Dec 20 1885

Catharine Doran the complainant, being duly sworn deposes and says: I know that I have lost my pocket book containing fifty one cents

Q Were you informed that the defendant took your pocket book?

A Yes Mr Kessler, the witness here told me, and he went after the defendant, and when the pocket book was picked up I said "Oh yes: that is my pocket book"

Q Did they arrest him?

A I am positive that they arrested
this man.

Q Do you not know that they arrested another man?

A I do not know that they did.

0238

Q - From your own knowledge do you know that the defendant took your pocket book?

A - I know that this young man was pointed out to me as the one who took it. I did not see him take it. I saw him caught, and I saw him throwing away the pocket book.

Q You say he threw away the pocket book?

A Yes; he threw away my pocket book. I saw him throw it away.

Q How many people were there standing around at the time?

A I do not know; there was a number.

Q What time?

A Nearly six o'clock.

Q Afterwards you identified your pocket book?

A Yes.

Q And you saw him throw it away?

A Yes; I saw him throw it away

0239

Q - Who picked it up.

A - I did not take notice.

Q - Who gave you back your pocket book?

A - I ain't got it yet.

Q - When did you see the pocket book after that

A - I saw it in the station house. The officer showed it to me. [Identifies pocket book] There is a little strip of paper in it and a penny.

Louis Kessler being duly sworn deposes and says: I reside at 919 de Kalb Avenue Brooklyn. I am salarman for E. Ridley & Sons
Cross Examined by Mr. Schlos

Q - Did you see this man pick up a pocket book?

A - I saw the defendant put his hand under the lady's sleeve. What he did after that for a minute or two I do not know. after he walked away I stepped up to the lady and asked her if she had lost anything. She said "Yes; I have lost my pocket book. This gentleman (Mr Stark) and I both went after the two men.

Q Do you know the defendant?

A I do not any more than I saw him last night

Q - Where was you and Mr Stark

A Out on the edge of the sidewalk.

Q Watching pickpockets

A Yes Sir I was standing in the door and was called out by Mr Stark

Q Is he also engaged at Ridley?

A I believe he is; I am not sure.

Q Did you have any conversation with this man Mr. Stark before the defendant was arrested

A Only that he wanted me outside 0241

to see to these men

Q Is there a watchman there?

A - Yes, I suppose he was. He told me there were pickpockets there.

Q Did you arrested him yourself?

A - Yes; I arrested him.

Q Did you go to the station house?

A - Yes.

Q And you arrested another man at that time?

A - Yes.

Q Why did you arrest another man?

A - Because I saw him with the defendant.

Q Who let the other man go?

A - The sergeant at the desk at the station house.

Justice O'Reilly

Q - He was acting in concert with this defendant?

A - Yes, Sir; so far as I could see

By the Schlos

Q - Was you with this gentleman the defendant, all the time while you went to the station house?

0242

A I was; yes Sir.

Q Don't it a fact that you demanded a dollar to let him go?

A No.

Q Is it not true that one or both of you, after this man was arrested, went to his house and demanded a dollar fifteen dollars?

A I did not.

Q Do you know that any one did?

A No, Sir.

Q How long were you engaged in Ridley?

A About a year and nine months.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Samuel Shear

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Samuel Shear —
of the CRIME OF Reputed LARCENY in the second degree,
committed as follows:

The said Samuel Shear,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eighteenth day of July, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Charles S. Miller, — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Charles S. Miller, —

That a certain paper writing which he the said Samuel Shear then and there produced and delivered to the said Charles S. Miller, in the words and figures following, to wit:

No. 1370 New York, July 18 1885

Corn Exchange Bank

Pay to the order of Samuel Shear
One Hundred & eighty $\frac{00}{100}$ Dollars $\$180 \frac{00}{100}$ Thomas Griffin & Co.

was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and of the value of one hundred and eighty dollars.

0307

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said Samuel J. Shea — did then and there feloniously obtain from the possession of the said Charles E. Miller, the sum of one hundred and eighty dollars
in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of one hundred and eighty dollars, —

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Charles
E. Miller — , with intent to deprive and defraud the said
Charles E. Miller —
of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said payment receipt which the said Samuel J. Shea did as aforesaid then and there produce and deliver to the said Charles E. Miller, was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money
and was not then and there of the value of one hundred and eighty dollars or of any value whatever, but was in truth wholly void and worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Samuel J. Shea — to the said Charles F. Miller — was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Samuel J. Shea —
at the time of making the same then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say: That the said
Samuel J. Shea —
the day and year first aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, in the manner and form aforesaid, and by the means aforesaid, with force and arms, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Charles F. Miller — then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said People.

