To the

On Saturday November the 17th 1883
I received Instructions from Mr D. J.
Whitney to take two men with me and visit the Saloon No 181 Chatham Street. being an unlicensed Saloon and kept by a woman named Fanny Mellins which I had previously reported for selling without a license to Mr. Whitney and also to Mr. Allen Assistant District Attorney; But Mr. Whitney told me that I had better not go in this Saloon myself but send others in and see that they went in and get the character of the place also if they sold Intoxicating drinks as the first one, I therefore did not enter it. I engaged the services of Mr. Frank Smith of No 102 South Street Brooklyn ED and also of Mr Samuel Merril of No 162 Grand Street.
Brooklyn ED, we went over Roosevelt-st ferry together about 7 P M on Saturday, walked up to New Bowery to the Junction of Chatham Street, they by my advice entered the Saloon, I remained outside but looked in through the entrance, they sat at a table and called for drinks which they received two Prostitutes sat at table with them they remained in there for nearly one hour reported to me when they came out that they had been solicited to go upstairs also that they had obtained liquor namely whiskey and also Lager Beer, the Girls asked the two men to go up stairs and they could get one shot for 1 Dollar, if they wanted it all night two dollars, one of the Girls put her hand on the fly of Smiths pantalons and told him that she could make him feel good if he only came up stairs they were taxed for the drinks and began one dollar and forty cents. which money I furnished them for the Society an Officer was standing near the place talking with a man, I saw the Officer Shields on his beat as he took out a paper of Chewing tobacco, we then went to Billy M'Glory's and saw over four hundred people girls and old and young men dancing Shaving Smoking of Cigarettes and drinking of Lager Beer and swearing, remained there until very late went through Elizabeth Hester and Canal 6th Precinct Solicited by Prostitutes, Saloons open through the 10th and 6th also Fourth Precinct. Martin Bathmann, of No. 57 West street, in said City, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he keeps a liquor saloon at the above number; that about two months ago, as near as deponent can recollect, Charles F. Rillings and a man with spectacles came to deponent's place of business on a Sunday, and bought and paid for drinks; that while there they told deponent they belonged to some society, the name of which deponent does not now remember; that about a week after the man with spectacles came again to deponent's place and told him that somebody wanted to see him; that as near as deponent can now remember he accompanied this man to Greenwich street and Battery Place, where he met Rillings; that on the way down there the man with spectacles told this deponent that Rillings might make a charge against him for violating the excise law, and that he, deponent, had better give him, Rillings, something to make it all right, and that he, deponent, had better put it in his, Rillings', pocket, as he would not take it any other way; that while sitting in a saloon at said place, deponent called for drinks, and after he and the said Rillings and the man with spectacles had drank deponent as he believes put thirteen dollars in Rillings' pocket, and left; and deponent has never seen either of these men since, and they have not, to deponent's knowledge, made any charge against him.

