf to-

Avenue in said City. The above named prisoner was in my employ as porter for about two years I had no cause whatever to complain, as he seemed to perform his duties honestly and conscientiously. The present charge is, as far as I know, the first one ever brought against him and, as far as I know, he has hitherto borne a good character.
After he had been committed by the Police Justice on the charge herein, he sent for my counsel and voluntarily admitted and confessed to him what disposition he had made of the property, for the larceny of which he was afterwards indicted. I was thereby enabled to recover said property though at considerable expense and cost to me. I believe that he sincerely repents his acts and presumes that this will be a warning to him and that he will hereafter endeavour to lead an honest life.

I further say, that this charge was brought & prosecuted by me for the purpose of ~~having~~ justice done and not for the purpose of regaining possession of my property.

I further say, that I am acquainted with the prisoner's family, which is a very respectable one, residing in Geneva.

I therefore pray, that he be mercifully dealt with by this Court.
