Sarah A. De Venny being duly sworn says. I am the defendant above named and reside at No. 115 East 82nd Street in said City with my husband and family. My right, title and interest to the premises known by the Street No. 43 East 9th Street in said City is derived from a certain instrument in writing duly executed and delivered by the Trustees of Sailors Snug Harbor to me demising said premises for a period of 21 years and which instrument is recorded in the office of the Register of the said City and County in Liber 1983 of Conveyances page 418. That on or about the First day of May 1891 deponent entered into a written lease with one Francois Malosse of said City demising said premises for a period of three years from the 1st day of May 1891 to said Malosse at an annual rental of $1800 to be used as a dwelling.

That William C. Walkers Sons of No. 299 1/2 Broadway in said City procured the said Malosse as a tenant and the negotiations incident thereto including the drawing and delivery of said Lease was conducted and carried out by said William C. Walkers Sons.

That said Lease was sent to deponent for execution by said William C. Walkers Sons by mail to New Suffolk, Suffolk County, New York where deponent's country house was and where from May 1st to November 1st in each year deponent has sojourned for a number of years last past. That deponent executed and returned by mail the said Lease to said William C. Walkers Sons for delivery.

That deponent has not entered in or upon the said premises for over fifteen years last past and has never seen the said Malosse nor personally collected the rent from said premises from Malosse or any other tenant.

That deponent had no knowledge or information of any kind or from any source of the use of said premises for any improper or illegal purpose.

That deponent has had business relations with said William C. Walkers Sons in many other real estate transactions of like character and which have proved satisfactory and therefore deponent believed they would obtain a satisfactory tenant as to character and one who would use said premises for the purposes to which they were leased to wit: a first class private dwelling.

That deponent paid said William C. Walkers Sons $45.00 commissions for renting said premises to said Malosse and has their receipt for same.

That on the 22nd day of March 1892 deponent was first informed that said premises were used for illegal purposes; that on the 25th day of March 1892 deponent instituted legal proceedings through her counsel to dispossess the tenants in occupancy of said premises; that on the 29th day of March 1892 a warrant of dispossess with stay of execution until April 2nd, 1892 was granted as deponent is informed and verily believes.

I would respectfully beg to submit the following report on the character of WILLIAM DUMOND, charged with Larceny.

When he was quite young his mother died and he was brought up by a colored family at 15 1/2 Sullivan Street. He lived with this family until within two months ago. City and Countym of New York, ss:

FANNIE DURANT, being duly sworn deposes and says that she was formerly a domestic engaged at #140 West Third Street in the City of New York. That during the temporary absence of the proprietress of said premises therefrom, she was left in charge of the same and while so in charge the said premises were raided and deponent arrested. Deponent further says that the nuisance complained of has been abated, and that the former proprietress of said premises, in whose employ deponent previously was, has removed therefrom and said premises at #140 West Third Street are now vacant and unoccupied. That deponent never had any interest in said premises only as above set forth; that she now resides and has since the said arrest resided at #3 Cottage Place in the City of New York.

Therefore, deponent asks that the Court extend such leniency as to the Court may seem meet and just.