into the living room in the back basement and by inserting a board and iron through said broken window and striking the bolts which fastened said door & thus opening the door on the 17 day of January 1888 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Forty shirts and a number of collars and cuffs
of the value of forty dollars

the property of several persons whose names are unknown to deponent in clothing and custody
and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

William Jackson and Daniel Callahan
(both now here)

for the reasons following, to wit: that about the hour of 11 o'clock on the above date deponent locked and securely fastened the above described premises and went away about the hour of 11 o'clock and returned and was informed by Alexander Squire of No. 129 Barrow St. that the above described premises had been burglariously entered,
and deponent on examining the premises found that they had been entered in the manner above described,
and that the above described property had been taken

Charles W. Sherwood being duly sworn says: that on January 20th 1886, his grocery store was burnt, and, being only partially covered by insurance, he was absolutely ruined, and has been unable ever since to pay his debts or to resume business,

That he has since been struck down by illness and completely lost his health, and has been compelled to live since, mainly upon the charity of grocery men, who would give some jobs or orders on which he occasionally made small commissions.

That he has sold everything he had in the world, and even his personal effects, to procure means of sustenance, and that he is now helpless and unable to procure or borrow the means to pay his fine.

That he has not a dollar in the world and is advanced in years.

Sherwood, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter the product of the Dairy; that the said Charles W. Sherwoodoffered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, one pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

Charles W. Sherwood

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

- Charles W. Sherwood -

(Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 3.) of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the City and County aforesaid, one pound — of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Thomas R. Fegan for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Charles W. Sherwood -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Thomas R. Fegan, one pound — of a certain substance, not butter, commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Thomas R. Fegan.

to be butter; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT: (Section 430, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Sherwood —

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

Thomas R. Fyfe, as an article of food one pound of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Sherwood —

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing one pound — of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law, to deliver to the purchaser, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail to one Thomas R. Fyfe.

— from a certain tub and box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and did then and there unlawfully omit to deliver therewith to the said Thomas R. Fyfe — a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Sherwood

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

Thomas A. Egan, one pound

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Sherwood

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Sherwood

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of, and designed to take the place of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered and manufactured out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article, substance and compound not being manufactured or in process of manufacture on the ^{30th} ~~thirtieth~~ day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

Thomas A. Egan, one pound

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

That heretofore—to wit, on the fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, at the City and County of New York, in the State of New York, the Health Department in the City of New York, which theretofore had been, and then and there was duly constituted, appointed and organized, pursuant to the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act to re-organize the local government of the City of New York," passed April 30th, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, did direct, order, ordain and enact, and did cause to be conformed to the eleventh article of the act aforesaid, pursuant to the eighty-second section of said act, the sanitary ordinances which had been then and lately theretofore adopted and duly published by the previously existing Department of Health, which said Sanitary Ordinances, as adopted and conformed, became and were called "The Sanitary Code," and wherein were contained, and thereafter, at the time of the commission of the offences and grievances by the person hereinafter named, and as hereinafter charged, formed a portion of such Sanitary Ordinances and Sanitary Code, having the force of the law, the words and language following, to wit: "That no live geese, ducks, or other fowls shall be kept in any yard, area, cellar, coop, building, or other place within the built-up portion of the City of New York, excepting in the public markets, without a permit in writing from this Department." which said Sanitary Code, so adopted and declared, or amended in accordance with law, by the provisions of the New York City Consolidation Act of 1897, was declared to be binding and in force in said city, and on the day hereinafter mentioned was and yet is in force and binding in said city; and at said time, the portion of said code hereinafter set forth was and yet is in full force and operation in said city, and in no manner altered, amended or annulled by said Board, and in no manner

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present:

That afterwards, on the twenty second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty five, and on divers other days from the said twenty second day of October, up to the date of the filing of this inquisition, one Joseph Simon, late of the Sixth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, did wilfully, knowingly and unlawfully keep and have divers live and living fowls, to wit: chickens, in a certain building, known as number Fifty nine Mott street, in said ward, City and County, the same being a built-up portion of the said City of New York, without a permit in writing from the said Health Department in the said City of New York.

see said defendant until the following Wednesday the 6th of Jan'y '86 when dependent accused defendant with taking said property when defendant Confessed taking said property and gave dependent two parrot tickets representing respectively
the Cigar Case and Locket herein described. Dependent is further informed by Officer James McGuire of the Central Office that he arrested said defendant who Confessed to him that he had stolen said property and took said Officer to the place where he had pawned said watch also herein described and dependent identifies said watch as being a portion of the property contained in said trunk and belonging to him.
