him by the arm and I asked Smith to take his other arm and I felt something up his wrist. Smith got a hold of him by one arm and I held the other and we took a cleaver from him and I asked Mrs. Pile to give me a stick and I ran after him with the stick and followed him to the car track and struck him twice on the shoulder. My hand was in a sling and after that I went to the hospital to have it redressed and I asked Lewis Smith and "John" to go with me and they did. When I came back Mrs. Pile told me that Hart ran after Mr. Sherry and I heard they had some words. I did not see anything of what occurred between them. I know they were going to fight and he wanted to go out with me to give me a hold. I know Hart wanted to fight Mr. Sherry. He threatened to beat Mr. Sherry. Hart did

as follows:

I reside at No. 800 - 11th Avenue and am a married woman and keep house. We kept a saloon in our place and McSherry was in there. He was on 10th Avenue and 56th Street. He was there, McSherry and Bensenkamp came in and Hart came in. They commenced to want to fight. Hart wanted to fight and they went out on the sidewalk. After that Hart came in with a chopper and a man took a chopper from him. I did not hear what Hart said to McSherry, because I was so excited. He said (Hart) that he could lick anybody in the house and Gustav told him to go out on the sidewalk. McSherry didn't go out until after that. He went out after them and after that Hart came in and a man took a chopper from him and chased him out. I didn't see Hart fight.

Honsenkamp and Smith and Hudsoniger & my mother were there.
McSherry and Honsenkamp were us to have a drink and we did and he asked McSherry to have a drink and he said "yes" and he did. Then Hart said he could fight anybody in the place and Honsenkamp said he couldn't fight him and they began to fight and went into the street and licked him in the street. After that Hart came in again and they took a chopper from him and the policeman came there and chased them and McSherry had gone down the Avenue. Honsenkamp came to the house again and McSherry came back again and Hart came back in a quarter of an hour with a chopper.

I saw he had something in his pocket and I told the others he had something in his pocket and they told him to take it out and he wouldn't and then they pulled it out of his pocket.
Honsenkamp and the others did. McSherry

Peter Brady, an witness for 312 Ryle being duly sworn testified as follows:

I reside at No. 443 West 56th Street and am a driver. On the 22nd of February it was McCarthy who hit Hart first and they rolled in the gutter. McCarthy hit him first and then McCarthy slipped and fell against the lamp post and fractured his skull. There was a slide over a piece of flag there and the flag was up. It was not the force of the blow that knocked him down; he slipped. Hart was coming up where he was struck.

: Before Hon. Fred: erick Smyth and
: a Jury.

Indictment filed August 16th 1889.
Indicted for Burglary in the third degree.

New York, September 3rd 1889.

APPEARANCES: For the People: Assistant District Attorney, James Fitzgerald.

For the Defendant Frank Oliver..

CHARLES DRESSLER, a witness for the People sworn, testified:

I live at present in Rahway N. J. On the 14th of June last I lived at No. 256 West 15th Street in this City. My premises consisted of three rooms on the 3rd floor of that house. On the 14th of June my wife and children occupied these rooms, and I had in them two gold watches, a chain, a suit of clothes and a pair of trousers. I left my house about a quarter of seven on the morning of the 14th of June, and when I left it I unlocked the door and put the key in my pocket.
I went to my work in 14th Street and at one o'clock in the afternoon I came home and found the lock on my door broken and the door pushed in. I missed the articles which I have described. These articles were worth about 75 or eighty dollars.

Officer Casey showed me the articles and I identified them.

JOHN CAREY.

