Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Kitty Made.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Kitty Made.

(Section 322, Penal Code,) of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND
HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Kitty Made.

late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Kitty Made.

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Kitty Made.

(Section 385,
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Kitty Made.

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the first day of July. in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- ~~six~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill governed house, and in ~~the~~ said house, for ~~the~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— sitting mad —

(Section 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said sitting mad.

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the first day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- ~~six~~, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for ~~the~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in ~~the~~ said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Please Return this Sheet with your Reply.

Hon William J. Power
Police Justice.

Dear Sir.

I would respectfully state as follows concerning James Sinclair alias Patrick Ryan recently held in your Court to await action of Grand Jury.

Through my informants he was convicted of having burglarized a Post Office in Connecticut about four years ago. In prison and after his discharge last December he declared his intention of thereafter living honestly.

Since then he has furnished much valuable information upon criminal matters to myself and other Government officials. He has then three plans to burglarize post offices thus having been frustrated.

At present time his arrest prevents also a scheme to bring several notorious criminals to justice in U S Courts.

Despite this fact, if he is guilty of criminality I have no desire to intercede in his behalf: But if it appears from evidence, ^{presented to you} that there was not criminal intent in the matters for which he has been arrested I shall consider it a great personal favor if you will so state it to the District Attorney and assist me to secure the prisoners release.

Yours most truly
Hugh H. Rank
