of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States to the amount and of the value of

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, that about the hour of 6 o'clock on the above date, the defendant came to deponent's place of business at No 74-

he informed deponent was good, requested deponent

Fogarty with having had concealed upon his person a unlawful weapon, known as a billy, in violation of section 410 of the Penal Code —

Mr Eccleston who at that time appeared, as the counsel of said Boyle demanded an Examination, and such Examination, at such request, was immediately proceeded with, the Complainant was cross Examined by the Counsel, and then the defendant was duly sworn by me and he testified in his own behalf, that after the direct Examination of said defendant,

Conducted by his Counsel, a further demand was made by the defendants Counsel for an adjournment, which was granted, and the defendant ordered to give $1500 - Bail for his appearance, such bond was immediately furnished by Frank Clark of No 236 East 97 Street.

The Examination was then set down for June 8th at 3 P.M. That on that day the defendant appeared, by Mr. Moses of the Law firm of Slane & Hummel and he requested that the defendant be held to answer, that he waives further Examination. Mr. John O. Mott, who appeared, in behalf of the people, objected to said proposition, and demanded that he has a right to cross examine the defendant, he having testified.

Counsel for the people ~~and for the~~ defendant offered to produce authorities by which to show that the defendant is obliged to testify, under Cross Examination, after he had given testimony in his own behalf.

Counsel for the defendants contended that he will show

fully allow to be used, a certain room, table, establishment and apparatus for gambling purposes, and for selling what are commonly called lottery policies. Deponent further says that, said room, table, establishment and apparatus so occupied, kept and used and allowed to be used by said Richard Hoe and Daniel Hoe, was situate on the south west corner of Fulton and Greenwich Streets, ^{and known} ^{fact} as Number 190 Greenwich Street, and at premises adjacent thereto and connected therewith, in the City of New York: that on the 18th day of November 1885 deponent visited the said premises and saw the said Daniel Hoe, and him if he had anything in the policy line for deponent; and the said Daniel Hoe replied that none of his writers had left. Deponent then and there said to the said Richard Hoe "Give me 21 - 39 - 53 one gig for $10." for which, deponent paid the said Richard Hoe the sum of ten cents. the said Richard Hoe took the ten cents and recorded the said numbers on a paper; but refused to give deponent a paper, saying, he did not know him well enough; but for deponent to keep track of his play.

Deponent further says that, he again visited the said premises on the 25th day of November 1885, and again saw Daniel Hoe and asked him if he had anything for him today. The said Daniel Hoe said, "No". Deponent then asked the said Daniel Hoe, "Can I go inside and see the slip." meaning, into the room kept and used for the selling of what are commonly called lottery policies. The said Daniel Hoe, said, "Certainly." Deponent then entered the said room and saw the said Richard Hoe, and saw the numbers purporting to be the drawn numbers in a lottery on a blackboard. Deponent examined the same, and then said to the said Richard Hoe, "Give me 21 - 39 - 53, one gig both sides for $10." for which, deponent paid the said Richard Hoe, the sum of ten cents; and Richard Hoe then handed deponent a pencil and a piece of paper, and told deponent to keep track of his play. Deponent then and there took the paper from the said Richard Hoe, and wrote down the play in the said Richard Hoe's presence.

Deponent further says that, on the 2nd day of December 1885, he again visited the said premises, and then and there said to the said Richard Hoe, "Give me 27 - 54 - 69 one gig both sides for five dollars." for which deponent paid the said Richard Hoe the sum of five cents, and the said Richard Hoe then and there handed to deponent a piece of paper and pencil and directed deponent to keep track of deponent's play, The said Richard Hoe having recorded the same upon a piece of paper or manifold paper for recording lottery-policies. Deponent then and there saw in said room and premises, blackboards, papers, a apparatus and other establishment for gambling purposes, and deponent is informed and verily believes from a recent visit to said premises that, the said Richard Hoe and Daniel Hoe now have in their possession at, in and upon said premises, situate and known as aforesaid, divers and sundry papers, tickets, lottery tickets, what are commonly called lottery-policies, books establishment and apparatus for gambling purposes and for selling and recording lottery-policies.

John Ohmer, Indicted for Assault, in the First Degree.

Before Hon. Rufus B.
Cowing, and a Jury.

Tried June 25th, 1886.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

Assistant District Attorney Davis, for the People;
Mr. J. E. McIntyre, for the defence.

-----000-----

Simeon L. Ferfon, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at number 263 Ninth Avenue, and was a police officer attached to the 31st Precinct. On the 15th of May, 1886, between 80th, and 81st Streets, at about a quarter to 8 o'clock in the evening, he was assaulted. He ordered a crowd away from the corner of 81st Street, and there were five or six men there. They walked towards the corner of 81st street and something was thrown that struck him upon the head. He became unconscious. He became conscious soon afterwards and rapped for assistance. He was taken to the 99th Street Hospital and lay there three weeks; then he was taken to the Harlem Police Court to testify against the defendant. It was a rainy night and he had his rubber coat on; it was quite dark. He did not see the defendant in the crowd that assaulted him.

