that on the 25 day of November 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York

Samuel Couray, formerly known as three other men, well known defendants and not arrested, did willfully maliciously and maliciously destroy certain property in defendant's place of business at the above address for the following reasons. That on said date defendant saw the defendant Couray in the premises and the other three unknown men with him. That defendant left the premises and after a short time, defendant went back and discovered that some of the pipe connecting with the machinery had been cut and that some of the machinery had been broken and rendered useless. That the damage done to the machinery is about seventy-five dollars. That defendant was informed by a workman that the defendant Couray and the said three unknown men were in his place of business and sold a quantity of brass and copper which defendant saw and identified. Wherefore defendant prays that the defendant be held not responsible for the damage done on the
