The People
 v.
 Micheal Finnigan } Court of General Sessions. Part II.
 Indictment for larceny in the second degree. Before Judge Cowing. April 18. 1882.

Maurice Kaufman sworn. I am an importer of fancy china at 46 Park Place in this city; on the 9th of April I had in the hallway of my store a box of fancy china; valued at ninety dollars. I looked at my invoice book, and in my opinion that is a fair value for the goods. That box of china was taken from my place. On my return from lunch about 1/4 of two o'clock I came to the store, I saw the prisoner with a hand truck taking the case out of the hall. I looked on quietly; my partner was with me also. I saw him put it on and roll it down the street as far as College Place, turn College Place towards Murray St. went up Murray and let it down before 38 Murray St. near the corner of Church St. about 30 feet from the corner. I then took hold of him by the coat. Says I, "Young fellow, what are you doing with that case?" He says, "an expressman named Kirkworth told me to truck it round and he would give me 40 or 50 cents for doing it." "That is all right, if you will show me the man." He says,

"he is round the corner." I looked, I could not find him, of course. My partner held him, I left him in charge of my partner at the same time and went into a store to make sure that he would not run away, I believe it was No 38. I told the people in the store to take care of him. After seeing him safely in charge, I went to the City hall station and got a detective; then we took the prisoner up to where he said he worked. We asked them what they knew about him? They said he worked there. We went to the Marshall's office at the City Hall to look for Kirkworth; we looked at the No of the expressman which the prisoner gave and found that the name opposite it was Lefferts. I made the same statement again in the station house, then went to the Jombs, made a charge there, and since that it has been pending here. The prisoner did not take those goods with my permission. I never saw him before to my knowledge. I did not direct any one to deliver those goods to him. Those goods had been received about a month previous from the steamer and had not been unpacked and never had been sold. Cross Examined. I know that

0204

This case contained fancy china because it was unpacked. The prisoner took me to the firm of Benedikt and Friedman, importers of china. We saw a young man about 18 years old; the detective asked him what he knew about the prisoner. He said he worked for them. They did not know anything against his honesty as I remember Michael Finnigan sworn and examined in his own defence. I live in New York. I am married, I have never been convicted of crime. I heard the testimony of Mr. Kaufman. On last Wednesday week I was standing corner of Park Place and Church St. I work down there by the hour - hired by many stores. Have been out of work six weeks; there is nine or ten working there. A man came up to me and said, "Where can I find a man to do work?" I answered, "Have you a truck, I mean a hand truck?" He says, "Yes." He said, "You will make 40 or 50 cents by the operation." "All right." I went down as far as College Place to Park Place. I asked a man for the loan of a truck, I have got a job. He said, "As soon as you get through with it, bring it back." The Expressman put the case on the truck and said, "Take

This around to the corner of Murray and Church sts. and I will call for it right away." I says, "it is all right;" then I will get paid. That is all that was done. I carried this case in broad day light. The Expressman went down College Place; he says, "I have got to call or make a delivery." I dropped the case on the corner and Mr. Kaufman came up and tapped me on the shoulder. I was employed by Benedikt and Friedman, 21 Murray St. They gave me a certificate [It is as follows: "Benedikt & Friedman, importers of Florentine China, 21 Murray St. New York, April 18, 1884. To whom it may concern: This is to certify that Micheal Finnigan was in our employ for about two years, and in that time we found him to be honest and industrious." I was going back to them on the 1st of May. I am a china packer by trade. I did not think it suspicious that Kirkworth told me to take the box a horse or two; he had his own wagon there in front of the door.

