Direct Examination By Mr. Pennington

Did you know the defendant?
Answer

1

Q And you state to the jury how you came to know her? What relations you had with her?

A I got to know her through my mother being sick.

Q She lived in the same house?

A Yes sir. We kept a dispensary store.

Q What did she have to do with your mother's business?

A She said she could cure her?

Q How did she come to say that she could cure her?

A By passing up and down and going by her door.

Q In what manner did she come to know anything about your mother's sickness?

A By hearing the noise my mother made. She made lots of noise stamping on the floor and crying very loud.

Q What was the trouble with her?

A She was out of her mind.

Q Did you call on the defendant as a 0076 physician?

A. No, not in the place. As she said she could barely walk, that is how much of these months, that is how she came to go to her.

Q. Now what took place after that, did she see your mother or did your mother go to see her?

A. She came to see my mother and gave her medicine.

Q. Did she make any administration of her?

A. She looked at her and felt after pulse.

Q. Did she say what was the matter with her?

A. She said she was not right.

Q. And did she prescribe medicines for her?

A. She gave them to her herself.

Q. Did you see her give her any medicine?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did she receive any pay for it?

A. Yes sir, fifty dollars in advance.

0077

W

Q During what time did she treat your mother?

A From August 5th to November
5th 1886

Q And when did she receive the pay?
A She got $5 dollars a week for twenty five days afterwards

Q And you saw her make this statement and give her medicine at that time?

A Yes Sir

Q Was she married?

Q Were you living in the house at the time?

A Yes Sir

Q How long had your mother been ailing?

A Last October a year ago

Q Was that when she became out of our mind?

A Yes Sir that is when we noticed the first of it

Q And did Miss Chevalier come to live in the house?

f

A: I don't know who was living there before we got there & who had the discrepancy there before we moved in.

Q: Who was the discrepancy?

A: I don't know anyone but the attendant.

Q: Did you know that she belonged to a society?

A: She told me it was St. George's society.

Q: When was that, that she told you that?

A: That was after we got to New Orleans.

Q: About what time was it?

A: Sometime in August.

Q: Did you give the name of the society?

A: St. George's medical society as much as I can remember.

Q: Was it medical society or medical aid society?

A: I cannot tell that.

Q: You lived up stairs in this house?

A: Yes sir.

Q Immediately over the rooms occupied by Mrs. Chambers?
A Yes sir.

Q And your mother you say made a great noise in the rooms?
A Yes sir.

Q Did Mrs. Chambers have any occasion to go up stairs or the floor unless you said?

A I don't know whether she had dealing with her?

Q Won't you please about having your mother treated as far as you know?

A I cannot remember.

Q You knew that there was a medical aid society which had this dispensary place in that house?

A Something of that sort?

Q What did you say when she first spoke to you about treating your mother?

A I don't remember the words,
but I thought if she cure her it would be a lucky thing for us.

0000 7

I would like to see it first.
I don't remember

If you cannot give testimony, then the
the same first to you as requested that she is accused to treat your mother?

A We met together. I don't remember exactly whether I was first or not, I think she spoke first

If had any other physician treated your mother up to that time?

A Yes sir, not for that disease

If she had not been treated by any physician before you had her?
Answer sir

If what did they say was the matter with her?

A About the same thing, that she was out of her mind

If the doctor whom you had before Miss Chevallier saw your mother concluded that she was insane?
Answer sir

0001

81

Q Miss Chavassier claimed she saw the same thing when she saw her?

A About the same.

Q How often was she in your or your mother's rooms?

A She came up two or three times but then she couldn't come up for a long time again.

Q Two or three times a day?

A She came up there as often as three a day.

Q Who made the arrangements with her about pay?

A My father.

Q Were you present?

A Yes.

Q Then you are not swearing of your own knowledge that she agreed to cure your mother for the price of fifty dollars?

A Yes Sir not for the fifty she didn't pay but she said she could cure her in 3 months time.

Q Are you talking now about pay?

0002

'9

A. I cannot give you the pay, father made that arrangement.

Q. And you were not present when your father made the arrangements about pay?

A. Yes.

Q. Then you have no personal knowledge in that respect?

A. Yes.

Then I want to strike out that portion of the testimony relating to the personal knowledge?
By the Court.

Now, I asked

Q. You recall that time and you want that "Miss Phyllis" did not claim to be a physician, did you not?

A. She did claim to be one.

Q. Do you?

A. Yes.

Q. Did she tell you that she was a physician?

A. I cannot remember that exactly.

to practice as a physician? From what she told you?

I am the complainant in the above entitled action. I desire to withdraw my complaint against the defendant. In doing this I am influenced entirely by a desire to do what is right and not at all by any reward or hope or promise of reward for so doing. On the evening of the assault I and the defendant were both under the influence of liquor and we had been drinking together. I was so intoxicated that I cannot now recollect out of what our trouble arose. He struck me on the mouth with a bar but I was not seriously injured. I did not have any of my teeth knocked out nor was I laid up so as to lose any time. I have known the defendant for four years. I believe he is a hardworking man. I never heard anything against his
