Charles Sears of No. 350 Washington Street, being duly sworn, says: That he resides at No. Montgomery, Orange Street, in the City of New York, County and State of New York, is Fifty (50) years of age, and an expert appointed by HON. JOSIAH K. BROWN, the New York Dairy Commissioner; That at the times hereinafter mentioned one George H. Dennis was a Retail Grocery Dealer, and had his Grocery Store in a room in No. 26 Canal Street, in the said City of New York, and occupied and controlled such room; That on the Twenty first (21) day of October, 1886, deponent went into said George H. Dennis' store and such room so occupied and controlled by him, and said to a clerk that is the employ of said George H. Dennis in his said store that he wanted to buy some Butter; That the said George H. Dennis' said clerk in response thereto then and there sold and delivered to deponent one half (1/2) pound of the manufactured substance hereinafter mentioned, for which he asked and deponent then and there paid him fourteen (14) cents per pound; That it was so sold and delivered to deponent by said George H. Dennis' clerk as and for Butter, the product of the dairy; That thereafter and on the twenty second day of October, 1886, deponent delivered a portion of such substance so sold to him by said George H. Dennis' clerk to Edward G. Linn, a Chemist of No. 122 Burrey Street in said City of New York, and caused the same to be analyzed by such Chemist; That the certificate thereof made by such Chemist is hereto annexed; That such substance so sold and delivered to deponent by said George H. Dennis' clerk was not Butter, the product of the dairy, and was not made from unadulterated milk or cream; That it was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from milk or cream, and had been made by mixing, compounding with and adding to natural milk, cream or Butter, some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils; Not produced from milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter; That the said substance had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby said substance was made to and did resemble Butter the product of the dairy, and was so colored thereby in semblance of and to resemble natural Butter; That on said Twenty first (21) day of October, 1886, deponent in said George H. Dennis' store and room occupied and controlled by him saw a quantity of such manufactured substance offered for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream in the ordinary course of said George H. Dennis' Grocery business.

Deponent charges that the said George H. Dennis against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of New York and the statutes in such case made and provided, unlawfully, ~~and knowingly so~~, had such manufactured substance in his possession with intent to sell the same, ~~as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream, and so offered the same for sale with such intent, and so sold the said portion thereof to this deponent as and for Butter the product of the dairy, and caused, procured, and suffered the same to be so offered for sale and sold, and was thereby guilty of a misdemeanor.~~

The said Fitzgerald H. Dennis,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty-first day of October, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, one half pound
of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream
(a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Charles Sears, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 188, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Fitzgerald H. Dennis -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Fitzgerald H. Dennis,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Charles Sears, one half pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Thomas W. Donnelly

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

(Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8,
as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, one half pound
of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream
(a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and
matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and
cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the
people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound

of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly

of a Misdemeanor committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain substance, not being butter, and commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Edmund S. Wilson.

to be butter; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Section 490, Penal Code)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

Edmund S. Wilson

as an article of food, one half pound of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing one half pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law in such case, to deliver to the purchaser thereof, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail, to one Edmund S. Wilson -

from a certain tub and box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and unlawfully did not then and there deliver therewith to the said

such purchaser as aforesaid, a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly
of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly
late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SEVENTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 7, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas W. Donnelly
of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas W. Donnelly
late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same, the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered, manufactured and produced out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article substance and compound not having been manufactured prior to, and not being in process of manufacture, on the first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

EIGHTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Thomas W. Dandley of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Thomas W. Dandley

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said September day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain compound product and manufacture made in whole from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils, not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy (a more particular description of which said compound, product and manufacture, and of the fats and oils from which the same was so made as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

NINTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Thomas W. Dandley of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Thomas W. Dandley

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain compound, product and manufacture made in part from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound, product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy, (a more particular description of which said compound, and of the ingredients thereof, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given,) against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Tried, Wednesday, March 30th, 1887.

APPEARANCES.

Assistant District Attorney, Ambrose H. Purdy, for the People; John M. Coman, for the Defence.

-----000-----

Mrs. MARY HENRY, Being called as a witness for the People, was duly sworn, and testified as follows:

I reside together with my mother at No. 40 Spaulding Avenue; and at 214 West 27th Street I was house-keeping.