Maurice Kaufman recalled: I saw the prisoner take the case from the hallway of my store; I did not see any express wagon round there at the time. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People } Court of General Sessions Part I.
 Frank Fleet } Before Judge Cowing. April 24, 1884.
 Indictment for robbery in the first degree.
 Edward Schenheid sworn. On the 13th of April, the day of the robbery, I was living at 260 Rivington st. I passed through Ninth st. on that day. The prisoner and four men came up to me on Ninth st. between Avenue B & C., the right hand side going up to Broadway. I did not see them coming until they had hold of me; he (the prisoner) caught me in the back and the other men got in front of me. Fleet seized me and caught me on the back and held me while the others were "going through me." I mean they searched my person. I had 50 cents but they only got 30 cents; it was in the right trousers pocket. Fleet struck me twice in the ear; it was after I pushed him away that he struck me. After he struck me they all ran. I don't know how long after that he was arrested. I went home. I saw the defendant a few times before this around Ninth st. The prisoner is the man that seized me that day;
 it was two o'clock in the morning. Cross Examined. I was not drunk, but I had been drinking a few glasses of beer. I was not under the influence of liquor; it was dark at two o'clock in the morning. This happened near the middle of the block in Ninth St. between ^{Ave.} B and C. I do not think I could recognize any of the other four but I can recognize the prisoner. The paper now shown me is my examination at the Police Court, and that is my signature. It was read over to me, but I did not understand that I swore 50 cents was lost. There was only 30 cents taken out of the 50 cents. Did you give an alarm when you were attacked? I halloed out, "let go of my pocket - let go of me." Did any policeman come up? They did after they went away. The whole operation did not take five minutes. I was struck in the left ear after the money was taken. He struck me in the left ear with his fist two or three punches. I could not tell which one took the money away from my pocket. I did not swear in the Police Court about the defendant striking me. I only swore to what I was asked there. I saw the defendant next in the Police Station. I gave a description of him to the Police. I could not give a description of any of the others; the defendant caught me from behind. How do you recognize him? He had a red pocket handkerchief tied around his throat right under the chin. Did you see him have hold of you? Yes sir. I could look right into his face while he had hold of me. What were the other men doing? I did not look around. I saw him sideways where he had hold of me. What were the other men doing? They went through my pocket and tore the pocket off. How long have you lived in the city? Twenty four years. I have been in the House of Detention. I did not enquire for any one to go bail for me.

0228

Daniel J. Hogan sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Eleventh Precinct. I arrested the prisoner at half past six on the morning of the 13th - the morning of the robbery. I arrested him corner of Ninth St. and Avenue C. I searched him when I got to the Station house. I found nothing but a handkerchief; he had it around his head right under his chin. What kind of a handkerchief was it? It was a red handkerchief, generally what laborers have when they are working.

Mr. Parris. That is our case.

Frank Fleet, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. You have heard the charge against you that you robbed this man of thirty cents? Yes sir. What have you to say to that charge? I am innocent, I know nothing about it at all. I did not see the man. I knew nothing at all about it, so help my God. You do not know any person who attacked him? No sir. I do not. You know nothing in the world about the affair? Nothing at all whatsoever. Cross Examined. I was arrested once before about eighteen months ago. What for? Larceny from the person who was the complainant against you at that time? I do not know the man. What name were you indicted under? Frank Fleet. Was the complainant's name Andrew Heber? I do not know the name, he was a German. I did not steal anything from him, but I was considered just as bad as those that done it, I was there. It was for stealing a watch. I served 18 months. I have a family, I work every day I can get it. I only remember seeing the complainant but once or twice in my life. I might have seen him in Ninth St. I live around there in Tenth St. I do not know whether I was out that night or not. I had been drinking and was around that Sunday morning when I was arrested. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

I hereby certify that I have known Amos Fowler during the last ten years and have attended him professionally more or less during ~~that time~~ ^{that time}. During the last three years he has had severe and repeated attacks of pulmonary hemorrhage. Some thing over a year since his condition was so critical as to almost include the possibility of recovery. Six months at that time being the probable limit

0283

Country air, a generous diet and an easy life has however made him fairly comfortable although he is liable at any time to fatal hemorrhage and in my opinion, confinement and hardship would in all human probability develop fatal results. His future health will depend wholly on his avoiding all depressing influences and in living generously and temperately.

vs.
Amos Fowler
Indictment for keeping a gambling establish-

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Recorder Smyth.
Monday, May 19. 1884.