Edward B Allen. I now reside in Newark.
I first-joined the City Chemical Company in Janry. or Feb. 1880. I went-there as General Clerk at a Salary of $1500 a year. I was a Stockholder.
I had 12 and ½ shares fully paid up. I paid for that-Stock $500. I borrowed a note from a friend and this was discounted at the Highland Bank of Newburg at-which W. W. Post' father was President. I went-there to the works & attended to the manufacture of the ammonia. Mr W. W.
Post- was General Manager in the absence of Mr.
Eugene. B. Post-. About Sept: 1880 I found on making out Statement that the Co- was rather overdrawing on Harrison Bro. & I mentioned to the E. E. Post- & W. W. Post that we should have to make them an allowance. Eugene Post- then said "how can we make an allowance and why are we running behind" William W.
Post- was present when this conversation took place. ~~I said "we are not~~ - Eugene said How are we running behind with Harrison Bro". - I then explained how we were in the habit of charging in advance for ammonia expected to be made up to & inclusive Sunday. The return was made up on the Friday & taken to N Y & C° so that- we could have the acceptance on Saturday or Monday?. A conversation then took place in which W. W. Post took part- and it was stated that inasmuch as the expenses of the concern had to be met there was no other source but H B & Co to get the money. I showed them the exact production based on the Engineers Book - ~~A W Pool~~ I was suggested that I should make up a statement to submit to H B & Co for such an amount of Ammo: I based to them ~~as~~ my estimate the Co: to draw an acceptance for a sum sufficient to meet the expenses of the Co and rectify by making up the shortage the following week. I demurred to this course stating the machinery was not very good & we could not depend on ~~the~~ getting the regular quantity of Ammonia every week out of the machine. Finally I was induced by an intimation that my note of $500 was in the Cleveland Bank ~~of~~ under W W Pool's former sig, I did not do as required it might not be renewed and as I did not desire my friend to be called upon to pay the note I agreed to act under ~~the~~ my W W Pool's instructions. (for the same time I was assured the shortage would be made all right) A similar conversation occurred each time the report had to be made up. That is before I made up the Report to be sent to H B & Co I produced to W.W. Pool or to Eng. & Pool as the case might be an account of the actual manufacture of Ammonia & pointed out how the Book & the suggested what should be included in order to make up the Report. ~~In~~ In Oct. 1880 Inquire Port was in Europe and asked entirely under W.W Post. I did not act of my own free will but was dictated to by W W Post. It was left out how that any postage could be made up out of the Sale of the Foreign patents to U. E Post being in Europe for the purpose of effecting a Sale if possible.

Looking at the Book marked "Stock memorandum" it does not appear that any amount of 26° strength was made. If there had been it would have been entered. It was the custom to enter all the Amm. manufactured prefer to the week ending 16 Oct. 1880. The Book was in the office & inspected regularly by W W Post. The Report was every week placed in the hands of W W Post during the month of Oct 1880 and he was kept informed of the amount of amm. made & the amount of cash req° to pay the Hands when applications declared what amount he intended in the return to H B M°. During the month of Oct 1880 the Reports were taken by W W Post to H B M° - he obtained the cash and for the same discounted at the Highland B'K Newburg Said all the bills, purchased all the material Handed home just enough money to pay the men himself. I can tell by working the matter out what quantity of empty carboys we had on hand at a given date.

I often heard Post say there would be hell to pay

* The Quantity in this Report is after the Sale to Eugene Quackenbush & Co. of 1000 carboys. Post says it was 1500 carboys. - I put down the figures as the Book No: 2 carboys he charged to W W Post. - It appears by the Book that during the period the Report was taken 6.6. Post figures.

when we quarrel[c]. as to the ~~mode of~~ matter - I went to H. B W[o]. Had sum of the deficiency of Stock - when I met[o] Lord W. W Post what I had done & he told me I was a damn[e] fool for having said anything about it & that if I had not said anything probably the King would never have come up -

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I vs } Before Recorder Smyth. July 16. 1884 Katie Russell }

Jointly indicted with Lizzie Taylor for abduction.

Ruth Vanderlip sworn and examined.

