The People
vs.
Harry Sullivan

Court of General Sessions, Part First.
Before Recorder Smythe, May 4, 1887.
Indictment for robbery in the first degree.
Rose Clark sworn and examined, testified: I live at 209 Thompson St. I remember the 22nd of April; I saw the prisoner that evening. I knew him from being around there for the last year.
Bleeker St, South Fifth Ave. and Thompson St.
I went into a grocery store and he followed me into the store; this was about 11 o'clock in the forenoon; the store was 63 South Fifth ave. He asked me to treat him and I refused to treat him; he hauled off and struck me; he snatched my pocket book and ran across the street. I followed him, he struck me again and where he went to I do not know; my eyes swelled up and pained me; so I had to go home; then he snatched my pocket book in the grocery store. Did your pocket book have anything in it? It had three dollars and fifty cents in money, two dollars and fifty cents worth of pawn tickets, and a little gold stud. Where did you have your pocket book? I had it in my left hand. Did he strike you after he took it or before he took it? He struck me before he snatched it. He struck me in the eye in the grocery store; he hit me hard enough to blacken it. It is all black there, and this was on the 23^d of April?

 Yes sir. How soon after he struck you did he take the pocket book? The moment he struck me he snatched it and ran off. You put your one hand up to your eye and he pulled the pocket book out of your other hand.
 Yes sir. I saw him about seven o'clock that evening at the corner of Ninth Fifth Avenue and Bleeker St.; he told me not to have him arrested and he would make good for it.
 I saw him five minutes before the officer arrested him. I complained to the police about my loss that same night before I had seen the prisoner. I went to the police station and made a complaint. I think he was arrested about 8 o'clock that evening. I went before a Police Justice the next morning.
 Cross Examined. I go in the street for a living.
 I was arrested about three or four times for "soliciting". I was on the Island once; it will be a year next August since I came from the Island. I was arrested some time in April for soliciting. I was not drinking the morning this thing happened. I swear positively that the prisoner snatched the pocket book out of my hand. I did not say to the prisoner in the evening, "we will make it all right." The prisoner knew who I was; he did not live with me.

Harry Sullivan, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I am a tin roofer and have been at that trade four years. I was arrested once for intoxication, but never for any crime. I was in this place on Friday week, 63 South Fifth Avenue, I was drinking in there and this woman came in there intoxicated and insulted me and abused my sister and my mother. I pushed the woman away from me. I went outside, the woman followed me outside on the sidewalk. I pushed the woman again and she insulted me again. I finally struck her and went across the street. That was in the morning about 11 o'clock. I stayed up in the house about half an hour and came down from there. I went up to my mother's house in Christopher St. and I remained there until the evening between six and seven. I met this woman corner of Bleeker St. and South Fifth Ave. I apologized to the woman for striking her. She told me I had no business to do anything to her; she never mentioned anything about stealing the pocket book. I came down to this place and the officer had me arrested. I did not take the pocket book from her, but I did strike her. I have known her pretty near two years. Before I was arrested I was working at 623 East Sixteenth St. a tin roofing shop.

I was at work within two days of my arrest with Louis Eger; before I worked for him I worked for Louis Motion in Fortieth St. and Third Ave. I worked there about two weeks; before that I worked in thirty fifth St. between Second and Third Aves. I worked there two weeks. How is it you worked only so short a time in these places? I work as long as the work lasts. Cross Examined. I told the Counsel I had been arrested once for intoxication. I have been arrested before that; that was about three years ago for embezzlement. I was sentenced to the penitentiary for a year. I came out of the penitentiary on the 9th of February, 1879 I guess. I have been at work pretty much all the time ever since.
 That is the only time I was ever in prison. I have known the complainant about two years. I knew she was a street walker. I was in this grocery store all the morning from before seven o'clock I did not follow her in; she was intoxicated and called my mother and sister indecent names. she knows my sister, who lives at 60 South Fifth Ave. Hit her hard in the eye. Officer Thomas Scullion was called by the District Attorney and testified that the prisoner kept bad company; he was suspected to have something to do with a crime committed in 117 Becker St.; his sister walks the street. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny from the person. He was sent to the State prison for three years and six months.
