Ann Mac Connell

of No. 140 West 49th Street aged forty five years and by occupation a purchasing agent says that on the _____ day of _____ 188 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, says, that she accuses Ellen

E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby, alias Eliza Crosby Peck of the crime of Larceny - in this. That the said Ellen E. Peck alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck did on the 20th day of September, 1884, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, with intent to deprive and defraud the Complainant of her monies of which she was the true owner and with intent to appropriate the same to the use of her, the said Ellen E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck, to wit: the sum of ~~Three~~ hundred and ~~fifty~~ ~~five~~ dollars, lawful money of the United States, did then and there falsely and fraudulently represent and pretend to the Complainant that she, the said Ellen E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby, alias Eliza Crosby Peck was then the owner of in her own right all of the household furniture then situate and being in her residence No 307 Putnam Avenue, in the City of Brooklyn, State of New York, and that her name was Eliza Crosby.
That there were no incumbrances upon said property or Chattel Mortgages thereon; that she did not owe ten dollars in the world; that she received a large income which she received semi-annually in May and November in each year; that she was short of money for the reason that she had expended large amounts in establishing her second store in business, and that said money should be fully repaid on or before the 5th day of November, 1884.

That by means and by color of such false representations and pretenses the said Ellen E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck did then and there take and obtain from the Complainant the said sum of ~~Three~~ hundred and ~~fifty~~ ^{one} dollars, lawful money of the United States which the Complainant then and there gave the said Ellen E. Peck alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck, relying wholly upon the representations and pretenses then made by the said Ellen E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck as aforesaid and believing them to be true.

That in pursuance of said intent to fraudulently obtain from Complainant the amount of money as aforesaid and by means of said false representations and pretenses the said Ellen E. Peck, alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck then and there agreed to and thereafter did execute and deliver to the Complainant a Chattel Mortgage executed by her under the name of "Mrs Eliza Crosby" to secure the payment ~~thereof~~ ^{thereof} payable on the 5th day of November, 1881, and caused the same to be recorded in the Register's office of Kings County, State of New York, and that said Chattel Mortgage is past due and remains wholly unpaid.

Complainant avers that the name of Crosby was a fictitious one and that the real and true name of the Defendant was, and is Ellen E. Peck.

That the statement so as aforesaid made by the said Ellen E. Peck alias Eliza Crosby alias Eliza Crosby Peck that she did not owe ten dollars in the world and that said household furniture had no incumbrances or mortgages upon it were false and untrue and they know so to be by the said Ellen E. 2 To whom else?

Objected to.

Objection Sustained
 Exception.

0308

I loaned money to the defendant on the 20th of September 1884. I loaned it on Saturday evening at my residence. I loaned her the money for six weeks.

Q How much interest were you to receive for the use of that money?

Objected to

Objection overruled.

A Her proposition to me was to pay me $325. for the use of the $250 - for six weeks or two months. This interest was part of the reason why I loaned this money. I became interested in her story of course I wanted interest on my money. She advertised for the loan of $250. also agreeing to give $75 ^{bonus} ~~interest~~ for the use of the money - the $250. I answered this advertisement & received a note in reply from this defendant - Mrs. Corby. I have not that letter in my possession now.

Counsel for Defence moved to strike out all the evidence in relation to the letter unless it was produced.

I received a note in reply to my note & Mrs Crosby came to my house at the time stated ^{in the note} she would ^{be} there. She said at my house that she was embarrassed owing to a sum of money she had given to secure a business for her second son & that she was in receipt of an income which she recd. in May & Mr Embury & she desired to make this loan to secure a piece of property & that she was willing to give as she had advertised $75. bonus for the use of the money for that time agreeing to give me as security a Chattel Mortgage upon her household furniture. She asked me to come & see her furniture, saying she was not indebted in any way, that the house belonged to her sons & the furniture belonged to herself & that the furniture was not encumbered and that she would give me an interest in her ^{own} insurance policy to secure 0310 me against loss by fire. I went to Brooklyn & was shown the furniture by the defendant & felt satisfied to make the loan to her.

I saw her a week after that & that was the day I gave her the money. I communicated with her by letter as to when I would be able to give her the money.
I gave her the money at my house & the mortgage was executed two days after I gave her the money. (Mortgage marked Exhibit No. 1.)

Q Will you swear of your own knowledge that Mrs Peck ~~was~~ is not the owner of the property described in that mortgage?

A I don't know.