Before I came to New York I lived in Syracuse with my mother. I was 17 years old yesterday on the 15th of July. I came to New York upon a Saturday in June, I could not tell you the date. I came with my sister Beatha. I was going over to Jersey City to stay with my aunt whose name is Bushey. I was going to go to work at Lorillard's factory. My mother did not give her consent for my sister to come with me; she came to the depot to see me off and was to go back home again, but she came to New York with me. When we got to New York ten minutes after 9 o'clock we crossed the ferry; my sister said she would like to take a walk; we came by the West shore road. We walked around a while in New York and a gentleman came up to us and asked us where we were going? He got us a room. I dont know where that was; we stayed there all night. He asked us if we were respectable girls. We stayed there over Sunday. I dont know how much this man paid for the room. On Monday morning we went out; we got our breakfast and went to Madison Square Park and there is where I met this Katie Russell. We were sitting down on the seat and the defendant came along. My sister was sitting there a while and two or three minutes after she came she (my sister) asked her what time it was; she came and took a seat right near my sister before we spoke to her. I think it must have been eleven o'clock in the morning; she was sitting there two or three minutes before my sister spoke to her. My sister asked her the time. I think she said she did not know. Then she got asking my sister questions; she asked her where she came from, and she said from Syracuse; she asked my sister if she had ever been in a parlor house and my sister said, no. Then they talked there quite a while. I was sitting at the other end of the seat. That is all I heard them say. I says to my sister, "Dont be talking to a stranger." "Never mind," she says. She kept on talking and she came over and told me the history that this girl had been telling her. I dont know whether Katie Russell heard what my sister told me or not. My sister asked me if I consented to what she asked her. I told her, no, and I sat there a while. She says, "Well, I shall go whether you go or not;" she got up. I sat still. "I so ("so" you want," she says. I says "Yes, I will." So she started on and the defendant started too they went together, and I said to myself, "well, I will go." I went along with them. The defendant while we walked along was talking about the house and the madam. I asked her before we went if they wanted any help? She said she thought they wanted a chamber maid. That is all that was said that I remember. We went to 331 third ave We were Katie all this time and we went into the house with her; she brought us up to the lady, Mrs. Taylor and she took us in a side room. The Madam asked me if I had ever been in such a place before and I told her, no. She said it was a parlor house; she gave me to understand what there was to be done. She said a parlor house was a place where they recieved gentlemen. My sister Bertha was there at the time and heard all that the Madam said. The Madam did not say anything that time about money. Katie told me what kind of a house this was, that you had to stay with gentlemen there. My sister and I stayed in that house a week.

Know how many. The first day I did not have connection with any, but the next day

There was five girls in the house beside my sister and me. and Katie Russell was one of them. She told us when she was in for girls. I have lived home with my My sister has lived with her mother all her life. I was seventeen years old yesterday and Bertha was 13 years old on the 7th of May. Cross Examined. I Knew my sister when she left the depot with me was leaving home in violation of her mother's orders.

My mother bought my ticket to Albany and I saw a gentleman in the depot. I went up to him and asked him to buy my sister and he bought us both a tick man before. I had four dollars in money of my own. That gentleman did not go as far as Albany with me; he was going in a different direction. We remained in Albany very nearly a week. We went to an aunt's. Mrs. Brody on Berry st; she is married and has a family. I remained with her all the time and slept there. I did not spend any money while I was in Albany My uncle Brody bought the tickets for us from Albany to Jersey city. I still retained my four dollars. My aunt resided near Grand st. I know the house. We arrived in Jersey city ten minutes after nine. We did not go to our aunts that night; but crossed the ferry to New York. We walked around for about half an hour and we met a gentleman. He spoke to me first; he asked me where I was going and where I came from. He asked me if I did not want something to drink. I told him I never drank anything. So we walked on a ways and he asked me where I was going to stop to night. I told him I was going over to Jersey city, and he said it was pretty late. I do not think it was ten. He says, Anyway, I will take you up and get you a room and you can stay with me. I says, No sir, I never stay with anybody. He says, I am going up to get my room; he came up with me and

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

registed; he got my sister and me a room and went off. I don't know the name of the house or the street, I know it was a hotel. My sister and I occupied a room together that night; he told us to stay there until 9 o'clock and wait for him; we did not wait for him, but stayed until 8½ and went out and had our breakfast in a restaurant and then went back to the hotel and stayed there over Sunday; the restaurant was right across the road, we stayed there until Monday morning; we paid our own expenses after that; we did not see the gentleman again. We went to Madison Square Monday morning about 11 o'clock. I do not think it was in the afternoon because we were going to Jersey city after we had dinner. I am sure it was 11 o'clock in the morning. I have not heard that my sister has been a wild girl at home. I heard her say when she gave her testimony in the Tombs Police Court that she had been seduced, and she said that I had been also; that is true. Did not your sister ask you before ever you saw Katie Russell to go to a house of ill fame. Did not she tell you that when she learned that Katie Russell resided in what she called a parlor house that she desired to go there and that she would go? Yes, whether I went or not. I told her not to go. I went because she went. No person took hold of me or dragged me along or coerced me to go. The reason I went was because my sister went We had no satchel and had on only our our clothing when we went to that house. I am sure that neither my sister or had a syringe. The same man that reduced my sister seduced me. Other than that, I have no knowledge of my sister's going astray. This seduction took place before we left home. I do not know one street from another in New York. When you went to the house in Third avenue with Katie Russell was anything said to you after you got there about doing domestic work? No sir. There was nothing said to me about board until the day after I was there. Then the lady called me in her room and told me that the board was sixteen dollars a week for one person. "Before you had connection with men in that house did not Mrs. Taylor ask you if you were decent girls, and if you were that she would aid you in getting employment in a respectable place? No sir, she did not. The first day we got there when we went in to see Mrs. Taylor the defendant went in with us; she was there when Mrs. Taylor explained the character of the house. When the character of the house was made known to me I did not express any desire to leave. I said to my sister, "we will stay this week out and then we will go away."