I know the two defendants; I knew them from a week previous to the robbery; I was then speaking to them. I saw them on March 11th; they come into my house in the morning. I met them first in a saloon on the corner, and we had a couple of drinks and they had two other ladies with them. I know the other two by sight. They were five ladies in all there. After that I went to my door and I couldn't get in; I could not get into my door where I was residing at the time; I lived on the top floor front. I rapped at the door and I couldn't get in.

These ladies did not go with me to the house, but when I found I couldn't get in I didn't want to stay in the street all night and I went back to the saloon and I stayed there, in the saloon, until I thought the door was open; I stayed there with those ladies. The door is generally opened about 5 o'clock in the morning and I stayed in this saloon with these ladies all night; I don't believe there was a gentleman with us.

I started for home about 5 o'clock in the morning, but these ladies didn't go with me. I got into the house and I went up stairs and undressed and was going to bed, when Lizzie Duggan and Mamie Carroll - Lizzie Duggan, and a girl by the name of Maggie, came and forced my door in, - she and some other girl. The door was not locked and they come right in and then they took a can off the table and I said "here, that is my can," and with this this Maggie struck me and took the can. It was a can commonly known as the "growler". She went down stairs and I said before she went down and I said before she went, "That is my can and I want you to get out of here", and Maggie rose up and she shoved me down and they went with the can. I slept about five or six minutes when the whole four of them came up together; these two prisoners and two other parties, and they came up and I ordered them out and they wouldn't go; they knew my husband was away from home and they asked me to take a glass of beer and I consented, and after that I knew no more until I woke up in the afternoon.

After taking that glass of beer, I knew no more until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and then the door was locked and I tried it when I got up and the key was outside on the window; they left the key outside for me.

I had a seal plush coat, three dresses, - one of the dresses this one has on now. My whole wash was on the line and they took everything. They took about $62 worth altogether; I counted the whole value up; everything was gone.

I didn't see them then until a couple of days after, one Saturday night; I was over in my mother's, in Jersey; and I had a warrant out for them and I saw Lizzie Duggan had my coat on her and the other with the dress she has got on her now. I went into this place in 27th Street and I seen her there drinking with a man, with my seal-skin coat on.

and I asked her about it and she drew a knife on me -

-----000-----

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I first made the acquaintance of these young ladies when I went into the saloon one night for a pint of beer; It was about a week previous to the robbery. I once gave the two girls a night's lodging. I once made a proposition with them to live with me. I thought they were nice girls

It is not true that I asked these girls to come up in my room and spend the evening with me and for them to go with me to visit my husband.

I declined to answer where my husband is at the present time.

I was drinking that night but not to lose my senses. I left the girls in the room after they gave me a glass of beer and they were there while I was in bed; I don't know when they left, or who left first. When I woke up I found the door locked; I woke up about 2 o'clock in the afternoon

I have no recollection of loaning these girls any of the articles at the time, only one black silk scarf that I loaned to Lizzie Duggan one night.

-----000-----

LIZZIE DUGGAN, one of the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows:-

We went into this liquor store that night and we happened to meet this girl and she sat with us and drank with us, and the other girls came in about half past 5; she asked us to come in her house and spend the day with her there; she asked us that a couple of days before, and we were there and she told us then to go over to Crow Hill Prison with her to see her husband. She made the proposition and she said she would let us have the things if we would go with her and we said we would go.

This day that she speaks of, she got very drunk and she sent out for beer and for snuff and we were ready to go to Crow Hill prison and we expected her mother to come and we went out of the room and these girls stayed behind and we went down stairs; I don't know what happened, only the clothes we had on, that she gave us. She left me that silk skirt that I got on and she said she would wear her shawl and we was to go with her to see her husband. We left the room about half past 10 o'clock and left two girls behind.

We didn't come around again until the next Saturday. And I went in the saloon and she said, "you stole the coat", and after that I said I didn't want to make a show of myself and I told her to come down the street and she hollered murder and everything. I went there to give her the clothes. After that I came down again with the intention of meeting her and with that she had an officer to arrest me; I would probably <sup>have</sup> given her the cloak on the corner.

-----000-----

My name is Duggan. My maiden name is McLaughlin. I sometimes go by the name of McCann. I was doing time on the Island for soliciting men; I am a prostitute and I have been convicted for soliciting once, last November. I was a week on the Island; a friend of mine got me out; he paid for it, I suppose.