Q Will you swear of your own knowledge that there were any other or prior encumbrances on that property?

A I don't know. I don't know whether Mrs Peck owes anybody 10% or more & I can't swear that Mrs Peck does not receive a semi-annual income. I have not personally demanded the payments of this mortgage. I did not myself record this mortgage in the Kings Co. Register's office. This mortgage was loaned for six weeks or two months. I waited over two months before I made this complaint. I don't know of my own knowledge whether this money has ever been demanded of Wm Peck. I don't know Champion Bissell, a lawyer, never seen him to my knowledge. Wm Peck has never refused to pay me this money. I can't swear of my own knowledge that any of the chattels enumerated in that mortgage have been removed from that house. I can't swear that any chattel mortgage on that property has been foreclosed. & I will not personally say that Wm Peck has ever purchased any property in that house sold under a foreclosure of mortgage.

0311

Mortgage.
Objected

In reply to question by Counsel for the Prosecution Defendant & Defendants Counsel say they don't know whether they have any letters from Complaint to Defendant.

When the mortgage was due I went to defendant's house. I saw her at the Tomb & she promised to pay me the money when she got out. I asked her to pay it. She said her money was probably in Brooklyn then. When I first met this defendant she gave me her name as Mrs Crosby and I first discovered her name was Beck when I saw her in the Tomb & I never knew her by any other name than Crosby until I met her in the Tomb and there she told me her name was Beck. If I had known her as Mrs Beck I undoubtedly had something to do with her.

City & County of

New York, S. S.

Residing 23 East 14 St.
Champion Bissell, being duly sworn says that on or about the first day of September 1884 Ellen E Peck then residing at number 307 Putnam Avenue, City of Brooklyn New York, obtained the sum of Five Hundred and Seventy four Dollars from him of which sum Three Hundred and thirty four Dollars was lawful money, and Two Hundred and forty Dollars was in her written and past due obligations to pay the said amount to his order, under the following circumstances, to-wit.

Said Ellen E Peck executed to one Emily P Bissell, for whom Deponent is Trustee and attorney-in-fact, in the office of Deponent at number 23 East 14 Street in the City of New York on or about the first day of September 1884, a certain Indenture of Mortgage by which she in writing alleged that she thereby conveyed to said Emily P Bissell sundry and numerous re-ticks of Furniture then in the House number 307 Putnam Avenue, among other articles specifying a certain Parlor Suit, a certain Parlor Carpet, and numerous pictures on the Parlor walls; upon condition that if she said Ellen E Peck did well and truly pay to said Emily P. Peckell the sum of Five Hundred and Seventy four Dollars, as evidenced by her promissory note for that amount due November 4th 1884 then the said conveyance should be void. Said Ellen E Peck also on the same Indenture executed a statement in writing that she owned the said Furniture and chattels, which she thus undertook to convey, in her own right; and that there were no liens on the same of any nature, and she also delivered to Disponent a paper-writing of which the following is a copy

" Brooklyn, L. I.

August 30, 1884.
This is to certify that whereas my wife Ellen E Peck is about * execute a mortgage to E. P. Ripell for whom C Ripell acts as attorney, I hereby give my full consent for the same, in consideration of one dollar to me by him paid, and state that she is the sole and lawful owner of whatever chattels on the premises number 307 Putnam Avenue Brooklyn she executes a mortgage upon to said Ripell.

Richard W Peck

Witness

Geo P Thomas. "

Deponent says that relying on the representations made to him by said Ellen E Peck as herein before set forth, and on the paper delivered to him purporting to be signed by Richard W. Peck who was known by Deponent to be the husband of said Ellen E Peck, he thereupon accepted the said Indenture of mortgage from said Ellen E Peck and delivered her the lawful money and her written obligations of debt as aforesaid.

0322 that on November 4th 1884 he demanded ^{payment} of said Defendant further says that default having been made by said Ellen E Peck in paying the said amount of Five Hundred and Seventy four Dollars, Defendant on or about the fifth day of November 1884 delivered the said Indenture of Mortgage to one H.A.

 Middleton a Deputy Sheriff of Kings County New York for the purpose of foreclosure, and Defendant is informed by said Middleton and believes, that said Middleton having removed from the House number 307 Putnam Avenue Brooklyn one cart-load of furniture and pictures described in said Mortgage was refused further deliveries from said House by Richard W Peck, said Peck stating to said Middleton that he, said Peck, was the owner of said furniture and pictures with a few exceptions, the exceptions being 2 Easels, four pictures, 2 plush stands and one Chiffonier; and said Peck has since that 0323

date brought suit in Kings County against said Middleton for damages arising out of the taking of said furniture, which suit is now pending.