Bertha Vanderlip sworn. I am living now at the House of Mercy in this city. Before I came to New York I lived in Freedonia with my mother. I remember the Monday morning after I came to New York; I went to Madison Square Park with my sister and sat down on one of the seats. I saw the defendant Katie there; she sat down beside us: we had been sitting there half an hour before she came. I spoke to her first and asked her what time it was. She said she did not know. After that we talked with her. She asked me if I had ever been in a parlor house. I did not answer her. My sister wanted to know what kind of a house it was. Then I asked Katie Russell. She said it was a house where they received gentlemen. Then Katie kept coaxing us to go; she asked us if we wanted to go to that house; she asked us more than once. three or four times. She said we would recieve gentlemen. I said, no. at first, but afterwards I said we would go and see what Kind of a place it was any way. I said that to my sister, but Katie Russell heard it. I guess we were sitting on the bench about three or four minutes with Katie before we went away. My sister and I went with Katie Russell to the house; when we got there we saw the madam, Mrs. Sayler in the parlor. There was nobody but Katie and us in the room. The madam asked us if we had been seduced; we told her yes. I dont remember anything else that was said The Madam said nothing about us working there; but when we were in the Park Katie Russell said we were to recieve company at the house; that it was sixteen dollars a week for board and that we were to pay her sixteen dollars a week and she would give us the rest of the money that was left over from the sixteen dollars. Neither my sister or I ~~did any~~ domestic work in that house, nor was any offered us to do. Katie Russell was not present in the Madams bedroom when she (the madam) told me about a gentleman and how Katie Russell came to go to the Park that morning at least I dont remember seeing her there.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

There were five girls in the house beside me and my sister. I had connection with men while I was in that house. I dont remember how many. Cross Examined. I think it was eleven o'clock when Katie met us in the park. I think my sister had four dollars the time she ~~left her sister~~; she paid for lodging at the hotel and for meals out of that four dollars. I dont know how much she had left when she met Katie. I am sure she had as much as 25 cents. We did not tell Katie Russell that we were strangers here, that we were hungry and wanted something to eat. Myself and sister were seduced before we came to New York. I only had connection with the man that seduced me the week before I came here. I was seduced about four weeks before I came here, and up to the time I left home I used to frequently meet that man and go with him. I made no complaint to my mother about being seduced by him, but I told my sister. I went with my sister of my own volition to see what kind of a house this was and I saw Mrs. Taylor there. I think I was there five days before I had intercourse with men During that time I could have left the house if I desired to do so, but I remained there voluntarily. Katie did not take me to the room with men; she did not tell me how long she had lived in the house herself; She was at the house all the time I stayed there. She went into the parlor with us where we found the madam. I do not remember the day of the month it was when I came to New York, but it was in the early part of June I was in the house from Monday until the next Saturday — I spent a Sunday in the house and left the second Saturday and was arrested on the same day.

POOR QUALITY

Annie Vanderlip sworn. I live in Syracuse and am the mother of these girls. I have lived in Syracuse about two months this last time, and before that in Freedonia. These girls have always lived at home except Ruth, who lived one year in Jersey city with her aunt. My daughter Bertha has always lived at home with me. I remember their leaving home; it was on a Saturday, but I do not remember the day of the month. Ruth was going to Albany first to her aunts and then she was going to her aunts in Jersey city to work. Bertha went down to the train to see her off. Bertha was 13 years old the 7th of last May. Cross Examined. My husband is living, but I have not lived with him in five years; we are separated.

