OFFICE OF
G. SIDENBERG & CO.
39 & 41
Mercer Street

New York May 19 1880.
Hon Frederick Smyth.
Recorder

Esteemed Sir.

Permit us to appeal to you in behalf of James Burke indicted for felonious assault and battery. In his behalf we take the liberty to state that he has been in our employ for over six years, and in looking over his record find that he has been industrious and faithful in the discharge of his duties. We especially appeal to you as we understand that there is no one who can interest themselves in his behalf, and he has to rely solely upon you for clemency. There is no one from whom we can learn the correct facts of the affair, but as far as we have learned, it is that the accused had been attacked first by the injured party, and judging by his usual quiet and inoffensive manner the provocation must have been severe.

We leave the consideration of the matter in your hands, trusting that you will temper the requirements of justice with leniency towards this unfortunate young man. We Remain Honored Sir.

With Great Respect
Yours very truly residing at No. 218 Boney being acquainted with the people states that I was present when the sufficiently return George Morris and David Gervase I saw Gervase put up his watch in a man's money into a man's company with Morris I saw Gervase make a throw with the dice saw that he lost & saw the other parties take the watch and money Gervase made the remark when he lost the money "my God I did not lose this fair

Card of accusation
My position is that I understand this thing of dice was between Morris and Ben O'Leary in the morning I did not see the complainant take out his watch and place it in the money. There is no mistake about that A all receipt from Morris As soon as I heard Gervase say that he did not lose the money fair I said this is something I do not after Ben said this man his watch back. No one ran away from the table with Gervase's watch By the Court has anything been acquainted with the parties of even six months I saw him some days from his time rather time ago August Bente
