City and County of New York, ss.:

Michael E. Lyons being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am a Police Officer attached to the 30th Precinct, in the City of New York. On the 14th day of July 1887, I called at 131st Street, Broadway & 12th Avenue the alleged residence of Bridget Smith, a witness herein, and was informed by the janitor of the building upon said premises that the said complainant had not been at said address since she had moved into said premises, some time during the latter part of June ult., & that the said Mary Boylan had not been there in two days past, that he knows of the whereabouts of said witness. These facts were confirmed to me by the statements of a woman who is a tenant in said building. About a week or two previous to the visit above detailed I made a similar effort at the same premises to serve the said witness Smith, with the same result, no information being obtainable by me as to her whereabouts.
