In compliance with your instructions we visited the premises Nos. 134 and 136 E. 14th St. known as "Theiss's Alhambra Hall" - We respectfully submit the following report.

James G. Cooper Jr.
Eugene D. Collins
Louis M^o Cord

Patrolmen Central Office Squad

At 10⁴⁰ pm. February 8th 87 we visited the above premises. About 200 persons were in the place. The Excise law was openly and repeatedly violated while the performance was going on, which consisted of singing, dancing and instrumental music by a band. Officer M^o Cord bought two glasses of lager beer at 10⁴⁵ pm. and Officer Collins at 11⁴⁰ pm. men and women sitting at tables drinking.

The women were apparently street walkers. This place has no Excise license. The theatrical license expires Feb'y 9th 1887.

We again visited these premises at 10¹⁰ pm. Feb'y 9th 87. About 100 persons were in the place. The band was not playing but an Orchestration played from time to time through the evening. We saw one woman partially intoxicated, in company with two men sitting at a table drinking and acting boisterously, attracting peoples attention to her. Lager beer was sold repeatedly to persons near us, and was bought by Officer Collins at 10¹⁵, by Officer Cooper at 10²⁰, and by Officer M^o Cord at 11 pm. from waiters. The majority of the women appeared to be fast and street walkers from their actions. This place has no Excise license. The theatrical license expires Feb'y 9th 87.

Examination Before Justice Earman
Dec 3 1888

For the Defendant - Archel P. Fitch

Michael Brisset, the complaining witness,
being duly sworn, deposes and says,
on cross examination by defendant's counsel:-

Q you are the officer who made the arrest in this case?

A Yes, Sir.

Q On October 20 when you were in this place 136 East Fourteenth St
what did you see there?

A I saw men playing on musical instruments and heard the music

Q do you know who was proprietor of that place?

A The reputed proprietor was George Heiss, the defendant

Q do you know of your own knowledge, or in any other way, except reports that defendant was the owner or proprietor of that place?

A I cannot tell who has got 0575

the business - no.

By Justice Forwan

Q. All you know as to the proprietorship is that by common repute he is known as the proprietor of that place?

A. Yes.

By Counsel for defendant

Q. What conversation did you have with him that night?

A. I told him I had orders to arrest him for not having a theatrical license.

Q. That is all the conversation you had?

Q. What did he say?

A. He said "all right"

Q. That is all the conversation you had?

A. That is all the conversation we had.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge, whether or not, at that time, he had his license from the Mayor?

A. I do not

Q. Then it is possible, is it not, that, at the time you arrested him he might have had a license?

0576

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know that there were three men by the name of Heiss in business at that place?

A. Yes; the father and two sons.

Q. Of your own knowledge do you know that either of them is proprietor?

A. I do not.

Q. What do you mean in your affidavit by saying that the defendant "unlawfully exhibited to public view an entertainment of the stage &c

A. By having heard in that place that he was the reputed proprietor

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge that he hired the orchestra or had anything to do with it?

deposes and says, that on the 16 day of April 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away ^{from} the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

One open face silver watch of the value of three dollars

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Walter Thompson (now here)

for the following reasons, to wit: On the above date, deponent was standing at the corner of Mott and Chatham streets and having the afore-described property in the left hand pocket of his vest, which was then worn on the person of Deponent.
That deponent's attention was then and there attracted to the said Thompson who had his hand in the right hand pocket of deponent's jacket. That deponent immediately afterwards missed said property as having been stolen from said vest-pocket. Wherefore deponent charges said deponent with the larceny of said property