I worked in a candle factory in Syracuse and supported myself and children that way. I was able to make about $4.50 per week.
I Kept house at 10 Lemon St. My little boy, who is 15 years old works in a mill and helps me. Ruth has been sick. Both of them has worked and helped me in the candle factory. Sometimes they would make $2.50 and $3.00 per week. I never heard about any one seducing Bertha and Ruth until they spoke of it here.
I did not know any thing about my youngest daughter being seduced four weeks before she left home. She made no complaint to me of any man seducing her. I never taught my daughters to go in a depot and ask strangers to pay their fare. Ruth had enough to pay her fare to Albany — she had four dollars. I know nothing about this case other than what was testified to here.
Annie Vanderlip recalled by the Court.
I first learned that my children were in this house on third avenue through the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to children. I never saw the defendant before. I gave no consent to the girls going to that house, I did not know anything about it. it was against my will that they were taken there. I am separated from my husband but have exclusive charge of these two girls. There has never been a legal separation between me and my husband. I never applied to any Court for the custody of the children. In my absence the older girl had charge of the younger I did not know that the younger girl was going away with the older. I knew that she had gone down to the depot. I had the folks look for her in Syracuse, I thought she got lost, I did not know what became of her; she went away with her sister without my consent. Bertha was not in charge of Ruth in New York with my consent.

Dennis Cahill recalled by Mr. Adams

I am connected with the Jumbo Court and arrested Katie Russell at 331 Third avenue on the 6th of June. That was after the arrest of Bertha Vanderlip. From appearances it was a house of prostitution, I could not prove it though. I am a police officer. I saw six women there and apparently obscene pictures on the wall. I had a conversation with Katie Russell. I asked her if she brought those girls from the Park, and she said she did. Asked her what she brought them there for? She said that they were hungry and she brought them to the house. Asked her if she brought them there for the purposes of prostitution? She said, no, but that the eldest one was a prostitute. The young one said she was not allowed to go with any men in the house; she said she was not "for business" there - she was not allowed to go into business; she said the eldest one was a prostitute and was put into business. The prisoner said that she was a prostitute there and that Mrs. Taylor kept the house and was out, but she expected her in. I arrested the five girls there, but left an old woman who was a cook. Left an officer there awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Taylor to arrest her if she would come and bring her to Court while I brought the five girls to Court. I think the girls were fined ten dollars each or discharged, I would not say positively, but the prisoner was put under a thousand dollars bail. Mrs. Taylor did not come. From all the information we have recieved she has gone to Connecticut. I have had three men looking after her and the Society has been looking after her; she has a Summer residence in Connecticut.

The case for the Defence.

