Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Annie Ahearn
and
Mary J. Ahearn

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Annie Ahearn and Mary J. Ahearn of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Annie Ahearn and Mary
J. Ahearn

late of the Sixth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain;
and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Annie Ahearn and Mary J. Ahearn on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Annie Ahearn and Mary

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Annie Ahearn and Mary

late of the Sixth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times between the said

day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in ~~their~~ said house, for ~~their~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and willfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and willfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common annoyance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Amie Ahearn, and Mary J. Ahearn of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Amie Ahearn and Mary J. Ahearn late of the 5th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the 17th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eightyfour and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in ~~their~~ — said house and place of public resort, for ~~their~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in ~~their~~ said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by which the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

against

Isabella Anzole

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME,
committed as follows:

The said Isabella Anzole

late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twist day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common
house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers
evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain;
and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

on the days and times
aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there
manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

the said

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twist day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times between the said

day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and willfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and willfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common annoyance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Isabel O'Connell of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Isabel O'Connell

late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twint day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eightyfour and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in her said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by which the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

City and County of New-York, SS.:

Alfonso Bracco, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
That he is the complainant in the above entitled action and that he knows Felix Nugent, who is a material witness for The People on the trial of this indictment, and that he also knows the father of the said Felix Nugent, whose name is also Felix Nugent. That on the 8' day of May Inst., deponent, accompanied by Officer John Thoden, of the 14' Precinct, by direction of the Court, visited the residence of the said Felix Nugent, at No. 163 Chrystie street, in the City of New-York, for the purpose of serving him with a subpoena to-attend the trial of this action now pending. Deponent and the said Officer saw the father of the said witness, who informed deponent that his son received a subpoena to attend Court and that he wanted him to go down to attend the Court in accordance with the terms of the subpoena, and that the witness said to his sister that he would not attend the Court because he didn't want to be killed; that the said Felix Nugent, Sr., further informed deponent that the friends of the prisoner, John Armstrong, has scared his son nearly to death by threats of personal violence if he should appear as a witness, and that he didn't believe that his son would attend Court, and that he didn't know where he was, and that he had been looking for him himself and could not find him.

Sworn to before me, this :
8' day of May, 1884.