August Schreiner sworn and examined testified:

By Mr. Parry Q On the 31st of Dec. last where did you live
Mr. Schreiner. At No 1494 Second Avenue.

Q Did you have occasion on that day to visit the premises 463 Third Avenue.
A I had, sir.

Q Do you know the prisoner here Amos Fowler. A. I do sir, recognize him now
Q Is No 463 Third Avenue his premises.
Objected to.

Q Those premises are they.
Objected to as leading.

Q What time did you go to 463 Third Avenue
what hour of the day.

A About eleven o'clock your Honor.

Q Who did you see there.

A I saw the defendant in this case there.

Q Go on now and state what you did.

A About eleven o'clock the 31st of December last I visited 463 Third Avenue I entered the store at such a number.

Q What kind of a store is it. A To my best knowledge it is a kind of stationary and toys.

Q Is there any name on it. A I did not notice any, your Honor.

Q Well, go on, you got inside of the store, what else. A I seen two little boys there buying something. I waited till they were done; then I said to the defendant, which was standing by the show case, "Pay us." He nodded his head.

Q What is that. A This was the name that was furnished me by the Police Department; he was behind the counter; he nodded his head.

13th Paris Q Was that this man. A Yes sir, this man I wanted to buy No 9 ^{first} in both lotteries. I wanted to put down one dollar. He said, "Who is it for?" I told him for the barkeeper on the corner. He then mentioned the name

Q What name, what did he say.

A Then I did not understand him well whatever he said. McGowan; he mentioned the name either McGowan or McCabe, something like this.

Q Well, what did you say. A I said, yes.

Q Well, go on. A He took the dollar and said it was all right. I asked him if he did not give me no paper, he said it was not necessary, for if I should make a winner that he would pay the money. By that I left.

Q How much were you to get if you won.
A Twenty five dollars.

123rd the Paries & Now explain what you mean by No 9 first. (Objected to as incompetent and irrelevant. Objection overruled. Exception.

A No 9 was to be the first drawing of a number.

Q In what lottery. A In either one of them because I played it in either one, either the Kentucky or the Shelby, which was drawn on that day.

Q You said "morning". A I said in the morning.

Q What did that mean. A That means for the morning drawing, the drawing that should be drawn at twelve o'clock.

Q In other words you wanted to bet one dollar to twenty five that No 9 would come out first in either of those two lotteries of the morning drawing.

A In either of those two lotteries for the morning drawing.

By the Court Q You bet one dollar against twenty five that No 9 would come out first in either lotteries - A. Yes sir.

137 Mr. Paris Q Is that what is known as playing lottery policy. (Objected to as incompetent.
Objection overruled) A. Yes sir, known as lottery policy.

Q Playing lottery policy. (Objected to)
A Yes sir.

Q Is gambling game is it. (Objected to on the same ground. Same ruling and exception) A Yes sir.

138 the Court Q What did you do after that.
A I left.

139 Mr. Paris Q Before you left when he took down the numbers, what did he take the numbers on. A He did not register them in my sight.

Q He did not register them in your sight.
A No sir; he went in the back part of the store because there was a partition running across, I could not see through them glasses what he was doing in there.

Q Who took your money.
A The defendant, Mr. Amos Miller.
Cross Examined.

Q You say this was the Kentucky or Shelby lottery. A I said it was the Kentucky or for either lottery that was drawn on that day, as they have no name on the printed list.

Q Of your own knowledge you don't know whether there was a lottery drawn on that day, you were not in Kentucky at that time, no.

A You don't know whether there was a lottery drawn that day of your own knowledge.

Q The lottery is supposed to be drawn in the State of Kentucky, is not that so?

A Yes sir.

Q You have been, Mr. Schreiner, in the lottery business yourself somewhere about fifteen years, is not that so?

A Not for fifteen years.

Q Well, you testified in the Shipley case and in the Grave case, where you were a witness in the Special Sessions, where both those men were acquitted, that you have been in the lottery business fifteen years, 'yes' or 'no'.

A No sir, I have stated I was fifteen years in business for that length of time.

