they had been standing quite close to me and had pushed and jostled against me. I could not identify the defendant as one of the young men, who was upon the car. I afterwards saw my watch at Heman & Koch, Manufacturers in Maiden Lane. I also saw my watch at Headquarters and I identify the watch now shown me as my property, taken from me on the night of July 31st.

Cross-examination.

Q. You dont undertake to swear that you saw this young man on the car that night. A. No sir.

Q. You wont swear that he is one of the young men, who jumped on the car when you lost the watch? A. No sir.

Q.

FRANCIS N. EVANHOL, a witness for the people, sworn, testified;---

I am a detective officer attached to the Central Office. On the morning of the first of August I arrested this defendant at about half-past one o'clock. I saw him standing with several others in front of a restaurant in 8th avenue near 38th street. He was standing there talking with two girls. Before I arrested him he had gone into the restaurant, and himself and the other young man were sitting at a table, each with a girl. I went in and took the defendant into custody. I saw him place his hand in his pocket and I asked him what he had there, and he said, "nothing"; and I said "Let me see it then", and I an another officer searched him, and while I was searching this man I found a watch. This watch was afterwards identified by the complainant as his property. I asked him where he got it and he seemed to be a little surprised, and he said " I have had that over a year". I took him to the Station House and then took him to Court the next morning. I asked him who was with him when he took the watch, and he said he wouldn't say anything about who was with him. I asked him when and where he got the watch and who was with him, and he said, he wouldn't say anything about anybody who was with him. I took him to Court the next morning and had him remanded, and I told him subsequently that he was foolish to stand for all this, as we call it;-- that is, to shoulder the responsibility of all this. I told him I had heard there was others with him, and he said he wouldn't say anything about it. On my way to Court the last time I asked him where he got the watch, and he told me he had it two months. I saw the makers name on the watch, and I took it to him at No. 5 Maiden lane. He informed me who the owner was. I went and saw the owner, brought him to the W Tombs, and he there identified the watch. The defendant was shown to the complainant at Headquarters, but he couldn't identify him.

Cross-examination.

Q. You heard the complainant's statement on the stand?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Who was with you when you went into that saloon?

A. Two other officers who are here.

Q. Did you arrest this defendant? A. I arrested him.

Q. Wasn't he sitting down at the table eating?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Wasn't there a boy waiting on the table? A. I could not say that.

Q. You searched him? A. Yes sir.

Q. What did he say about this watch? A. He said the watch belonged to him.

Q. Didn't he tell you he only had the watch for about three months? A. No sir, he said it belonged to him for a year.

Q. You arrested him without any warrant? A. Yes sir.

PATRICK CARROLL, a witness for the people sworn, testified.

I am a police officer belonging to the 20th Precinct. On the night of the 31st of July I saw the defendant between one and two o'clock in the morning in a restaurant in 8th av. near 38th st. . I heard officer Evanhoe talking with the defendant. He asked him if the watch which he had found on him belonged to him, and the defendant answered that he had that watch for over a year. I didn't have any other talk with the defendant.

JAMES F. VALLELY, a witness for the people, sworn testified.

I am a detective officer attached to the Central Office this City. I was so attached on the 31st. of July last. On the morning after that day I saw the defendant at the 37th street Station House. I asked him whi gave him the watch and he said the watch was his. Afterwards the watch was identified in the Jefferson Market Court, and then I had a conversation with the defendant. I asked him to tell me where he got the watch, and he said "Well, I dont know what to do".. Afterwards he said he was not going to say anything at all about it. I went to see him this week. I think on Tuesday, in the Tombs, and I said "Bradley you are in a pretty bad fix about this thing. You had better tell me who it was gave you that watch", and he says, "What do you want me to do, take somebody to prison with me; and I said "You can help yourself by telling on the other party"; and he says; "I'll take it all myself or take nothing."

Q. Have you known this prisoner before arrested?

A. By reputation.

Q. You know his father I take it? A. I do sir.

Q. You have known him for a great many years?

A. Yes sir, a long time.

Mr. Von HARTZ, the complainant, recalled.

Q. Was that ring on the watch when you received it from the policy officer? A. No sir, the ring was twisted off.

Q. Have you seen the ring since? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where is the ring which was twisted off?

A. I sent it to the jeweler.

Q.. Is that the same watch which you saw in the prison, without the ring? A. Yes sir.

Q. Subsequently you received the watch from him?

A. From the detective Valley.

Q. When you received it you sent it to the jewelers, and sent the ring afterwards? A. Yes sir.

D e f e n s e .

THOMAS CHURCHILL, a witness for the defendant sworn, testified.

I live at No. 635 8th av. I

I have been in this country 11 months. I have never been arrested or convicted of any crime. I have seen this man come into the restaurant where I worked at No. 553 8th av. I recollect the night of his arrest. On that night the defendant came in and ordered supper, and while he was sitting down a man came into the store, looked around, took a glass of water and came to Bradley, and said; "Do you want to buy a watch young fellow", and Bradley says "No" and the stranger says " It is a good watch"; and Bradley says, "Let me have a look at it". After looking at it

Bradley says; " How much do you want for it, and the stranger said "Twenty dollars". The defendant said "I have not got twenty dollars", and the stranger said, "I have not got a cent, I am broke, I will take fifteen dollars for it". Just then two policemen came in and the stranger walked out, and the defendant put the watch into his pocket. I am certain that he didn't have much more than one or two minutes looking at it.

