Thomas Quinlin, of No. 560 Greenwich street, in said City, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That on the 5' day of September, 1884, deponent and his brother Joseph and Henry R. Lawrence arrived in this City from Albany and put up at the Hotel Devonshire, in 42nd. street, all three registering under the name of Quinlin, and all three occupying the same room; that at about the hour of five o'clock in the afternoon of said day deponent deposited with the clerk of said hotel, Arthur L. Bishop, a draft on the Anchor Line Steamship Company, issued in London, for one hundred and forty pounds, and made payable to Joseph Quinlin or bearer, and two ten pound notes of the Bank of England, amounting in all to about the sum of $770 in American money; that deponent received from the said Bishop a receipt for said draft and notes; that at about the hour of two o'clock on the morning of the 6' day of September, 1884, deponent and the said Lawrence retired to their room and went to bed, the said Joseph Quinlin already being in said room; that at about the hour of 9 o'clock on the morning of said 6' day of September deponent missed from his pocket the said receipt, and then went to the said clerk of said hotel and asked for the said draft and the said notes, when he was informed by said clerk that deponent's brother had already presented the said receipt and gotten the said draft and the said notes; that deponent then went to his room and asked his brother if he had the said draft and the said notes and was told by his brother, the said Joseph Quinlin, that he had not; that deponent then asked his brother if the said Lawrence, who had left his room at about 8 o'clock on the morning of said 6' day of September, had returned, and was informed that he had not; that deponent then went back to said clerk and said clerk described the said Lawrence as the person to whom he had given said draft and said notes; that the said draft and the said notes were cashed at the Columbia Bank, corner of 42nd. street and Fifth Avenue, and the cashier of said bank described to deponent the said Lawrence as the man for whom he had cashed said draft and said notes; that said Lawrence has not been back to said hotel since he left on the said 6' day of September, 1884, at about 8 o'clock in the morning.

Wherefore deponent charges the said Lawrence with having stolen said draft and said notes, and prays that he may be arrested and dealt with as the law directs.

KING OF THEM ALL.

A Handsome Swindler Is Arrested After a Successful Career on Both Continents.

The simple entry on the returns from the Detective Bureau at Police Headquarters yesterday, "Henry R. Lawrence, twenty-seven years, German, speculator, arrested for larceny," represents the temporary winding up of a career that has few parallels in the annals of crime. Lawrence was brought to this city yesterday morning by Detective McCluskey, having been arrested two weeks ago in Chicago at the instigation of Thomas Quinlan, an Englishman, who says that he and his brother arrived in this city last September, having made the acquaintance of Lawrence on board the steamer. Upon their arrival he steered them to the Hotel Devonshire, where Thomas Quinlan deposited his funds, amounting to $350, in the safe and took a receipt for them. Lawrence took the brother around and out of town as far as Poughkeepsie, managing to leave the impression upon them that he was a person of distinguished connection. On the second day after their arrival Thomas had a business appointment with his uncle. Before sunrise that morning Lawrence aroused Quinlan in the hotel after having first possessed himself of the receipt for Quinlan's deposit in the hotel safe and made him go with him to Central Park to enjoy the morning air. It was nearly 10 o'clock before Quinlan remembered his engagement and hurried off to his uncle's house. When Lawrence had seen him safely on the way he went back to the hotel, presented the receipt, drew the money and took a steamer back to Europe the same day. On the way over he added to his money by playing an unsuspecting fellow traveler a similar trick, and then leisurely made a tour of the continent, returning to America a month or two ago.

Inspector Byrnes had, meanwhile, sent circulars describing the swindler to all the large cities in the Union, asking for his arrest. It was developed that Lawrence's real name is Adolph A. H. Kleeckamp, and that he was originally a Chicagoan. He married a Miss Taylor, of Rockville, Ill., and soon after committed bigamy in Los Angeles by marrying Nellie Richards, the daughter of a wealthy resident of that place. By robbery and swindling he possessed himself of over $20,000 in the California town and ran away to San Francisco. In San Francisco he posed as a member of a firm of jewelers in Los Angeles and added $5,000 to his ill-gotten gains. Having soured out his devoted second wife on the pretense of explaining all, but really to rob her of all she had, he fled, leaving her destitute, and this time went as far as Chicago, where he boarded in great style at one hotel after another, swindling them all. When that locality became too hot for him he journeyed to New York and found employment with Horace H. Winston, a publisher, at No. 234 Broadway. At the end of four months he collected $700 and his employer and left suddenly. As a canvasser he had been Harry R. Sheldon. In a single night he became Lord Pembroke, and as such took passage for Europe on the steamer Belgenland.

