Statement.

The ~~left~~ ^{burglary} Magnus has been a Bookkeeper for W. E. Allis at No Hanover (No 2 East 15th St. N.Y. for about 1 1/2 years. As such Bookkeeper and Cashier he has had in his custody his Employers funds.

On the evening of the day of August 1

1881

It was discovered that he had absconded for funds unknown. A detective was employed who reported that he had gone North from Central Dept. ~~partly~~ to Canada. Upon examination it was found that he had and kept his books properly written up for several weeks and that he had taken from the Money drawer and from the Safe his Employer's money in a sum not less than $400.

The combination for opening the Safe which was in his charge could not be found, which caused a delay in opening the Maginnis gave no notice

Mr. Rollins, Dist. Atty. &c.

This case is a proper one to be heard before the Grand Jury in the first in-not be arrested, and so permit a hearing before a Magistrate.

Mr. J. H. Stoddard
Feas.

It is useless for me to conceal any longer the fact that I have yielded to speculation and appropriated funds to a large amount belonging to my friend. It was my intention to replace everything if I had only been successful but fortune was adverse to me. I commenced to embezzle about two years ago and have since been replacing everything. It would be useless for me to attempt to return in the purpose of regaining anything as I am now poorer & destitute and have nothing in the world with the exception of about fifty dollars 0485

I know it is rather impudent on my part to make conditions but I still am not altogether so far lost as to have no regard for the feelings of my dear Parents, who should they discover my crime would not ~~imagine~~ surmount the shock and the rest of my family particularly my brothers whose expectations & future prospects would forever be blasted. Out of regard for them then I would call your attention to the fact that there is still a balance due me from my brothers which I have not disturbed and which I will turn over to you upon the condition that you will not disclose my crime to my father or give it any publicity whatever. If this is satisfactory to you a personal in the Herald one, the signature of X.X.Z. will inform you of his name and also give you an order for everything he needs for my ap.

0486

As I have always carried my ap under a third parties name and as I am not personally known to the trader you would not be able to ascertain who he is without my assistance

My hope you will find correct the $500 from the Treasury can be had by a bond of indemnity and regarding the $1000 from Mrs. I can positively state that I know nothing about it whatever and never need it.

I have left my almost permission to begin life under a new name and should I ever be able to return you any thing of what I have taken 0487 you can depend upon if I will do so, I shall never have to do it.

Again I implore you not to make my crime public for my parents sake and if they are not told about it I know they can reconcile themselves to my absence for other reasons.

If it were not for my family I would have remained in N.Y. to take my just punishment but as this could have only been meted out to me thro' the courts, the publicity would have killed them.

Now will I hope be generous and not discover it to the world as you gain nothing by it and only render me more miserable than what I am which God knows is bad enough.

Resp. Yours

Sir, I should be much obliged if you, would read the following statement calmly and dispassionately.

The other day I was asked about certain subscriptions (N.Y. City) for 1879.80. the same being entered up as paid whereas no entry of their receipt was on the Cash book.

I wish to make this as clear as possible & therefore I must say that I have received those monies and not turned them in. In addition you will see that by adding the total amount of N.Y. City receipts for 1880.81 to the number of orders left on hand now it will make a deficiency of $175. I enclose a list of the names of those parties who have paid but whose subscription has not been turned in by me.

Now I wish to explain this state of affairs. I have not and have not had the remotest intention of robbing you of this amount, but as the orders were

Mr. S. Ranph, M.D. being sworn, says: I have made an Autopsy on the body of John Mc Cabe at St. Vincent's Hospital Sunday, August 21st, 1881.
 Rigor mortis well marked. No mark of violence visible except a small incised wound in left Hypochondrium, which was closed by two stitches. Said wound was perpendicular and about two inches long.
 Was informed by Dr. Luby that originally the length of the wound was only about one inch and that it was found necessary to enlarge the wound with a view to control the existing hemorrhage. After opening the abdomen the wound was found to have penetrated the abdominal wall, without, however, injuring the intestines. About eight ounces of venous blood, which had coagled from the wound, was found in the abdomen. There existed localized Peritonitis in the vicinity of the stab. Liver and Kidneys were found fatty.
 Heart a little flabby, but otherwise normal.
 Old pleuritic adhesions were found on right side.
 Lungs and Brain - normal. From the Autopsy and the history of the case as observed by the Hospital Surgeon I am of opinion that death was caused by Exhaustion due to the stabwound and augmented by Alcoholism.

TESTIMONY.

James Hillard being sworn says: I live at 458 Franklin St. Know deceased for about 4 years. Know his wife. Never saw deceased intoxicated. Did not know whether they lived peaceably together. Saw no stabbing. Was sitting on a truck in front of his residence 601 Washington St. A few minutes after Mrs. McCabe came up and said to deceased: "You are a fine son of a bitch to leave your companion with a pair of black eyes". She then made a thrust at his belly with something in her hand. The wound existed, but not deep. He was not in liquor. Saw no blood. I then left. Heard next day that deceased was in the Hospital. Recognized the prisoner as the person who made the thrust at deceased and as Mrs. McCabe.

Lafayette Broadhead being sworn says: I live at 106 Christopher St. Know deceased by sight. Work at 607 Washington St. Only know him for one day. At 3 P. M. Aug. 15th while in his office heard screams of murder. Looking out saw Mrs. Mc Cabe's head out of the window and calling: "Johnny, Johnny, come up here". Did not go up but sat opposite her house. Presently a man named Gibson went upstairs. He brought Mc Cabe downstairs, who then washed himself. His head was bloody. Again saw him again at about 5 P. M. sitting on a truck with Mr. Killard. Saw Mrs. Mc Cabe with some steel instrument in her hand go up to him and make a plunge at him. He said something, but what I cannot say. She was excited. Mc Cabe opened his shirt. He then walked on a few houses when he showed it to some men. Think Mc Cabe was sober, while Mrs. Mc Cabe seemed under influence of drink. Subsequently heard that Mc Cabe had fallen and fainted.