Cross-examination.

I have been employed in that store three months. I have seen the defendant come into the store sometimes at 8 o'clock in the evening, and sometimes later. I am positive that the occurrence took place as I have related it. The defendant was sitting down at a table with another young man and two girls at it. I had just taken their order for supper. I didn't know the stranger who came in and handed the watch to Bradley. I had never seen him before. He went out of the saloon, ~~and where~~ I don't know whether the defendant opened the watch to look at it while he had it in his hand or not. It was while he was looking at it that the policemen came in and took him out.

EDWARD BRADLEY, a witness for the defendant, sworn testified,--

I am employed in the Union Stockyard Co. The defendant is my son. I have 4 or 5 other boys living.

0525

JOHN BRADLEY, the defendant sworn testified;--

I was 22 years old on the 13th of last August, and I am a plumber by trade. I was arrested once for disorderly conduct. I have been a plumber ever since I left school. At about nine o'clock on Thursday night the 31st of July I went down to 27th or 28th street to a pool room. I played pool in there until 1 o'clock. The place closed up and on my way home I went into this restaurant to get some supper before I went home. While I was in there sitting at a table a man with a red mustache-- quite a short fellow-- came in. He says "Hallo Johnny," I says "Hallo young fellow".. He says; "Do you want to buy a watch", and I says, "No". He says, "It is a good one"; and I says, "Well let me see it". He showed me the watch. I says, "How much do you want for it?", and he says "Twenty dollars". I says, "I haven't got twenty dollars", and he says, "I haven't got a cent, I am broke, I will let you have it for fifteen dollars". At that moment he turned around to see something in the restaurant, and he asked me to let him look at the Sporting World, he wanted to see something about the morning's races. I had the watch in my hand and while he was looking at the paper Officer Evanhoe came in. The officer came in while I had the watch in my possession. Officer Evanhoe and two other officers in uniform came in. I put the watch in my pocket. Officer Evanhoe says "Come on I want you" I says, "What am I arrested for", and he says "I want you. When we got in the street, I put my hand in my pocket, and the officer says, "What have you got there?".

 I says, "Nothing" he says, "I had better see" and he found the gold watch in my pocket. Then we went to the 37th street Station House. On the way to the Station House
 I told him I had the watch about a year. I thought that the watch had not been stolen and that he wouldn't take it from me. I lied to the officer when I told him that. I thought that he would let me keep the watch by telling him that. I didn't steal this gentleman's watch. I am telling the truth about this matter. I didn't hold any conversatin with the officer in the W Tombs because I was instructed by my counsel not to do not.

Cross-examination

- Q. Since last May what have you been doing?
 A. I haven't been doing anything.
 Q. How have you been living? A. From my savings.
 Q. What have you been doing nights? A. I have been going ¶ to bed early some nights, and other nights perhaps
 I wouldn't ¶ go to bed so early.
 Q. How many people were there with you the night you were arrested? A. There were two people.
 Q. The officer is right when he says that? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Have you been with these people much? A. No sir.
 Q. Didn't you know that one of them had been in the reformatory and was just out on Parole?
 A. No sir, I did not.
 Q. Have you ever seen the stranger since he gave you the watch? A. No sir, I was arrested on that night, and I have been in prison since.

Q. Had you ever seen him before? A. Not to my recollection.

Q. You knew that the watch didn't belong to you?

A. Yes sir, but I vnever suspected it had been stolen.

Q. Did you expect to meet the stranger again? A

A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you expect to meet him? A. I could not say.

Q. When you told the officer you had nothing in your pocket you had the watch there? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say that you received instructions from your Counsel to keep your mouth shut? A. Yes sir.

The Jury returned a verdict of " Guilty of Receiving Stolen Goods."

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County }
of New York, } ss.

John Walsh
of No. 272 Spring Street, aged 25 years, occupation Saloon Keeper being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 11 day of August 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States, consisting of divers bills of divers denomination, and divers pieces of silver coin of the amount and value of One Hundred and twenty two dollars

($ 122)

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

Charles Busch and Frederick Jaeger (while acting in concert with each other) both now here. from the following facts to wit: that said defendants Busch and Jaeger came in to deponents store No 272 Spring street, together at the hour of 9 A.M. on aforesaid date, and remained there up to about the hour of 12.00 and that about the hour of 11.45 A.M. deponent had said property in his hand and counted the same and placed the said property in a trunk in a room off the store when said defendants were, and that

Sworn to before me, this day

said Busch, asked deponent's permission to go into the said room where said property was, to change his collar, and remained there about three minutes.

And that deponent is informed by Lizzie Timmins of No. 272 Spring Street, that between the hour of 12.30 and 1. P. M. of the aforesaid date she saw said defendant Gaegeer coming out of the door leading into the room where the said property was, into the hall and into the street, and that shortly after both defendants Busch and Gaegeer went away.

And deponent further states that about the hour 1.15 P. M. of the aforesaid date, he went into the room for the said property, and found the trunk broken open and the said property gone, and the door leading into the hall open.

Deponent therefore charges said defendants with having committed a larceny and ask that they may be held and dealt with as the law may direct.