Katie Russell sworn and examined testified. I am 22 years old and was an inmate of 331 Third Avenue. On the Monday in question I was in Madison Avenue Park, it was exactly three oclock, I sat down and the little one spoke to me and asked me what time it was. I told her it was exactly three oclock They told me they were strangers in the city and they had not a cent to their name, they had no place to go and had nothing to eat since yesterday. They told me that they had been out with parties all night at the hotel. I told them after that I was a girl in a parlor house and that I was sorry for them on account of their being young and that I would give them something to eat if they would come with me They asked me would madam say anything if they stayed. I told them I did not think they could. At that the little one said, Could they stay all night? I says, I will ask the Madam. I says. I must go.' The little one said, "I will go with you." The oldest of the two did not speak to me at all. Then the little one got up with me and said, "we will go." She says, "Ruth. will you go 2. Ruth says, "If you go, I will go." The two of them got up and walked straight home with me. On the way I asked the little one, "Aint you ashamed to sit around the park like that?" She said, No, we are strangers in the city, we have not anywhere to go." They told me they had a furnished room in this city. I asked them how long they were here? They told me they were one week. I asked them what did they do for money? They said that they were waiting there for a gentleman, that he slept with them and that he was to meet them at two oclock and promised them money. I told them that was the way the New York boys would for them. I told them if they wanted to come I would give them something to eat. I told them they could leave in the evening, that a parlor house was not a fit house for girls like them. They walked straight home with me. I did not coax or ask them to go. When they got to the house they asked me was the Madam there and I told them, yes. I called the Madam out and told her I had two little girls had not anything to eat and had nowhere to go. The Madam said to me, "What kind of girls are they?" I said that on the way home they told me they were prostitutes; that they came to this city to make money. When they got up stairs the Madam asked them what kind of girls they were? They told her they were strangers here. She asked them whether they had a father or mother. I was in the small room. She said, Are you decent girls? The girls said, No, we are not decent. The Madam asked them how long ago they were seduced? They said, six months ago. The Madam said if they were not decent girls she would board them. The little girl said, that was the house they wanted to be in. I went up stairs, and the little girl said to me, "O, Katie, we are going to be boarders in your house. The eldest one undressed herself and she pulled a syringe out of her pocket. I asked her what she was doing with that? She told me that she had it to keep herself clean from going with men. Then she pulled out paint and powder and went right to the looking glass and used it. The Madam said the little one was too thin, she was starved, she could not put her in business, she was for a week before she went into the business of going up stairs with gentlemen.

I did not have anything to do with putting her in business. Cross Examined. I was one year in this house, and before that I was living out as a servant girl in 315 East Fifty Second St in a respectable house I said If the officer said I had been in the business seven years, he made a mistake, he meant the chamber maid; she had been there seven years. I paid no attention to these girls till the little one attracted my attention. There was no one else on the bench; there was not a vacant seat around, otherwise I would not sit by those girls. I had no watch with me that day. I was out about an hour that day. I came from Corcoran's in Broadway. I was going to buy some goods and I could not find what I wanted and I left the store. Corcoran's is at Ninth St. and Broadway and Madison Square is Twenty Third St. and Broadway. I went purposely to take a walk I went straight from home to Corcoran's Our house is on Third ave. between 24 and 25-th sts. I saw it was three o'clock by the clock on the Fifth ave. hotel. I told the girls it was exactly three o'clock. They told me themselves before I questioned them that they were strangers in the city. They told me right after that they had nowhere to go, they had no money and had nothing to eat. and nowhere to sleep that night. I told them I would take them and give them something to eat. The little one said, Cant we sleep there? I told them I would speak to the madam about it. They told me they were in New York for a week, that they were sleeping with a gentleman the night before and he made an appointment to meet them at 2 oclock in the Park to pay them, and they said also they had nothing to eat since the night before. That Struck me as curious, but I did not comment upon it. I believed them to be hungry. I did not tell them while sitting on the bench I was a girl in a parlor house. I asked them did they know what I meant? They said, Yes. I asked them if they were ever in such a house? They said, bedhouse. I asked them what bedhouse meant? They told me where they went with gentlemen. I was in their presence with the Madam about ten minutes I did not hear all the conversation

I saw them at supper; we have suppers at 4½ I never took any girls to that house before.
I dont Know where the Madam is now. I have not seen her since the morning I was arrested; the cook has charge of that house now; she has been there this last eight years. The chamber maid is in Court, also a sister of mine; she is not in that house now, but she has been there a year and a half; she was in the house the time I was arested.
Thursday, July 17. 1884.
Bertha Vanderlip recalled. When Katie Russell sat down beside me in the Park I did not tell her I had nothing to eat since Sunday morning; I did not tell her I was hun gry. I did not tell her I had been out with a Gentleman the night before; she did not tell me it was three o'clock. I have never been married. [A syringe was shown to the witness by the defendant's counsel.] That did not belong to my sister. I did not see her have it. Ruth Vanderlip was recalled and she said she did not have the syringe.
Carrie Martin sworn. I am an inmate of this house in Third Avenue. I saw this syringe with the largest of these girls. As she was going to use it it broke. I have lived in this house of prostitution seven years. I don't know where Mrs. Taylor is now. I saw the girl in her room with this instrument.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.
