Indictment filed August 19th, 1892.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

New York, September 7, 1892.

APPEARANCES.

For the People,
Assistant District Attorney Gaetano T. Bedford.

For the Defendant,
Mr Hugh Coleman.

MARX SPIGEL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 247 Fifth Avenue. On the 13th day of August I was in a jewelry shop at No. 4 Doyer Street and fell asleep on a lounge. This woman came in and took my watch out of my vest pocket. I woke up at once and found her with the watch. I asked her what she was doing, and she says nothing. I says "You took the watch off of me. You ought to give it back to me." She says "You son of a bitch, I didn't steal anything off you." At that time she had the watch in her hand. I made a grab for the watch and she ran out. I followed her into another house left her there and went and got a policeman. I brought the policeman back and had her arrested. The watch was worth $25. I am positive that this is the woman who took my watch.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I am a cook in the family of Mr J. B. Higgins at No. 247 Fifth Avenue. It was three o'clock in the afternoon when I went to sleep in this jewelry store. Mr Higgins was away in the country at that time, and I had no work to do. I went into this jewelry store to see a friend, and he asked me to take charge of the store for him; while he was out I fell asleep on the sofa. I followed the woman when she ran out of the store. I am certain this is the same woman who took my pin.

J O H N F. M I T C H E L L, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the Sixth Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the 13th day of August in a room on the first floor of No. 4 Dayer Street. I told her that this man accused her of stealing his watch and she said she did not take it. The stationhouse is four blocks from No. 4 Dayer Street. I had no trouble in finding or arresting the woman.

K A T E M A C K E T T, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am nineteen years of age. I live with my mother. I have heard the story told by the complainant; I did not steal his watch and never saw the man before. The first I knew of this matter was when the complainant came into my room with an officer and made the charge against me. I had been in that room for some hours before that, and had not been out of it. I was not in that jewelry store on that day. I have never been arrested before.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

My right arm is paralyzed. I went to No. 4 Doyers~~St~~ Street in company with some other girls. I did not know they were bringing me to a house frequented by Chinamen. They did not tell me for what purpose they were bringing me there. I did not know that it was a house of prostitution. I swear positively that I never saw the complainant until he came into the room and made this charge against me. I had never been in that house previous to that day. I do not know who took the complainant's watch.

M A R gust ^{Hackett} ~~W. H. H. D.~~, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

The defendant is my daughter. I have been married twice. Her character for honesty is good. She is very liable to be led away by other people. I have heard a great many people say that she was honest before she got into this trouble; they were neighbors of ours. I have never heard anything against the character of the girl. One of her arms has been paralyzed for some time.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the court.

Statement of complainant.

Jacob J. Klauss, complainant.

I got a card from Mr Buehler that I should come out to see him as soon as possible. He lives in 162nd street, Morrisinia. I then went there on the 4th day of August, 1892, and attended to my business with this Mr Buehler and I then went to Frank Steins place in Elton Avenue. He keeps a saloon and is a friend of mine for six years past. I went to his place at about a quarter before six in the evening.
I then said to Sten, Frank give me a glass of beer and I asked him to have something and he said he would take a beer and he then took two empty glasses and filled them up with beer and placed them upon the counter and then the defendant came in. We did not drink any beer. The beer was still in the glasses. When the defendant came in he said Mr Stein give me a glass of beer and as he said this he commenced to talk to me. He had not drank his beer when he started to talk to me.
He said to me in German: So, I have looked for you. You just come right to me. He also said to me: You have spoken about me to Herman, Arkom and Co about their patent and I said No I did not say anything to Herman, Arkom and Co it is not true.

The defendant said this to me because he had a patent similar to that of Herman Arkom and Co but was prevented from using it.

The defendant then said in German You are a dirty dog, a son of a bitch, and other vile and filthy epithets. Then I said to him: Take care of what you are speaking, if I have laid anything in your way you can seek me out as I am a man that can always be found. The defendant then said to me You have also said something to Bernhard, Ullman and ~~Mr~~ of Grand Street New York. The defendant also said that this man had seen him yesterday and told him that I said that he (the defendant) had stolen an apparatus. I then said It is not true. The defendant said No it is true and you have said this. I said No it is not true I know who said it and if I want to I can tell you who said it but he said No you did it and if you say you did not do it you are a liar and he then said to me If you are not quiet I will throw a glass in your face. I then said to him Take care do not do this and he said What? and took two steps backwards and threw a beer glass full of beer at me. The glass struck me in the forehead and broke into many pieces

My forehead and head was all cut and bruised. There were three holes, two in my forehead and one in my head. After he threw this glass and as it struck me I became unconscious. I was sick in bed for three days and it took my head fully three weeks to heal.