Among his fellow passengers there was a young St. Louisan, the son of a banker in the Western city to whom the "Lord" attached himself, with the result that when the two reached Paris "Lord Pembroke" had the young man's draft for $5,000 in his pocket. He lost no time in cashing it at his bankers. To spare the young man the remorse of confessing to his father that he had been robbed, Kleeckamp considerably cabled the fact himself to St. Louis, and added that he was in need of more money. When it came in shape of another draft, he cashed that also and left the town, leaving father and son to come to an understanding by cable. It was on his return from this European trip that his evil fate led him back to Chicago, where Thomas Quinlan met him in the street and caused his arrest. Kleeckamp's papers were sent on from New York but the prisoner made a stubborn fight. There are numerous warrants for his arrest beside those already mentioned. He is wanted in Indianapolis and in Kansas City for swindling. In the former city he was arrested in an attempt to cash a forged check, but escaped from his captors. When caught in Chicago he was on the point of starting for New Orleans. Lawrence, alias Kleeckamp, is a handsome swell in appearance, with a long, silky blond mustache. He is 6 feet tall, slender and very well dressed. He speaks five languages fluently. His picture was taken and placed in the "Gauguin" Gallery. Inspectors took the prisoner before Recorder yesterday noon yesterday. He pleaded guilty and was committed for examination.

Katie Ruff wife of deceased 478 Willis An honest man. About Aug. 1st my husband came home about 5 PM he showed me his head and said see what happened to me showing me a cut on his head. He said an unknown man had struck him on the head with a stone and him arrested.

A druggist clerk dressed his head for a week. My husband did not go to work for the first two days as he was in such he worked for 6 or 7 days and then got worse Dr. Ruhl attended him until he died.

Dr. Williams, Dr. Ruff & Dr. Ruhl all attended him.

He died Aug 20: 1883 know Joseph Ruff. He & I and Peter Bruner were sitting in a saloon in our house on Aug 1st 1883 about 4 P.M. the saloon keeper Mr Schaffer was there. we were talking when a licensed under man came in and asked for 25 cents charged for the saloon keeper which was given to him.

He then turned to Mr Ruff & said
You are a ~~foreigner~~ ^{farmer} and a son of a bitch.
Ruff said I am no ~~foreigner~~ farmer I am a brick layer.

The young man then said to Ruff excuse me I am only joking. Ruff said all right but don't do it again you might make a mistake. Then the young man said: I can lick you or a man twice as big. Then the young man went to Ruff and drew his fist to strike Ruff. Then Ruff stood up and struck the Piddler in the eye which made him fall back. Then Ruff put him out of the saloon and threw his hat after him and said now don't come

 Mr Price said to Ruff - look out that fellow is coming in with slaves so Ruff went back and came out the hallway when between the ice box & the bar. he saw the pedler was ran up to him behind him Ruff turned and tried to grasp the man's hand but the young man was too quick and struck him in the head. He held him up. the young man ran out and was threatening every body I saw the young man. He was arrested so I heard and sentenced to 10 days.
 Ruff went home himself.

