KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, John Siemon of the City of New York, for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollars to me in hand paid by Louisa Douai the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have sold, assigned, transferred and set over unto the said Louisa Douai her executors, administrators, or assigns a liquor license issued by the Board of Excise of the City of New York, on the 8th day of July 1893, to John Siemon to sell Spirituous liquors on premises No. 170 E 4th Street and numbered 611 which expired on the 7th day of July 1896, together with all claims and demands against the City of New York or otherwise for rebate of or for a proportionate share of the fees paid for said license or otherwise and I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint the said Louisa Douai as my attorney irrevocable, and in my name or otherwise, but at her own cost, to collect sue for and receive any and all moneys payable by virtue of the premises; and I do hereby covenant and warrant that I am the sole and exclusive holder and owner of the said license or any claim thereunder and that neither the said license nor any claim thereunder or part thereof has been surrendered, hypothecated, assigned or otherwise disposed of, the warranty and statement as aforesaid being made as an inducement for the payment of the consideration above specified.

WITNESS my hand and seal this 27th day of November 1897.

In presence of:

William H Coyle

John Siemon.

State, City and County of New York, ss:

On this 30th day of November, 1897, before me personally appeared William H. Coyle, with whom I am personally well acquainted and who being by me duly sworn, saith that he resides in the City of New York, that he knew John Siemon personally and knew him to be the individual described in and who executed the foregoing assignment, that he saw him execute the same and the said John Siemon duly acknowledged to him that he executed the same for the purposes therein mentioned and he thereupon signed his name as subscribing witness thereto.
