CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } SS. POLICE COURT—SECOND DISTRICT.

of No. 342 East 63rd Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 11th day of January 1889 away, from the possession of deponent, and from deponents persons,

the following property, to wit:

One pocket-book containing a paper of needles and two bills of goods; and gold and lawful money of the United States consisting of silver, nickel and copper coin, said property being in all of the value of

One 64th

Dollars,

said pocket-book being the property of deponent and said other property being the property of deponents employer, Madame Margat and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Frank B. Simpson, now here, from the fact that deponent was then walking in 6 Avenue between 22nd and 23rd Streets and said property was then contained in the right side pocket of the satchel then worn upon deponents person.

That deponent felt a hand inserted into said pocket and felt said property abstracted therefrom and instantly turning round deponent saw said Frank standing on the right of deponent and within a foot of deponent. That at said instant of time there was no person near deponent except two boys who stood with their backs to deponent about six feet away, looking into a shop window.

That deponent caused the detention of said Frank until the arrival of officer Thomas who searched said Frank and found on his person three new silk handkerchiefs, one linen handkerchief, a purse containing one dollar and fifty seven cents and a gold pencil, and a night key and skeleton key - but not the property of deponent.

That before said Frank's arrest deponent saw him speak to the two boys who stood looking into the window whereupon they went rapidly away.

The People
 vs.

 Smith
 Honkels
 Clurback

First:

The offense charged consists of selling a lottery policy, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of any public or private lottery? It is necessary to aver in the indictment, ~~that~~, that some property was to be disposed of by lot or chance; otherwise, the alleged lottery would not be illegal.

People v. Payne 3 Denio. 88.

The indictment in the case at bar, does not aver that any property was to be disposed of by lot or chance.

Second:

The indictment avers, that a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly known as and called a lottery policy is to the jurors unknown, and cannot now be given?

The above language is found in the indictment immediately following after, the pleader had set out, the alleged policy in words and figures; but there is no averment in the indictment, that a more particular description of the lottery, or the property to be disposed of by lot, is to the jurors unknown

This is a fatal omission.