Lucien Schaffer 661 152 - St. Louis says. Keep a saloon there. About Aug 1st 1883. about 4 P.M. Joseph Ruff & Christian Becker & Morris and myself were in the saloon. When a pedler who name I know was Thomas Lewis came in and asked for change for 25 cents. He turned to Mr Ruff and said this morning I bought potatoes for 14 shillings and now I can buy them for 12 shillings -

There is one of those damned farmers jumping to Ruff then. Ruff said I am no farmer I am a bricklayer. Then the boy held his hand up to Ruff's face and said I'll lick you. Then Ruff said you ain't man enough to do ~~it~~ it. The Pedler held his hand up to Ruff's face to strike him but Ruff was too quick and struck him and he fell. Ruff put him out. Then he picked up two stones in the street and ran back in the saloon as hard as he could. Ruff went out - in the hallway. followed by the Pedler who fired a stone at him striking Ruff on the head. Then the boy ran and picked up more stones and stood in front of the house and

Wm A Conway M. D. being sworn says,

On August 21st/83 I made an autopsy on the body of Joseph Ruf lying dead at 478 Willis Ave. and found on external examination a wound which had been suppurating on left forehead about an inch in length. On removing the calvarium the internal plate of the skull at a point on the frontal bone corresponding with the external wound was found to be fractured. The coverings of the brain and the brain itself had been the seat of inflammation and considerable pus had accumulated at the point of injury. There was also considerable inflammation in the coverings of the spinal cord and in the substance of the cord itself.

The heart was a trifle fatty, the liver very much so and the kidneys rather small and contracted, and on left pleura sign of old adhesions, sign of some former pleurisy. In my opinion the cause of death was Tetanus & inflammation of the Brain caused by some external injury to the head.

Street, in the City of New York. I am a subpoena server in the office of the District Attorney of the City and County of New York. On the 13 day of May 1886, I called at No. 292 Rivington St the alleged residence of John Berken and Annie Berken the complainant herein, to serve them with the annexed subpoena and was informed by the several tenants of the house that each of them knows no one by the name of Berken and that the said Berken's do not reside there. I also called at No. 98 Sheriff St. which is occupied by two families and was informed by each of them that they do not know either John or Annie Berken and that they do not reside there. I have made diligent search and inquiry among the neighbors but have not been able to gain any information as to the present whereabouts of the said John Berken or Annie Berken

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Michael Sichtenwald

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF Assault in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Michael Sichtenwald

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, with force of arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of John Egan in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and in the said John Egan with a certain knife which the said Michael Sichtenwald

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut and wound with intent in the said John Egan then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF Assault in the Second Degree, committed as follows:

afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said John Egan then and there being, feloniously did, willfully and wrongfully, make an assault and in the said John Egan with a certain knife which the said Michael Sichtenwald

Sichtenwald in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, feloniously did, willfully and wrongfully then and there beat, strike, stab, cut and wound against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse James McQuinn —

of the CRIME OF Assault in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said James McQuinn — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four with force of arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of James Chaffey in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and in the said James Chaffey — with a certain knife — which the said James McQuinn —

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut and wound with intent in the said James Chaffey then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said James McQuinn —

of the CRIME OF Assault in the Second Degree, committed as follows:

afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said James Chaffey then and there being, feloniously did, wilfully and wrongfully, make an assault and in the said James Chaffey — with a certain knife which the said James McQuinn —

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, feloniously did, wilfully and wrongfully then and there beat, strike, stab, cut and wound

Precinct No. _____

New York, Friday Sep. 26th 1884

To the Honorable Judge Smythe
Dear Sir

I am detained in the house of detention as a Complainant against Peter Lord for a charge of assault I am at the present time in the U. S. service as a Marine but at present under no pay as I was reported absent without leave I have been down 5 times to court without any satisfaction I now leave it to your own Judgement whether it is right or not to be taking a man to court the same as I was taken yesterday and today being the last court day of the week 3 strong men that have only 0169 been in here a short time taken down and we threw over untill such time that the district attorney may feel ^{disposed} ~~disposed~~ to give us another trial and then most likely send me back i now as an amer ican citizen ask you for a favor and that is that you will have my case brought up according to my turn i would like to have it brought up before your present term expires as this man that i am again st has proven himself a desperate charac ter and to the best of my belief his counsel is trying to have the case held over untill the October term as i was bound over without bail to testify against him i dont think it is hardly fair to keep me in bondage to please a man who is sure to go to prison hoping that you will ^{give} my case your attention & remain your humble servant and American citizen
