Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Julius D. Engelhardt

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse Julius T. F. Smith of the Prison of Danzig, committed as follows:

Resolved to wit: on the twenty fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty five, and for a long time prior thereto, the Commissioners of Police of the City of New York were the head of the Police Department of the said City of New York and constituted the Board of Police of the said City, and as such Board of Police possessed full and exclusive power and authority to appoint all members of the police force of the said City. And on the said twenty fourth day of March, in the year aforesaid, the said Julius D. Richmond, late of the City and County of New York aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did duly present to the said Commissioners of Police, a certain petition in writing wherein the said Julius D. Richmond, asking an appointment as Patrolman in

The said Police Force, whereupon, according to the rules, orders and regulations of the said Board of Police in that behalf wherefore duly made and adopted according to law, and then and there in full force and effect, it became and was necessary that the said John D. O'Donnell should make and subscribe a certain statement under oath concerning his lawful eligibility and fitness to become and be appointed as a patrolman in the said Police Force, in order that the said Commissioners of Police, as being the Board of Police as aforesaid, might know whether they should and ought to appoint the said John D. O'Donnell as such patrolman.

And the said John D. O'Donnell, well knowing the premises, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, personally came and appeared before one William H. Hays Esquire, then and there being the Chief Clerk of the said Police Department, and then and there produced and exhibited to the said William H. Hays Esquire, Chief Clerk as aforesaid, a certain statement in writing of him the said John D. O'Donnell, the same being then and there duly signed and subscribed by the said John D. Fitzgerald in his own proper handwriting, and then and there containing amongst other things the ~~statement~~ allegation in substance and to the effect following, that is to say That he the said John D. Fitzgerald was born in the City of New York on the twentieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty six.

And the said John D. Fitzgerald did then and there further produce and exhibit to the said William D. Fiske Esquire, Chief Clerk as aforesaid, a certain affidavit in writing of him the said John D. Fitzgerald, the same being then and there likewise duly signed and subscribed by the said John D. Fitzgerald, and which said affidavit in writing then and there contained certain matters and allegations of and concerning the ~~statement~~ allegation as as aforesaid contained in the statement aforesaid.

And the said John D. Fitzgerald was then and there, to wit: on the said twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, at the City and County deposed, in due form of law sworn, and did take his personal oath, by and before the said William St. John Esquire, as as deposed being then and there the Chief Clerk of the said Police Department, and as such Chief Clerk then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer an oath to the said John D.

Fitzpatrick in that behalf touching and concerning the truth of the matters contained in his said affidavit in writing.

And the said John D. Fitzpatrick being so sworn as deposed, then and there, to wit: on the day and in the year deposed, at the City and County of New York, upon his oath deposed, in and by his said affidavit in writing before the said William St. John Esquire, as being such Chief Clerk as deposed (the age of him the said John D. Fitzpatrick being then and there a material matter in the proceedings concerning the application of the said John D. Fitzpatrick for such appointment as deposed) solemnly, sincerely, faithfully, and truly and lawfully, did solemnly swear, depose and say, in substance and to the effect following that is to say:

I (himself the said John D. Fitzpatrick thereby meaning) wrote the answers and signed the above statement (the said statement, as deposed by the said John D. Fitzpatrick then and There produced and exhibited to the said William St. John Esquire, Chief Clerk as aforesaid, the said meaning (in the said) (the said John D. P. Smith's, the said meaning) own hand, and the same (the said meaning) the said last mentioned statement) is true to the best of my knowledge and belief (the knowledge and belief of the said John D. P. Smith the said meaning).

Whereas in truth and in fact the said statement as aforesaid by the said John D. P. Smith then and there produced and exhibited to the said William St. John Esquire, Chief Clerk as aforesaid, was not true to the best of the knowledge and belief of the said John D. P. Smith, as the said John D. P. Smith then and there well knew;

And whereas in truth and in fact it was not true to the best of the knowledge and belief of the said John D. P. Smith, as alleged in the said statement, in substance and effect, that the said John D. P. Smith was born in the said City of New York on the seventh day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and July six, as the said John D. Aldenith, then and there to wit: at the time of taking the said oath and making the said affidavit in writing, well knew.

And as the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said John D. Aldenith, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, corruptly, unlawfully and knowingly did commit, willful and corrupt perjury; against the laws of the State in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Thomas Byrnes, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am Chief of the Detective Bureau of the City and County of New-York. On or about January 25', 1878, one ~~Charles~~^{Julius} Goldsmith, then living at No. 334 East 9' street, in said City, by occupation a butcher, made an application for appointment to service as policeman in the Police Department of the City and County of New-York. At that time it became necessary for the said Goldsmith to subscribe and swear to an affidavit, setting forth among other things the age of the said Goldsmith. That at said time the said Goldsmith did subscribe and make an affidavit in which he swore that his age at that time was twenty eight years. For some reason or other unknown to this deponent the said Goldsmith was not appointed to the Police Force upon that application. Subsequently, and on or about the 20' day of March, 1885, the said Goldsmith, under the name of Julius S. Goldsmith, now residing at No. 38 Eldridge street, in said City, by business a bartender, made another application for appointment as a policeman on the said Police Force, and upon such application it became necessary for the said Goldsmith to subscribe and swear to an affidavit, setting forth among other things the age of the said Goldsmith; that upon said application the said Goldsmith did subscribe and swear to an affidavit, containing among other things the statement that his age was twenty eight years. Your deponent charges that the said Goldsmith has committed perjury in making the said affidavit last mentioned. Deponent further says that he has had an interview with the said Goldsmith, during which interview he openly charged him with swearing falsely to his age. That thereupon said Goldsmith admitted to deponent that his age was incorrectly stated in said last mentioned affidavit, and that he was born on the 7' day of June, 1849, and gave as a reason for his false swearing as to his age that in this way he hoped to pass the examination and obtain a position upon said Police Force.