Deponent further says that said Richard W Peck stated to Deponent on or about the 10th day of November 1884 that the signature Richard W Peck to the paper writing hereinbefore set forth was not executed by him the said Peck, nor by any other person with his, Peck's, knowledge or consent; and said Peck said to Deponent, "Whoever wrote it, I did not and I don't know who did."

Deponent further says that on the 28th day of August 1884 said Ellen E Peck executed a mortgage upon the Carpets, suit, and pictures, as hereinbefore described as mortgaged to Emily P Ripell on the first day of September 1884, to one Horatio W. P. Hodson doing business at number 132 Nassau Street in the City.

New York, that she executed the said mortgage under the name of Knight, and that she well knew of the existence of this mortgage three days afterward when she executed the mortgage upon the same effects to Emily A. Biffell and made written statement that there were no liens on said furniture; and that the sources of Deponent's information, and the grounds of his belief in this regard, arise from the statements made to Deponent by said Hodson and the admissions of said Ellen E. Peck to Deponent, and from Deponent's personal examination of the Record Book of Chattel Mortgages in the office of the Register of Kings County, New York.

Deponent further says that by virtue of the mortgage aforesaid executed by said Ellen E. Peck, the aforesaid Ha Middleton Deputy Sheriff has caused to be sold of the chattels therein described the said 2 easels, 4 pictures, 2 plush stands and one chif-fonier for which there has been paid to Deponent as the proceeds of such sale the sum of Thirty nine ⁶²/₁₀₀ dollars over and above the Sheriff's charges on the same; and that the remainder of the Carload seized under said mortgage is not worth more than one hundred dollars, and is held in storage by said Middleton, to await the result of the suit brought against him by Richard W Peck for damages arising from the seizure of the same.

Deponent further says that on or about the 3rd Day of December 1884 he went before a Justice sitting at the Jefferson Market Police Court and recited the foregoing facts to the said Justice O'Reilly and asked for a warrant against said Ellen E. Peck which was refused him; Deponent then asked for a subpoena to compel the attendance of H. A.
Muddleton aforesaid as a witness to corroborate the foregoing facts, as a portion of them, and this was refused him by the said Justice.

The GRAND JURY of the City and County of New-York, by this indictment, accuse Ellen E. Peck of the Crime of GRAND LARCENY IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Ellen E. Peck, late of the City and County of New-York aforesaid, on the First day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, with intent to deprive and defraud one Emily P. Bissell of the moneys, goods and personal property hereinafter described, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to her own use, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously knowingly and fraudulently did falsely pretend and represent to one Champion Bissell, he, the said Champion Bissell, being then and there the trustee and attorney in fact of the said Emily P. Bissell, and as such trustee and attorney in fact, then and there having in his possession such moneys, goods and personal property; that she, the said Ellen E. Peck, then owned in her own name and right all of certain chattels consisting of one oil painting, called Beaver Brook Valley, one etching, called Snow Flake, two easels, two rugs, a large quantity of ~~carpet~~, two water color paintings, called respectively The Holy Family and

0341

Romeo and Juliet, one picture called A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing, one mirror, one piece of furniture called a chiffonier, one suit of parlor furniture, one table, one hat rack, one bedstead, one folding bed, and one bureau, and all and singular the furniture then being on the second and third floors of the house known as 307 Putnam Avenue, in the City of Brooklyn and County of Kings; that the same chattels were then all her sole and separate property and had been by her, the said Ellen E. Peck, fully paid for, and that the same were then entirely free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever, and that she, the said Ellen E. Peck, then and there had and possessed full competent and legal power, right and authority to sell, dispose of or mortgage the said chattels at her pleasure; that a certain paper writing, which she, the said Ellen E. Peck, then and there produced and delivered to the said Champion Bissell, in the words and figures following, to wit:

Brooklyn, L. I., August 30, 1884.

This is to certify that whereas my wife, Ellen E. Peck, is about to execute a mortgage to E. P. Bissell, for whom C. Bissell acts as attorney, I hereby give my full consent to the same, in consideration of one dollar to me by him paid, and state that she is the sole and lawful owner of whatever chattels on the premises number 307 Putnam Avenue, Brooklyn, she executes a mortgage upon to said Bissell.