I am an officer of police attached to the 16th Precinct. I know the premises No. 256 West 15th Street. They are in the 16th ward of this City. I know the defendant Edward Herman now before the bar. The Station House was notified of this burglary in Mr. Dressers house and I went over to investigate. I examined the doors and the locks carefully and found that the door had been pushed in by some force. I found out from the complainant what property he had lost and I went to search for it. This defendant was arrested by another officer about the 22nd of July, and I saw him in the station house. There were some other persons arrested for this burglary. I asked this defendant if he ~~believed~~ others had committed this burglary in 15th Street, and he said that Magee put his foot against the side of the hallway, and pushed the door in with his back. I asked him where the goods were that were stolen and he told me that they were pawned in 9th Ave.. I went there and found the suit of clothes which the complainant identified. The prisoner told me that the gold watch was pawned at 112 West 31st Street for $20 and I went there and got it. I showed the watch to the complainant and he identified it. The chains were got on 3rd av. between 42nd and 43rd Streets, and they were identified by the complainant. The prisoner told me that he stayed outside while the other two boys went into the shop. They told him to stay outside and watch Cross-examination.

Q. Did you tell this boy you would save him from State Prison if he would tell you the truth? A. I told him it would be better for him to tell the truth; that he had better tell me where the goods were, and that if the goods were returned to the owner it would be much easier for him.

By the Court:

Q. Whatever he said in reference to this transaction was said to you fairly and without any threats by or from you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Or by anyone else? A. Yes sir.

NO WITNESSES WERE CALLED FOR THE DEFENCE.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of Burglary in the third degree, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court:

That on the 3^d of August, 1889, at about half past ten o'clock in the evening, after I had been sitting with John Weinstein for several hours on a truck belonging to defendant's boss, the defendant came and sat down on the same truck right by my side. After having been sitting there for about a quarter of an hour without saying anything to me or to John Weinstein, but constantly mumbling to himself, the defendant said: "Get away from here!" Both Weinstein and myself at once got up and started to go away, I saying: "I am doing no harm to your truck, I would not hurt it, in sitting on your truck!" When I said this, the defendant struck me in the face, and on the breast and threw me to the ground. My friend Weinstein attempted to separate us. When I fell the defendant had hold of me by the neck. He struck me, while I was lying on the ground. A crowd was gathering around, taking sides against the defendant. This caused him to get up and run into the saloon at No. 448 West 40th Street. I live in said house with my parents. About three minutes afterwards and while I was trying to clean my clothes, the defendant came out of the said saloon, rushed at, gave me a blow at the hind head, threw me into the mud gutter, and while I was lying there with my face downwards, he put one hand upon my hind head and with the other he stabbed me ^{twice} in the back with a knife. The defendant did not look for anything on the side walk, when he came out of the saloon, but he came straight forward upon me. Before he came out, I heard him say in the saloon, that he would kill me. The door of the saloon was not closed at the time; it had merely a summer shutter. When I was lifted up by party's unknown.

0936

0937

to me, the defendant's daughter struck me in the face and halloed to her mother, she should get a police man and have me arrested. I was carried to my parents room, where they washed my wounds, and when they saw that they could not stop the flow of blood from my wounds, they took me to Roosevelt Hospital, where my wounds were dressed. I did not strike the defendant in the face. When he was in the Police Court on the next day, he had no wound or bruise on his body. After he had stabbed me, I said: "Oh, I am stabbed!" and thereupon the defendant ran away. I did not see the knife, except when he held my head from behind, I, holding my head towards the right side, saw about two inches of a blade in defendant's hand, when he had lifted his arm to stab me. I am 17 1/2 years old, and until last spring I worked for the last four years previous thereto factory in 506 to 520 West 44th

To The Hon Judge Cowan

Dear Sir

I wish to state that I have known for several years the young man Alfred Howard. I am indeed surprised to learn that he has got into trouble as I always knew him to be honest and industrious. He worked for two years in the shop of the late J. P. Pascall Musical Instrument Maker, of which I was foreman and during that time I found him to be reliable and trustworthy. I know if Mr. Pascall was alive he would readily testify in his behalf as he and the boy's father when alive were freemasons and closely associated The family are very respectful and feel this disgrace keenly