Q Now you recollect the 31st of December 1883 very particularly don't you, A. I do.

Q Now will you please tell this jury

where else you were upon that day.

A Yes sir.

Q How many other places were you that day. A I was in 357 East Forty sixth St.

Q Go on. A I was in 315 East Thirty fourth St. I was in 202 East Twenty fifth St. I may have been in another place which I do not remember now.

Q You go into these places, these police offices in search of violations of the law. is that so. (Objected to. Objection overruled. Question withdrawn)

Q Now, sir, into how many places were you on the 30th of Dec, the day before.

A To my best believe, no sir, I guess it was Sunday.

Q The day before that.

The Court Excluded.

Counsel I want it for the purpose of testing his credibility and accuracy.

Q On the 29th of December how many different places did you visit.

The Court. Excluded.

Counsel. Exception.

Counsel Q Can you tell us now how many different places did you visit during the month of December 1883 before you visited this place in Third Avenue.

The Court. Excluded.

Counsel. Exception.

The Court. Wherever I exclude questions and answers I will give you an exception.

By Counsel Q Have you ever been mistaken in your life time as to the identity of a person. A Not to my knowledge.

Q You never made a mistake in the features of a person have you.

A Not that I know of.

Q This man was a perfect stranger to you up to the month of December.

A Yes sir, but he —

Q Had you ever spoken to him in your life before that. A No sir.

Q This was a stationery and toy store and there are rooms back of that are there not.

A I could not say in it because there was a partition across that would permit me to see what was in the back.

Q Do you know whether there were back rooms. A I suppose there was.

Q You did not go into the back room.

A No sir, the door was locked.

0293

Q Did not you tell the Court and jury that the prisoner went into the back room. A. I did not say anything of the kind.

Q Did you say after he took your dollar you could not say he went in. A. He went in from behind the counter.

Q The door was open then.

A The door behind the counter was open but not the one in front of the counter.

Q Then the door was not locked.

A The door in front of the counter where I stood and tried to get admittance was locked, but there was another door behind the counter to go into the back room.

Q You asked for a man named Pargus, was not the name upon the door. A. I asked for Pargus.

Q Was the name Parker on the door. A. I did not notice it.

Q You will not swear that the name Parker was not on the sign over the door. A. No sir.

Q That is your signature, is not it (paper shown) A. Yes sir.

Q And that was read over to you before you signed it. A. No sir.

Q It was not. A. No sir.

Q Were not you sworn to it by Judge Duff?

A Yes sir. I was sworn to it.

Q Did you know what you signed, yes or no? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you ~~there~~ accuse one Amos Parker of keeping the premises 463 Third Avenue and afterwards the name of Parker was stricken out and Fowler was put in, is that so.

A I did not give no name at all when I made the complaint.

Q You did not. A. No sir.

Q Then that is a mistake. When you went to the police authorities about this did you give the name of Parker to them. A. No sir, I gave no name.

Q How often have you been arrested in your life Schreiner.

Objected to. Objection sustained. Exception.

Q How many times have you appeared in Court as a witness against parties charged with selling lottery policies or with keeping a gambling house.

Objected to. Objection sustained. Exception.

0295

¹⁰
Counsel. This I offer for the purpose of testing the accuracy of the witness's testimony and also as to his credibility.

By the Court Q Did you at the time that you went into this store go there for the purpose of obtaining evidence against parties claimed to be violating the lottery laws, is that the purpose you went there for.

Objected to. Objection overruled. Exception.

A Yes sir.

Q Did you go there for the purpose of playing lottery policies or violating the law yourself. A. No sir.

Q Were you in the employ of the police at that time. A. I was.

Q Were you employed by the police for that purpose. A. I was.

Counsel I ask your Honor to strike out the answers of the witnesses upon the ground that they are incompetent, immaterial and irrelevant to this issue - the answers to the questions put by your Honor.

The Court. Denied; note an exception.

By Mr. Parris Q At the time you went there on the 31st of December did you know the prisoner's name. A. No sir.
