Frank J. Keller Esq
 Atty. N.Y. City
 Dear Sir

Having been requested to bear testimony to the previous good character of Mr Thomas F. Murray, now incarcerated on a criminal charge I cheerfully do so, and would beg to state that for the eight or nine years that I have known him I have always known and looked upon him as an honest and upright young man; this is the first charge of the kind or of any kind that I have ever known to be made against him. If he is guilty of the charge I can hardly believe that he committed the act from any spirit of malice but must have been driven as I learn by the agonizing feelings of dire necessity and actual want. I would appeal as a citizen that justice in this case should be tempered with a well deserved mercy and that the reputation and name of this young man should be saved from the destroying blast of a prison record.

Yours &c David H. Hales

Dear Sir,

I wish to state that I have known Thomas Murray for 14 years, and always knew him to be honest and industrious. I am at a loss to understand what could have impelled him to such a rash act, excepting that his family was in absolute want.
