of deponent, in the after time, the following property, viz:

One Hundred and sixteen dollars in good and lawful money of the United States

$116 ⁰⁰/₁₀₀

the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Adolph Solomon (now here) from the fact that deponent had said money together with a larger amount of money in his pants pocket. That defendant was in said premises during the night of said date, that he left said premises at the hour of 6 A.M. on said date when deponent found said money missing. Deponent therefore charges the defendant with having stolen said money and prays that he be held to answer.

Police Court— 3 District.

City and County } ss.:
of New York,

of No. 456 Grand Street, aged 31 years, occupation Baker being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No. 450 Grand Street, 13 Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a building, the store floor of which was occupied by deponent as a bakers store ~~and in which there was at the time a business being, by name~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly entering through the fan-light over the front door leading to the store on the 19 day of September 1895 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

About Forty dollars lawful money of the United States the property of deponent and copartner and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Joseph Schroeder, Archie McArthur
Samuel Watts and Frank Meade (all now here)

for the reasons following, to wit: that said premises were securely locked and fastened and said fan light or transom was open and on the following morning found said store had been entered through said fanlight by reason of ^{toe} and finger marks affixed to the said transom. Deponent is informed by Ambrose W. Hussey a Police officer that the defendants each of them confessed to deponent that they were in company with each other when said entry was effected and that they acted in concert in said break and entry.

Deponent upon inspecting the drawer found it broken open and said money missing.

The defendant Max Magnus was tried and acquitted in the Court of Special Sessions on the ground that there was no evidence whatever to connect him with the offense.

In submitting the case to the grand jury this fact was overlooked and the bill was prepared to include him.

There is no evidence whatever to sustain the charge as against him, and the indictment is far as it relates to him can not be supported.

We therefore recommend that the indictment be dismissed as to the defendant Magnus.