Richard W. Peck.

was a true and genuine writing of one Richard W. Peck, the husband of her, the said Ellen E. Peck, and that the said Richard W. Peck had signed the same in the presence of one George P. Thomas, and that the signatures thereon were respectively the true and genuine signatures of the said Richard W. Peck and George P. Thomas, and that the said George P. Thomas was present when the said Richard W. Peck signed the same and had subscribed his name thereon as a witness to the signature of the said Richard W. Peck, and that the said paper writing was then and there a genuine and true consent and acknowledgment on the part of the said Richard W. Peck that the said Ellen E. Peck then might and could, and possessed full competent and legal right, power and authority to mortgage and dispose of the chattels aforesaid:

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretences and representations the said Ellen E. Peck did then and there feloniously obtain from the possession of the said Champion Bissell a large sum of money, to wit: the sum of three hundred and thirty four dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of three hundred and thirty four dollars, one promissory note for the payment of money, bearing date June 16', 1884, and signed Ellen E. Peck, and being a promise on the part of the said Ellen E. Peck to pay to the order of C. Bissell, Atty., two months after the date thereof, the sum of one hundred dollars for value received, the same being then and there due and wholly unsatisfied, and of the value of one hundred dollars, one other promissory note for the payment of money, bearing date June 25', 1884, and signed Ellen E. Peck, and being a promise on the part of the said Ellen E. Peck to pay to the order of C. Bissell, Atty., two months after the date thereof, the sum of one hundred dollars for value received, the same being then and there due and wholly unsatisfied, and of the value of one hundred dollars, and one other written instrument and evidence of debt of the kind commonly called due bills, for the payment of the sum of forty dollars, the same being then and there due and wholly unsatisfied (a more accurate description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown and can not now be given), of the value of forty dollars, of the proper moneys, goods and personal property of the said Emily P. Bissell, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Emily P. Bissell of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof and to appropriate the same to her own use.

WHEREAS, in truth and in fact, the said Ellen E. Peck did not then own in her own name and right all of the said chattels so as aforesaid by her, the said Ellen E. Peck, pretended to be owned by her, and the said chattels were not then all her sole and separate property, and had not been by her fully paid for, and were not then entirely free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever; and whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Ellen E. Peck did not then and there have and possess full competent and legal power, right and authority to sell, dispose of or mortgage the said chattels at her pleasure; and whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing which she, the said Ellen E. Peck, so as aforesaid then and there produced and exhibited to the said Champion Bissell was not a true and genuine writing of the said Richard W. Peck, and the said Richard W. Peck had not signed the same in the presence of the said George P. Thomas, and the signatures thereon were not respectively the true and genuine signatures of the said Richard W. Peck and George P. Thomas, and the said George P. Thomas was not present when the said Richard W. Peck signed the same and had not subscribed his name thereon as a witness to the signature of the said Richard W. Peck, and the said paper writing was not then and there a genuine and true consent and acknowledgment on the part of the said

Richard W. Peck as aforesaid; and whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Ellen E. Peck to the said Champion Bissell was and were then and there in all things utterly false and untrue, as she, the said Ellen E. Peck, at the time of making the same then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say, that the said Ellen E. Peck, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, in manner and form and by the means aforesaid, with force and arms, the proper moneys, goods and personal property aforesaid of the proper moneys, goods and personal property of the said Emily P. Bissell then and there feloniously did steal: against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New-York and their dignity.

_____ by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, and with intent to deprive and defraud the said Anna Mac Connell, _____ of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to her own use. ~~Whereas~~ in truth and in fact, the ~~aid~~ name of her the said Ellen E. Peck, otherwise called Eliza Crosby was not Eliza Crosby, and she the said Ellen E. Peck otherwise called Eliza Crosby, was not then the owner in her own name and right of all the household furniture then being in the premises aforesaid, and the said household furniture was not then free and clear of all liens and encumbrances of any kind:

And whereas in truth and in fact the said Ellen E. Peck, otherwise called Eliza Crosby was then indebted to divers persons in divers large sums of money, and did then owe more than ten dollars in the world: and the said Ellen E. Peck, otherwise called Eliza Crosby did not then receive a large income which was regularly paid to her in May and November of each year, and had not then lately before expended a large amount of money, or any amount of money whatsoever in establishing her second son in business, and was not then in consequence thereof in need of money,

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Ellen E.