-----000-----

SARAH HART, being duly sworn, testified that she lived on the Western Boulevard, between 80th, and 81st streets and was a housekeeper. She saw the assault made upon the officer. The assault was made with beer kegs by John and James Brady. John Brady struck the officer first and threw him in the gutter and as he lay there, he kicked him and when he got on his feet again he threw an ash barrel on his face, and John Brady went behind the butcher's wagon to make his escape; then his brother threw the large beer keg.

-----000-----

Under cross examination she said that she did not see the defendant there, and was positive he did not throw anything at the officer.

-----000-----

LILLY PERRY, being duly sworn, testified that she lived in 81st street, between Riverside Drive and 11th Avenue. She saw John Ohmer, the defendant, in her house in the hall, between 7, and 8 o'clock. He said, "For God's sake, let me in, for I nearly murdered a policeman." That is all he said and ran out again.

-----000-----

EDWARD LESLIE, being duly sworn, testified that he lived on the south side of 77th Street, between the Boulevard, and Tenth Avenue. He saw the defendant throw a keg at the officer and saw Brady strike the officer with his hand.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, he said that he ^{was} passing the corner, going home from work.

-----000-----

Officer HERMAN WAGNER, of the 31st Precinct, being duly sworn, testified that he went to the defendant's home and left word that he wanted to see him at the station house, that he came and delivered himself up. He, the witness, asked Ohmer if he was at the corner on the night of the assault, and he said that he was. He asked Ohmer if he struck the officer with the keg, and he said no.

-----000-----

For the defence, JOHANNA LANG, being duly sworn, testified that she lived at 171st East 71st Street, and that she saw the police officer trying to keep some men away with his club, and she saw some men throwing ash barrels at him; then some of the men went out into the street and threw stones at the officer and another man had a beer keg and he threw it at the officer.

The prisoner was not the man who threw the beer keg.

-----000-----

For the defence, John Ohmer, being duly sworn, testified that he lived in 71st street, and 11th Avenue, and was a driver of a brick cart. After receiving his pay on the evening in question, which was Saturday evening, he met John Brady, and George Hogan, and Edward Leslie; they had beer; then they proposed to go to Mr. Hartzs at 81st Street and the Boulevard for a drink. The officer came across the street and told them to move on; and John Brady said "Who the hell put you on the force?" The officer said: "Why don't you get some one to put you on the force?"

and John Brady hit him in the face, and he fell in the gutter and as the officer got up, he, the defendant, went on about his business. He went down to the Riverside Drive and sat on the wall for a few minutes, and as he came back, he met Mrs. and Miss Heimberger, at Eleventh Avenue, and they had a conversation. The Heimbergers said that the Brady boys were fighting. He saw John and William Brady coming across the Avenue. William Brady said, "Yellow, come over here; help me get Johnnie into the house." His nickname among the boys there was "Yellow", on account of his complexion.

When they got John Brady into the house, William Brady looked at a revolver and said: "I took that from the officer." He, the defendant, said, "you are a fine fellow."

Just then two officers walked into the house and he, the defendant, walked out. He did not see the little girl, Lilly Perry, except in the Brady's rooms; he did not meet her in the hallway nor say what she testified he did.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, he testified that he saw the beginning of the trouble, but did not know that the officer had been hurt seriously.

John Brady knocked the policeman down. He did not stop to see what happened after that.

-----000-----

MAGGIE HEIMBERGER, being duly sworn, testified that she met the defendant at 11th Avenue, on the night in question, at 8 o'clock in the evening and talked with him.

That he resides in the 64 East 10th Street in the County of New York and State of New York, and is 28 years of age, and is an expert, appointed by JOSIAH K. BROWN, New York State Dairy Commissioner; That on the 15th day of May, 1886, in the store occupied by him, No. 129 West street, in the City of New York, in the County of New York and State of New York, one William E. Briggs, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats, or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy; that the said William E. Briggs offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, 12 pounds as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils, not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter, a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter.

That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand; that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.

Deponent further says that on said 15th day of May, 1886, he went to the said store of said Briggs in said City and County, and told said Briggs that he wanted to buy some butter; that said Briggs showed deponent 12 pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to deponent for sale, and sold the same to deponent; that he so sold to deponent 12 pounds thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ 0.10; that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Briggs at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not Butter, the product of the Dairy; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said Briggs to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on May 15th, 1886, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to Joseph H. Gruber, a chemist of the city of New York, N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said William E. Briggs and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.