I stayed at the complainant's house all night and two other girls also. The names of the other girls are Cassidy, Tracy, and Katie Welsh. We were drinking there; we had about three pints of beer and I went for one pint myself. And the other girls went for some also. We left there about half past 10.

I know nothing about a clock, and I don't know whether there was a clock in the room or not and I know nothing about pillow cases and I don't know anything about handkerchiefs. I only know about the cloak and the skirt that she loaned me to go to see her husband with.

After I left there I went home to 29th Street; I did not go to bed until the afternoon and I got up again about 5 o'clock. I didn't go out on the street for three nights because I was sick. When I met her, the complainant, in this lager beer saloon I had a man with me and there was a man with her too.

-----000-----

MAMIE CARROLL, one of the defendants, being called as a witness on her own behalf, was duly sworn and testified as follows:

We met this woman in a liquor store ; she came in while we were sitting there and we spoke together and we were drinking together until about half past 9 or 10 o'clock and then two other girls came in and we drank some more and we were drinking all night until morning. We started up to this woman's room about half past 6 in the morning. and we stayed there all that day and then Lizzie and her went out to look for rooms.

8

We left the house that night and we didn't come back that night and we met her after that in the liquor store and we drank all that night. This second night we went up to her rooms again in the morning with her and she wanted us to go to Groww Hill with her and she gave me a cloak and Lizzie a skirt and then she thought her mother was coming in and we left. We looked for her three nights after and then I seen her on the corner of 26th Street with that officer. I didn't give it back to her, because I only seen her that Saturday night.

-----000-----

I have known the other girls for some time by sight. I am a prostitute - I am unfortunate. I have been arrested before but I got out. I have done two weeks on the Island. I had a particular friend who took me out. I didn't give her back the dress because I didn't see her until Saturday, and then I didn't have time because this officer was there and arrested me, and ever since that time I have been in jail.

City and County } of New York, } ss.Maggie Hart
of No. 155 West 18th Street, aged 17 years, occupation buyer for a dressmaker being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 2nd day of February 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and Person of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

A pocket book of the value of two dollars containing gold and lawful money of the United States to the amount of Six + <sup>15</sup>/<sub>100</sub> dollars together of the value of Eight + <sup>15</sup>/<sub>100</sub> dollars ($8.15)

the property of Deponent and her employer
Mrs R. E. Tenny and in deponent's care and custody

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jeremiah Dunn (now here)
and another whose name is unknown and not yet arrested for the following reasons to wit: that at the hour of 4.15 O'clock P.M. deponent was walking up Broadway and at that time deponent had the aforesaid pocket book in the left hand pocket of her skirt, and when deponent was near the corner of 21st St.
she dropped a parcel on the side walk
when the defendant and the said unknown man not yet arrested who were walking together and in company with each other beside deponent attempted to pick up said parcel. Deponent picked up the parcel herself and continued walking up Broadway. And when she reached the corner of Broadway + 22nd Street deponent started to go into the store of J. G. Johnson on said corner when the defendant and the said unknown man who had followed close behind defendant from the place she dropped her parcel came alongside of her and the defendant snatched said pocketbook from the left hand pocket of defendant's vest and started to run away in company with the said unknown man not yet arrested when defendant gave the alarm and he the defendant was arrested on West 2nd Street between 5th and 6th avenues by Officer John McDonald of the 19th Precinct Police. And defendant is informed by said Officer that he was given the pocketbook by the roundsman who had got it from a citizen who picked it up on the street where the defendant had dropped it. Defendant has since seen said pocketbook and fully identifies it as hers.

Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant and the said unknown man not yet arrested with being together and acting in concert with each other and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said pocketbook from the left hand pocket of the vest then and there worn by defendant as a portion of her bodily clothing.

This is to certify, that not being able to appear personally myself I beg to state that the accused Mr Hamilton & John Dwyer have been in my employ for the period of one year and that I have known them for about ten years and have always found them strictly honest in every respect as far as my knowledge goes. They were both working for me at the time of the arrest and I can only state that I think they must have been intoxicated and not responsible for what they were doing at the time it occurred.
Very respectfully, Walter H. Crothers.
