Reverend Judge Sullivan.

Dear Sir,

I cannot have the least hesitation in testifying to the excellent character which Miss Margaret Brown has borne in this district. Her family is one of the most respectable and are shocked at her action which has brought her before your Honor.

It is certainly her first offence and there can not be the slightest doubt of her future good behaviour. The Young Woman has been most highly commended by respectable persons and from personal knowledge I can confirm their good opinion of her excellent character.

Trusting to your clemency and begging a suspension or sentence if no other chance of escape be left.

Respectfully,
J. M. Sullivan

New York, Dec. 26, 1884

This will certify that I have known Miss Braggie Brown for about four years, and have been her medical attendant during that period. The knowledge of the trouble she has got into has been the greatest surprise to me, as I have always found her perfectly honest, straightforward, and correct in her behavior. It is my conviction that she could only have yielded to a sudden temptation, at a time when her moral forces were weakened by trouble and want.

J. A. McCreery M.D.

I would further certify that Miss Brown has been suffering from a complication of diseases, the lungs and womb being both affected. She has a constant cough, is subject to neuralgia, is very nervous, and is decidedly hysterical. If allowed I would petition the Judges must earnestly to spare her if possible any further ~~improvement~~ ^{improvement}. The confinement would destroy her physically, as certainly as the association would complete her moral downfall.

I live at No. 30 Vaick Street & have lived there for 15 years..
I know the defendant about a year. and I know Mary O'Connor the complaining witness here. and I know the houses No. 19 Beach Street & the house No. 19 1/2 Beach Street. I know Mr. McChade and as far as I know he is the owner of 19 Beach St. Mary O'Connor is the housekeeper of 19 Beach Street. I have seen the wall extending through the yard of No. 28 Vaick St. close up against the rear portion of the house 19 Vaick St. I was on a ladder about the 21st of August last and I saw Mrs Dowdell pitch the bricks out of the wall with a broom & after that she swept them only into No. 28 Vaick Street. The hole it made was that caused by having four bricks knocked out. She spoke to me then.
She called me a blind eyed bugger at No. 19 Beach

0320

Street.

Cross-Examination - by - Mr. Walsh

There was no hole in the wall before she knocked three bricks out. I was on the ladder when Mr. Duvall spoke to me.

The ladder reached to the top of this hole which was made. They had finished that hole & were fixing another when it was knocked down.

She went about ten steps from her hall way to this place where she knocked the bricks out. I was on the outside wall. Somebody had made this hole before and the mason fixed it again & I watched to see who would do it again. I had a stick of wood & pushed it through the wall. The bricks were pushed out about ten minutes before that. The wall was three bricks thick.

I go to school in North

0321

More St. Mary O'Connor asked me to come here and Ed O'Reilly also asked me. The lady who cleans the house told me that Mary O'Connor said she would give me a suit of clothes if I came here. We were all on the ladder - a couple of boys & we were jumping in the sand with which they made the mortar & suddenly the bricks came out & I went up to see who it was that knocked them out & I struck a stick in the hole. The bricks that fell out nearly struck me. It was not exactly a hole I saw there besides this, the mortar was knocked out from between the bricks.

Re Direct Exam - by - Mr. Bucci

It was about ten minutes after the masons had fixed this hole that the bricks were knocked out & they came from the same hole that Mr. Dowdell made.

0322

After the mason put them in she knocked them out again.
The hole was at the window.
As soon as I saw her I said it was Mrs Dnodell who did it - I said that to the boys and she called me a blind eyed begger. After that I saw her push the bricks away.

Re - Cross - Exam - by - Mr. Walsh

I went up the ladder and made that hole to see who was doing it - who was knocking the bricks out - the bricks which were in the hole where they fell out. I told Mary & Connor that Mrs Dnodell did it. a boy by the name of Quinn was with me at the time - he lives at 30 Vanick Street.
My brother William was there also. & Joseph Rice. That is all I remember now who were there. While we were

Dear Sir

New York, Dec 8 1884

as suggested by Mr Lockwood I beg to write you in reference to Mr X L Doyle I think if it is possible to stay proceedings in his case or have the charges withdrawn it would be a mercy to him as I think he did not intend to do any thing he could not remedy and in justice to his folks who are very respectable people and it would bear very hard on his mother who is about heart broken just now and should be given his liberty I think he would yet become a useful citizen as there is nothing vicious in him his intentions being honorable his folks intend to get him away from the influence of Drink which I think was the sole cause of his trouble I would therefore beg of you to exercise influence and best endeavours to have him set at liberty so that he may have another opportunity of trying to do better which I think he will utilize Hoping you will do your best

0360

I remain yours

That he is the complainant in the above entitled action. That deponent has known the defendant herein for about ~~sixteen months~~ two years, and the defendant has been in his employ for about sixteen months. That during said last mentioned period this deponent has intrusted the defendant with goods of the value of several hundred dollars, and that he as always made return therefor ~~except~~ ^{except} the goods mentioned in the complaint herein, for which restitution has since been made. That deponent is of the opinion that the defendant at the time of the taking of the goods mentioned was under the influence of liquor and ^{did} not intend to commit a crime but did intend to return or make the same good. That deponent believes ~~and earnestly~~ that if the said Doyle was permit to regain his liberty he would earnestly strive to redeem himself from further complaint. Deponent therefore recommends the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but he expressly asserts that his reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to himself. Deponent further says that he has reason to believe that the defendant has heretofore pawned goods and has always redeemed them, and that it was his intention to do so in this case.
