of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE
OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

(Sec. 822,
Penal Code.)

The said Jane Doe,

late of the 15th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Jane Doe, on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Jane Doe
of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

(Sec. 285,
Penal Code.)

The said Jane Doe,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- Line , and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in then said house for then own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

John Doe

(Sec. 222,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said John Doe,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the tenth day of March , in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for then own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in then said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are habitually disturbed, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

I am the above named defendant described in the indictment herein as Jennie Laurent.

I am but twenty-two years of age. In the month of November last I was residing in the City of Paris, France.
My father and mother were both dead and I was there left without means of support.

In the month of December last I left said City of Paris with one Tailleu and came to this country

Shortly after I reached the City of New York the said Tailleu installed me as the nominal proprietress of the house in question. My only interest in said house was the receipt of a salary of ten dollars per week and my board.

About three weeks after I entered the house in question it was raided by the police and I was arrested.
Said Tailleu immediately fled from the City of New York to Canada and I have not since heard from him.

Immediately after my arrest I left the premises and went to reside at No. 105 Clinton Place. I have since resided there and have led an honest and respectable life.

Shortly after my arrest I became engaged to a respectable man, employed as a salesman in a reputable house in this city, and on the 29th day of November last I was married to him. I annex hereto my certificate of marriage.

My husband has provided for me a comfortable and respectable home at Clinton Place aforesaid which is now open for me to enter. If the Court will exercise its clemency and permit me to go there I solemnly promise and avow that in the future I will be a respectable married woman and lead a decent and honorable life.

I have never before, in my lifetime, been arrested.

I am a salesman in the employ of Robert H. Ramsgate, diamond merchant, of No. 10 Maiden Lane and No. 101 West 14th Street in the City of New York, in whose employ I have been for the past two years.

Since the arrest of the above named defendant I became intimately acquainted with her, and after several months acquaintance we became engaged to be married and were married by the Rev. Dr. Judson on the 29th day of November last.

Since I have kept company with the above named defendant with a view to marriage, she has led an honorable decent and respectable life. I have every confidence in her and I firmly believe that she will make a good, loving, affectionate and faithful wife.

I have provided for her a respectable home at No. 105 Clinton Place in this city, and I most earnestly beg the court to exercise its utmost clemency in behalf of my wife, the above named defendant.

I have always led an honest and respectable life, was never arrested or charged with any crime or misdemeanor whatever, and I believe that I have the confidence of my present employer and of all those for whom I have worked in the past, and that if the court will exercise its clemency

For the past four months the above named defendant has been living at the house No. 105 Clinton Place in the

she has been living an honest and respectable life.

She has a good reputation in the neighborhood where she resides since she has lived there.

I know and am well acquainted with her husband. I know that for some time past she has been keeping company with a man employed by Mr. Ransgate, a diamond merchant on Maiden Lane in this city, to whom she was married a few days
